FOREWORD

As you read of the activities of our present generation, chronicled in the pages of this book, it is our aim to give you a glimpse of that picturesque West of an earlier generation—that Pioneer West which gave to this section of our nation its heritage of a great empire, an empire created by those pioneers who conquered this vast desert of sand and stone by that indomitable spirit which we hope is also a part of our heritage.

THE SCHOOL

INDIAN WANDERER

“Where do you come from, Wandering Youth?

From what village do you come?”

“Old man, old man—I come

From a village in the desert,

Where the yellow-petaled blossoms

Nod and sway in the soft wind,

Where the night brings out the cool moon,

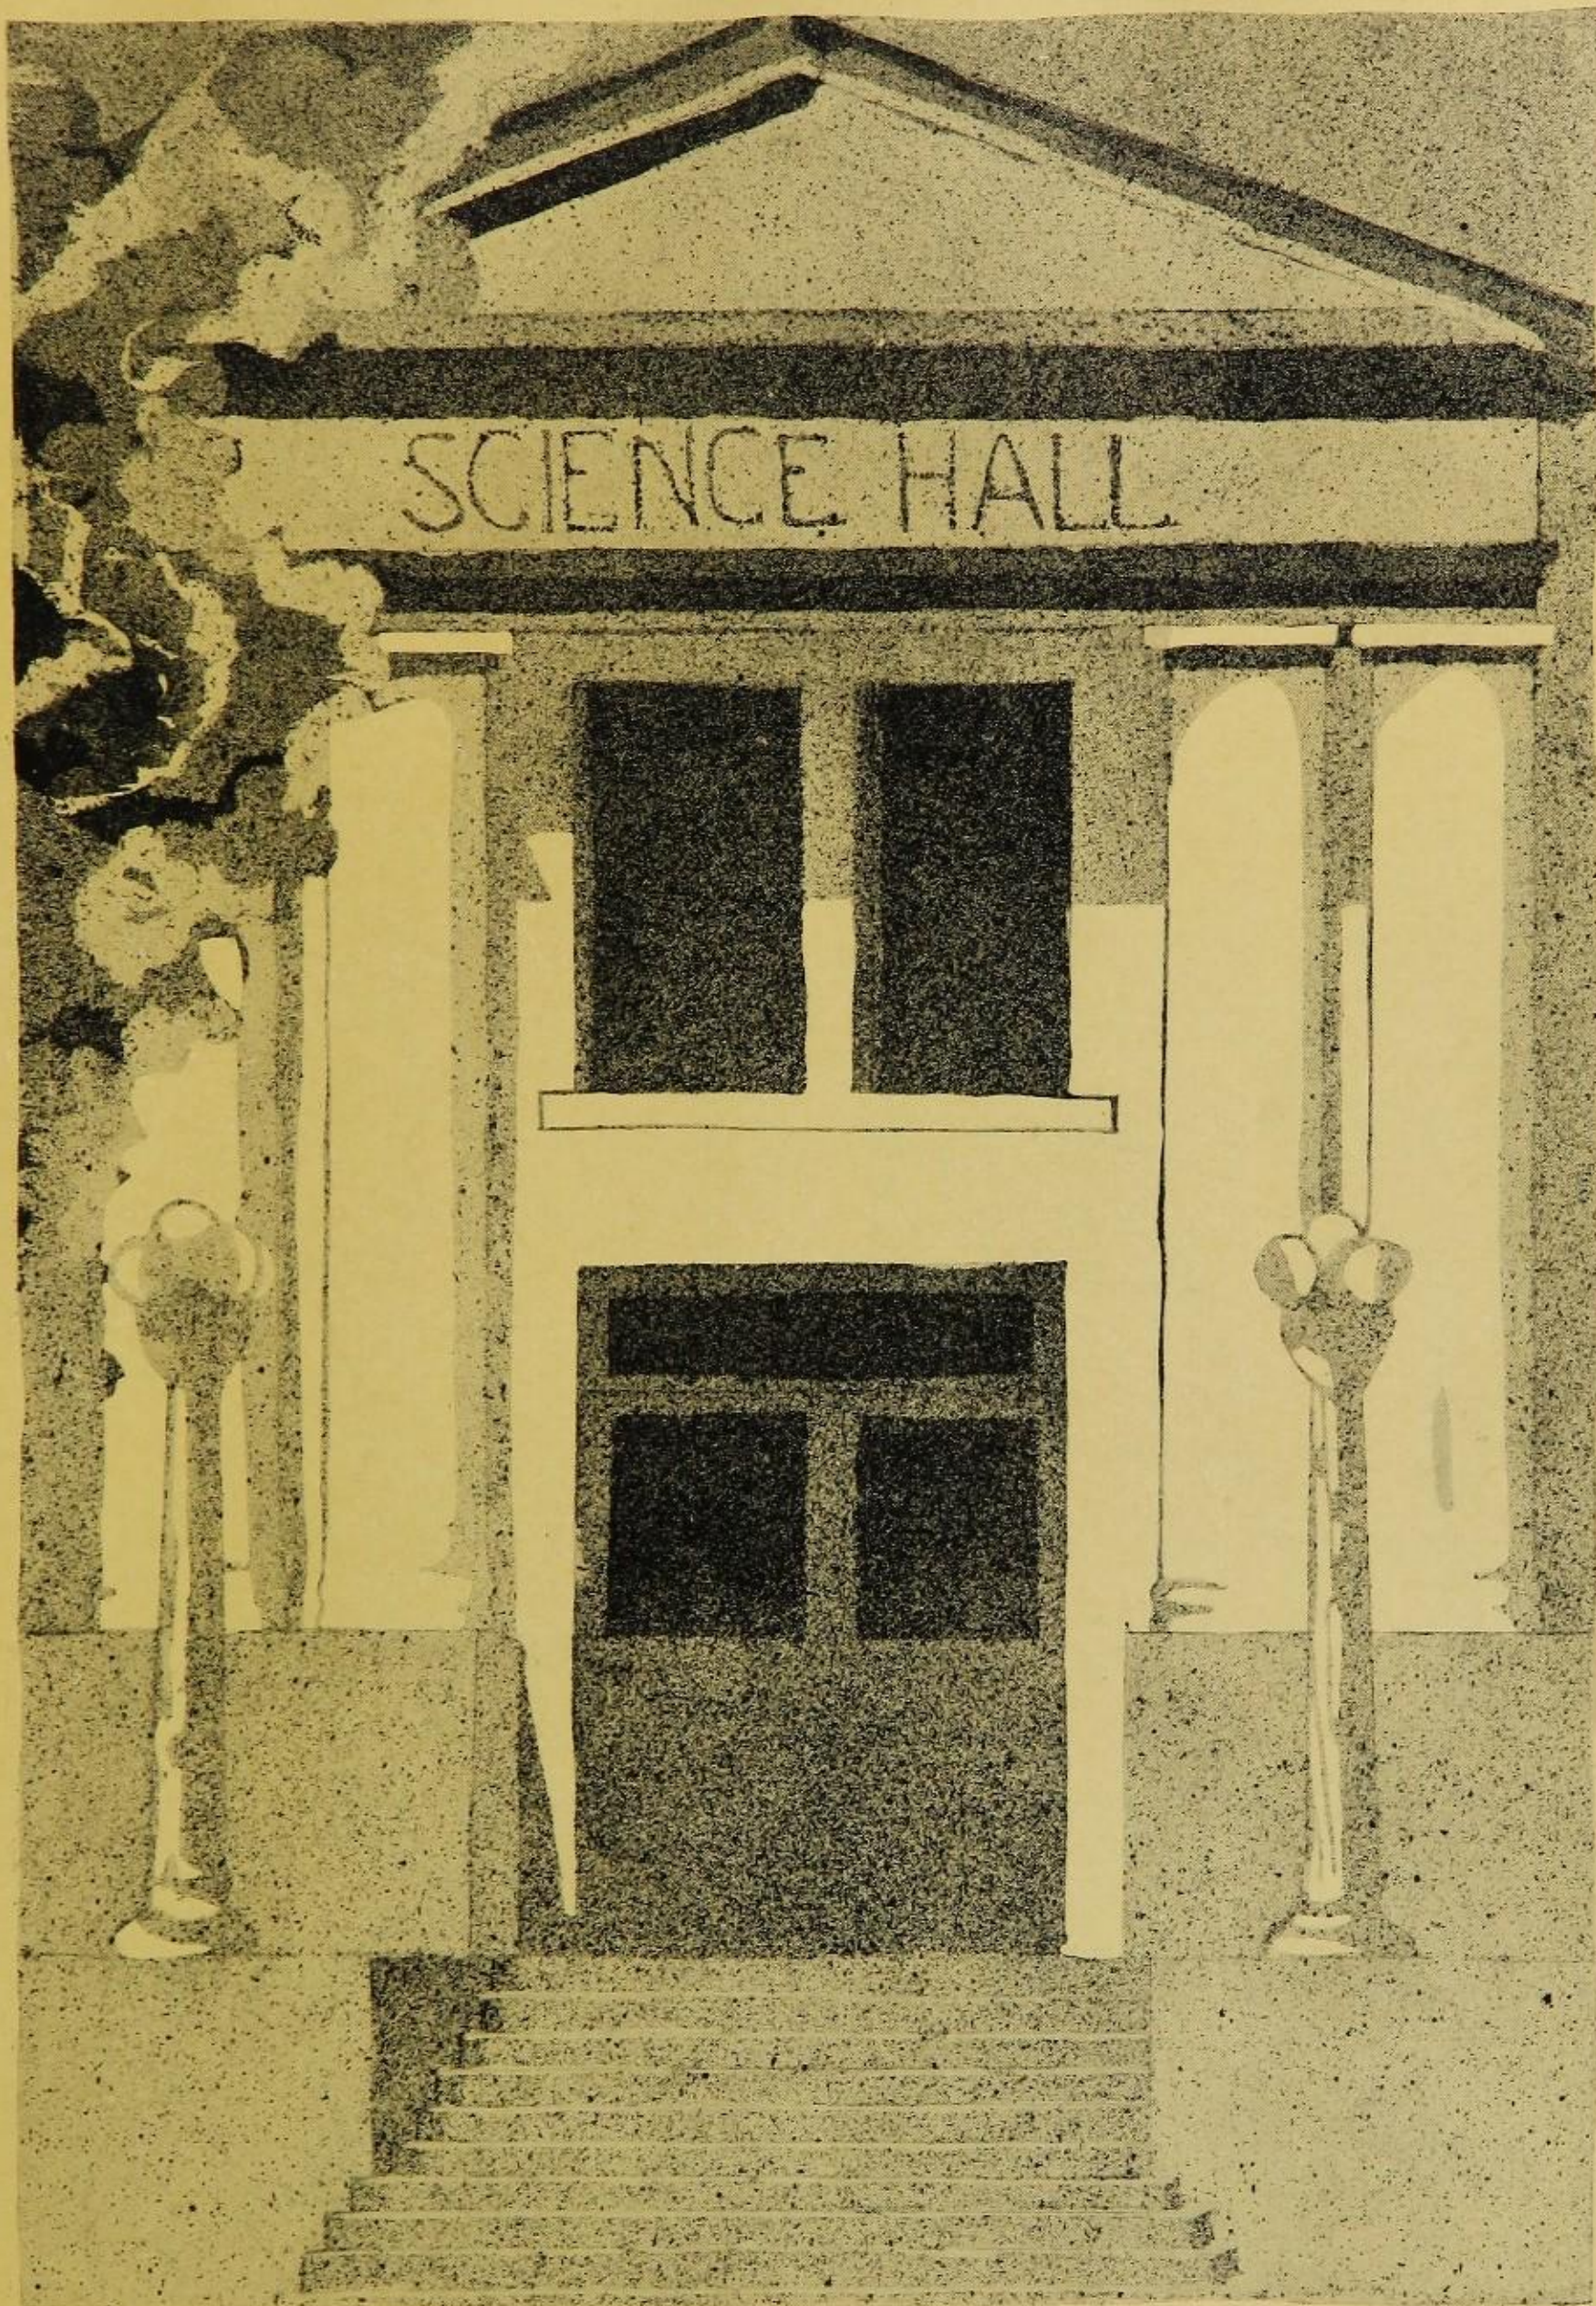

And the lonely coyote barking—

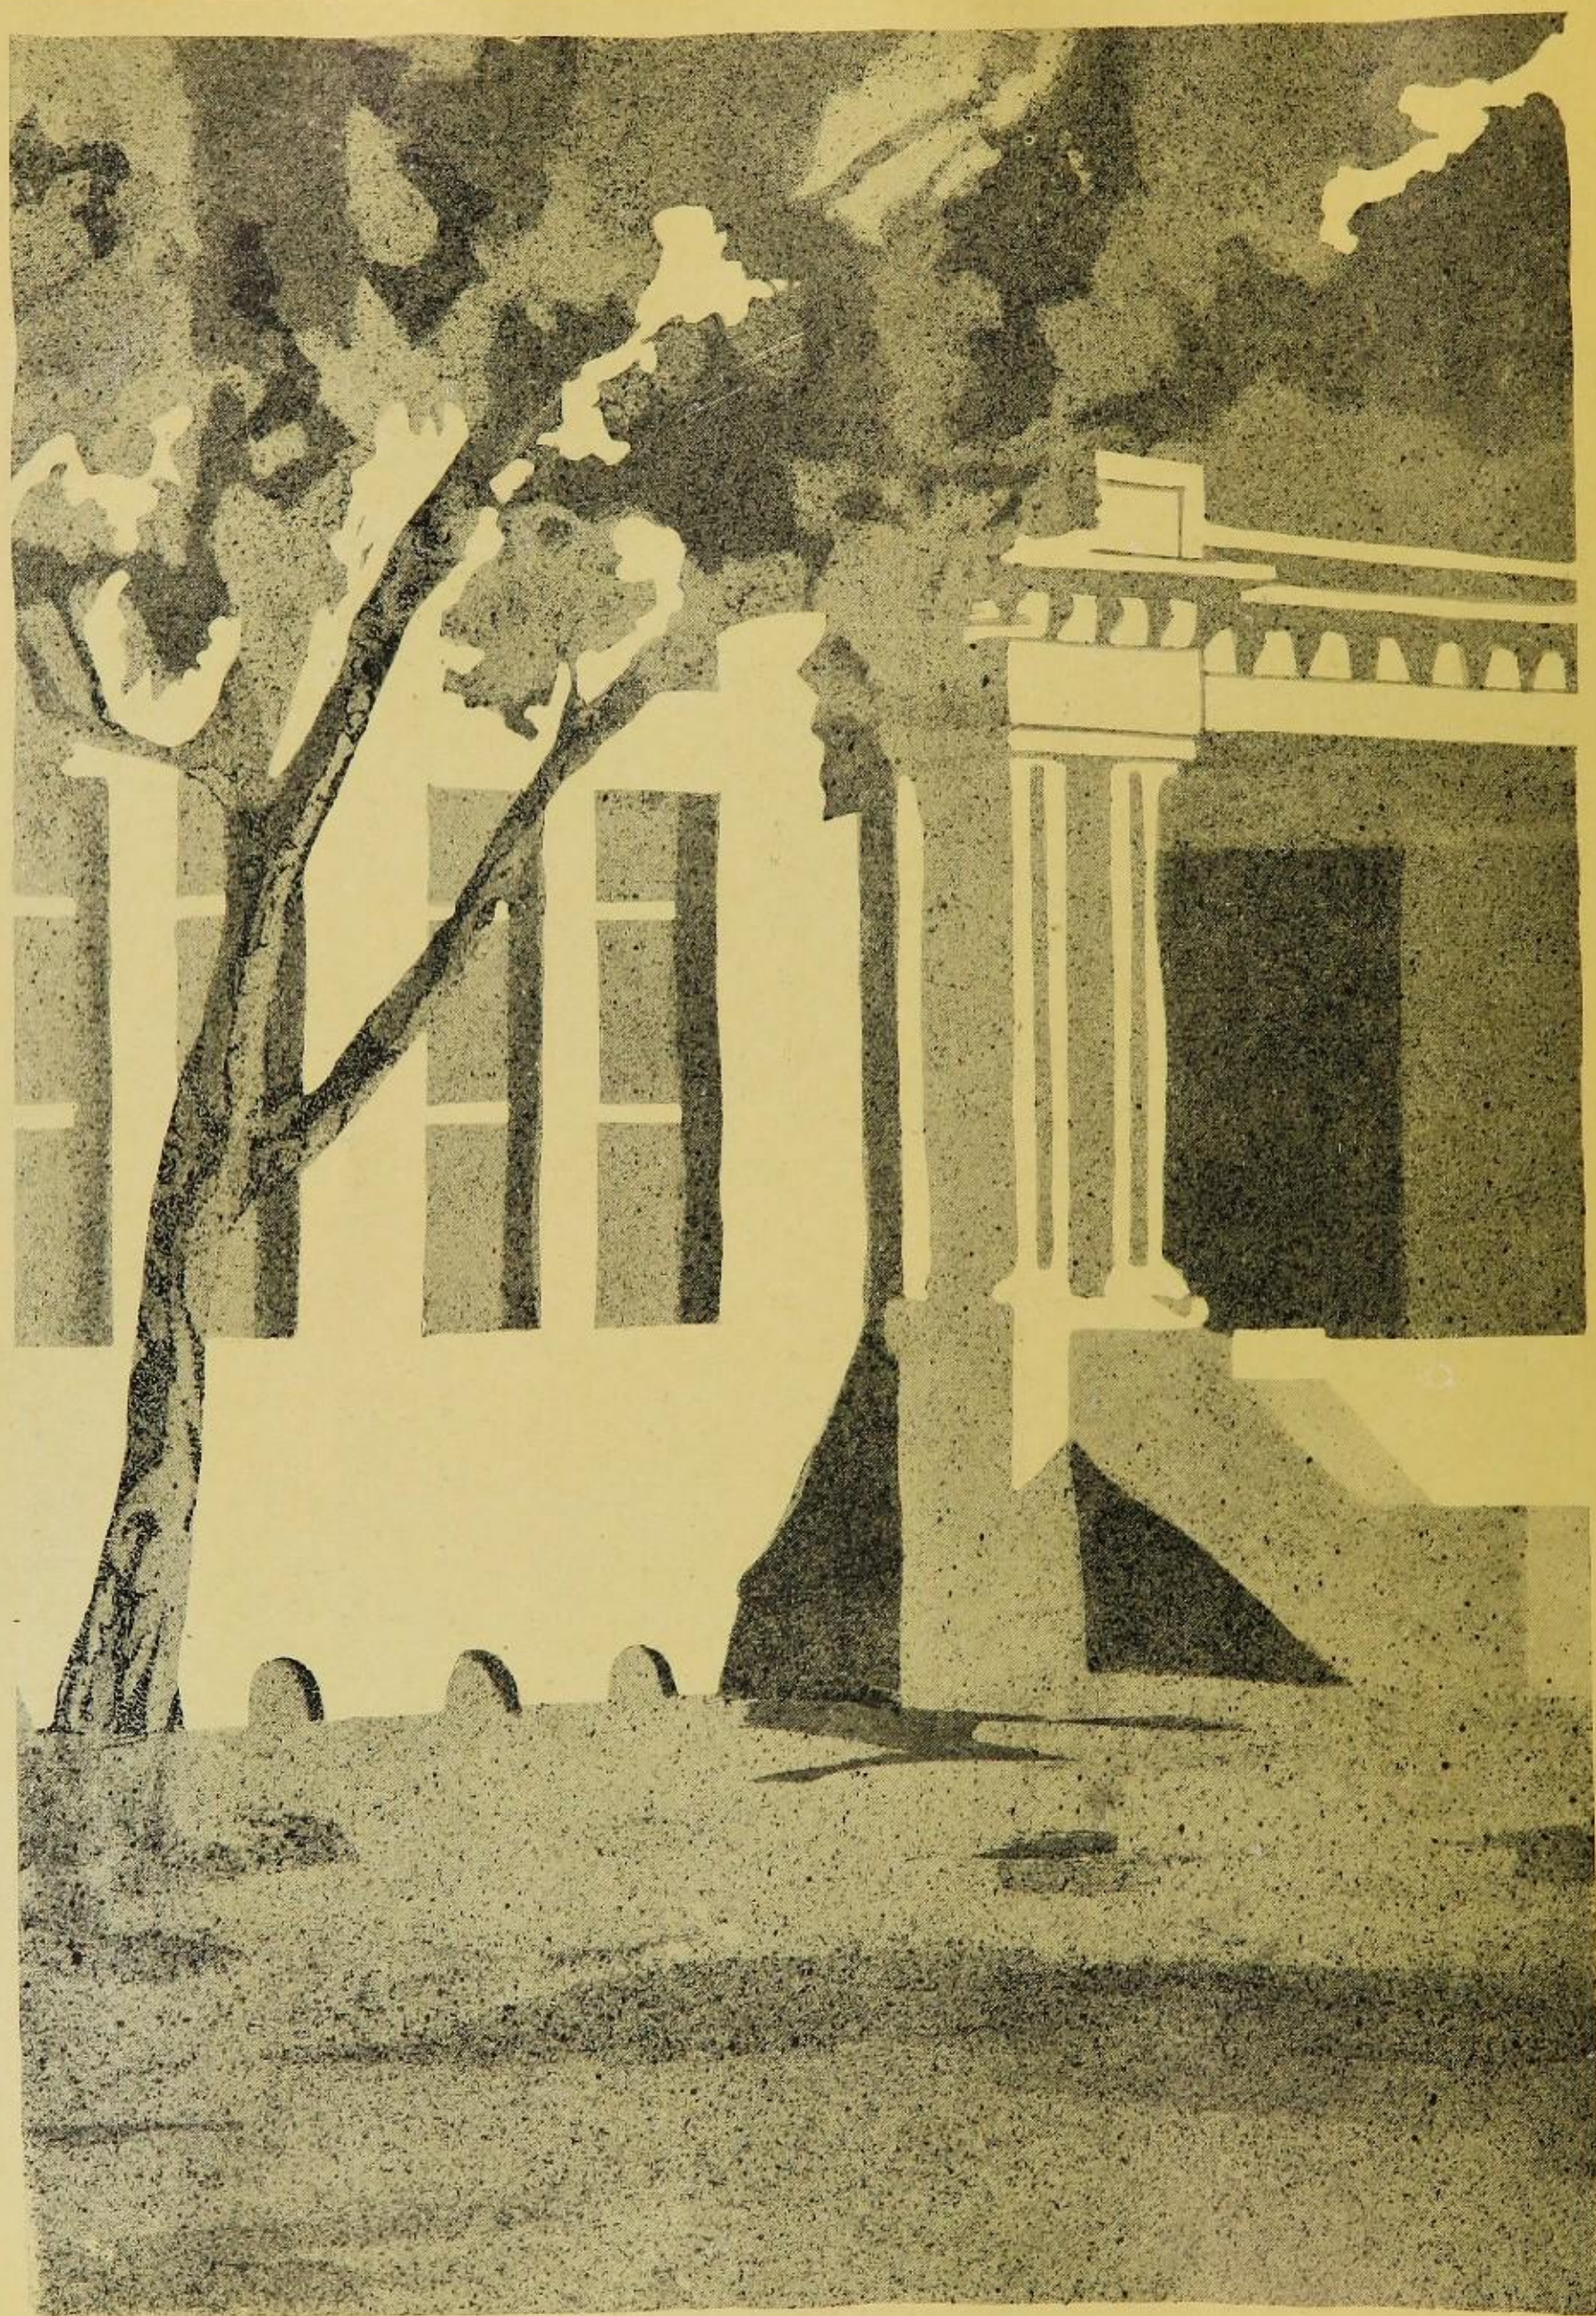

*"Where the maidens weave cloth, red and yellow;
And the Chieftain justly rules us—*

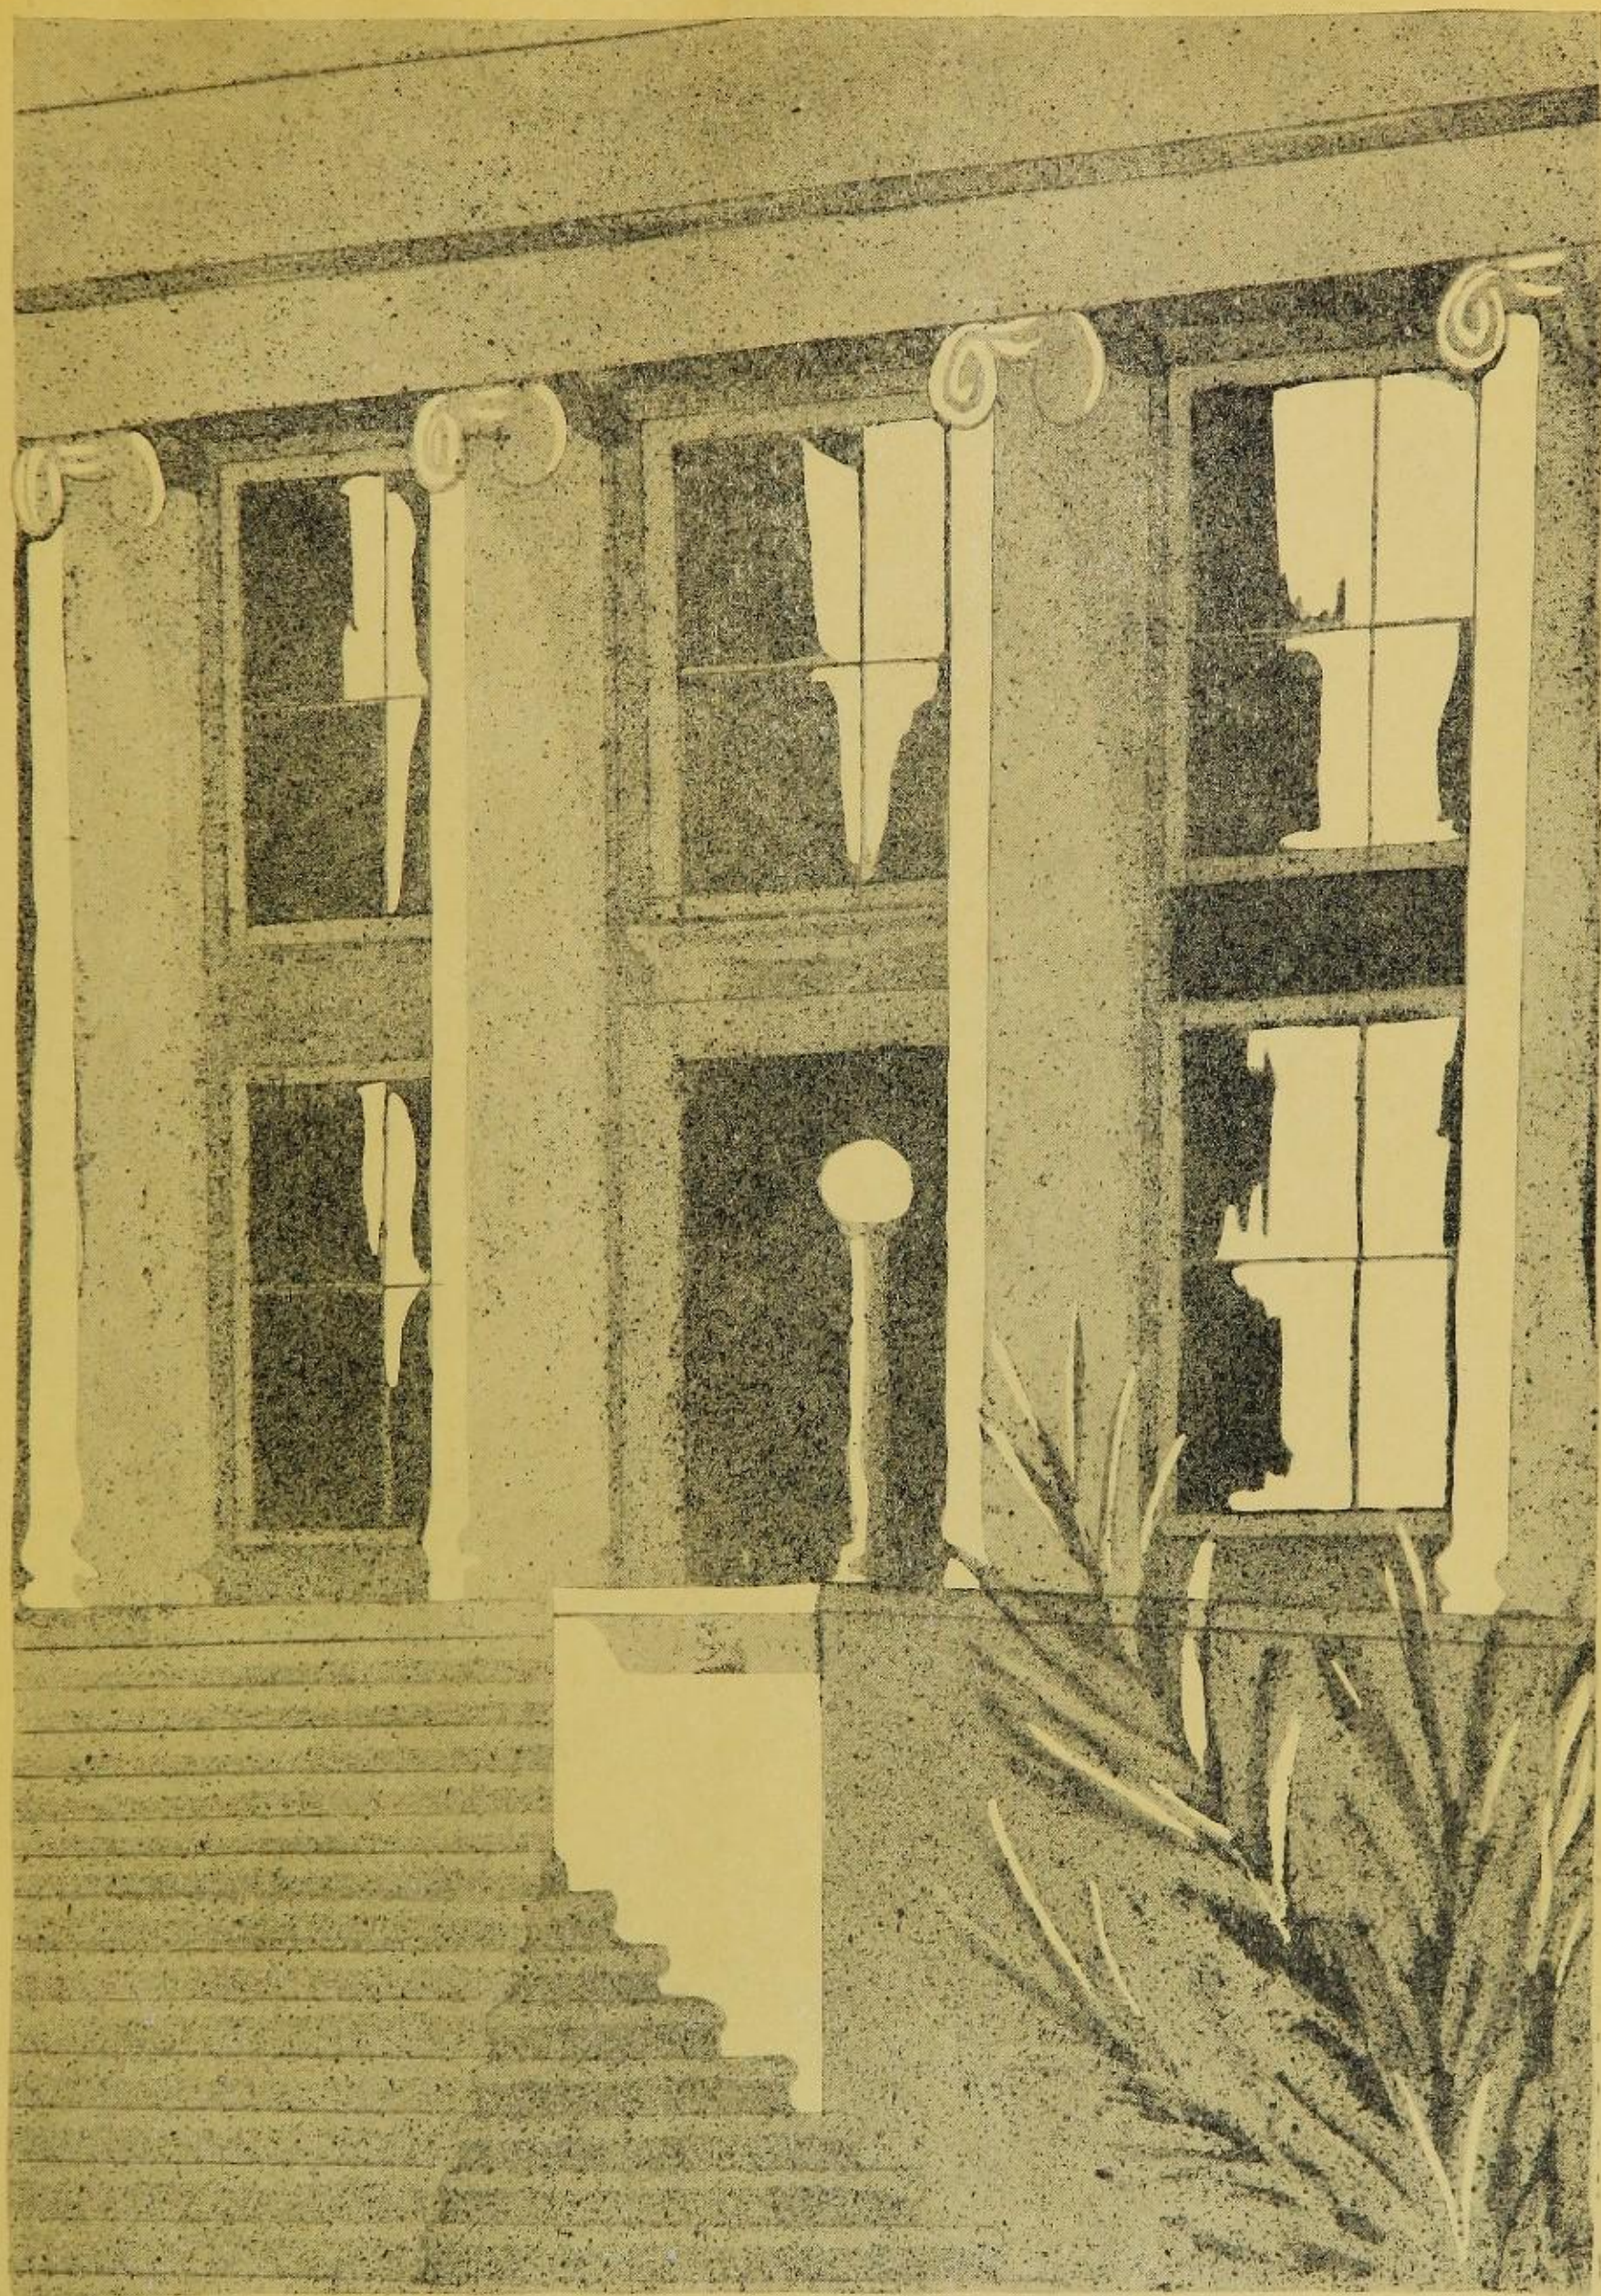

*"Where the warriors dance in triumph,
While the booming drums are pounded—*

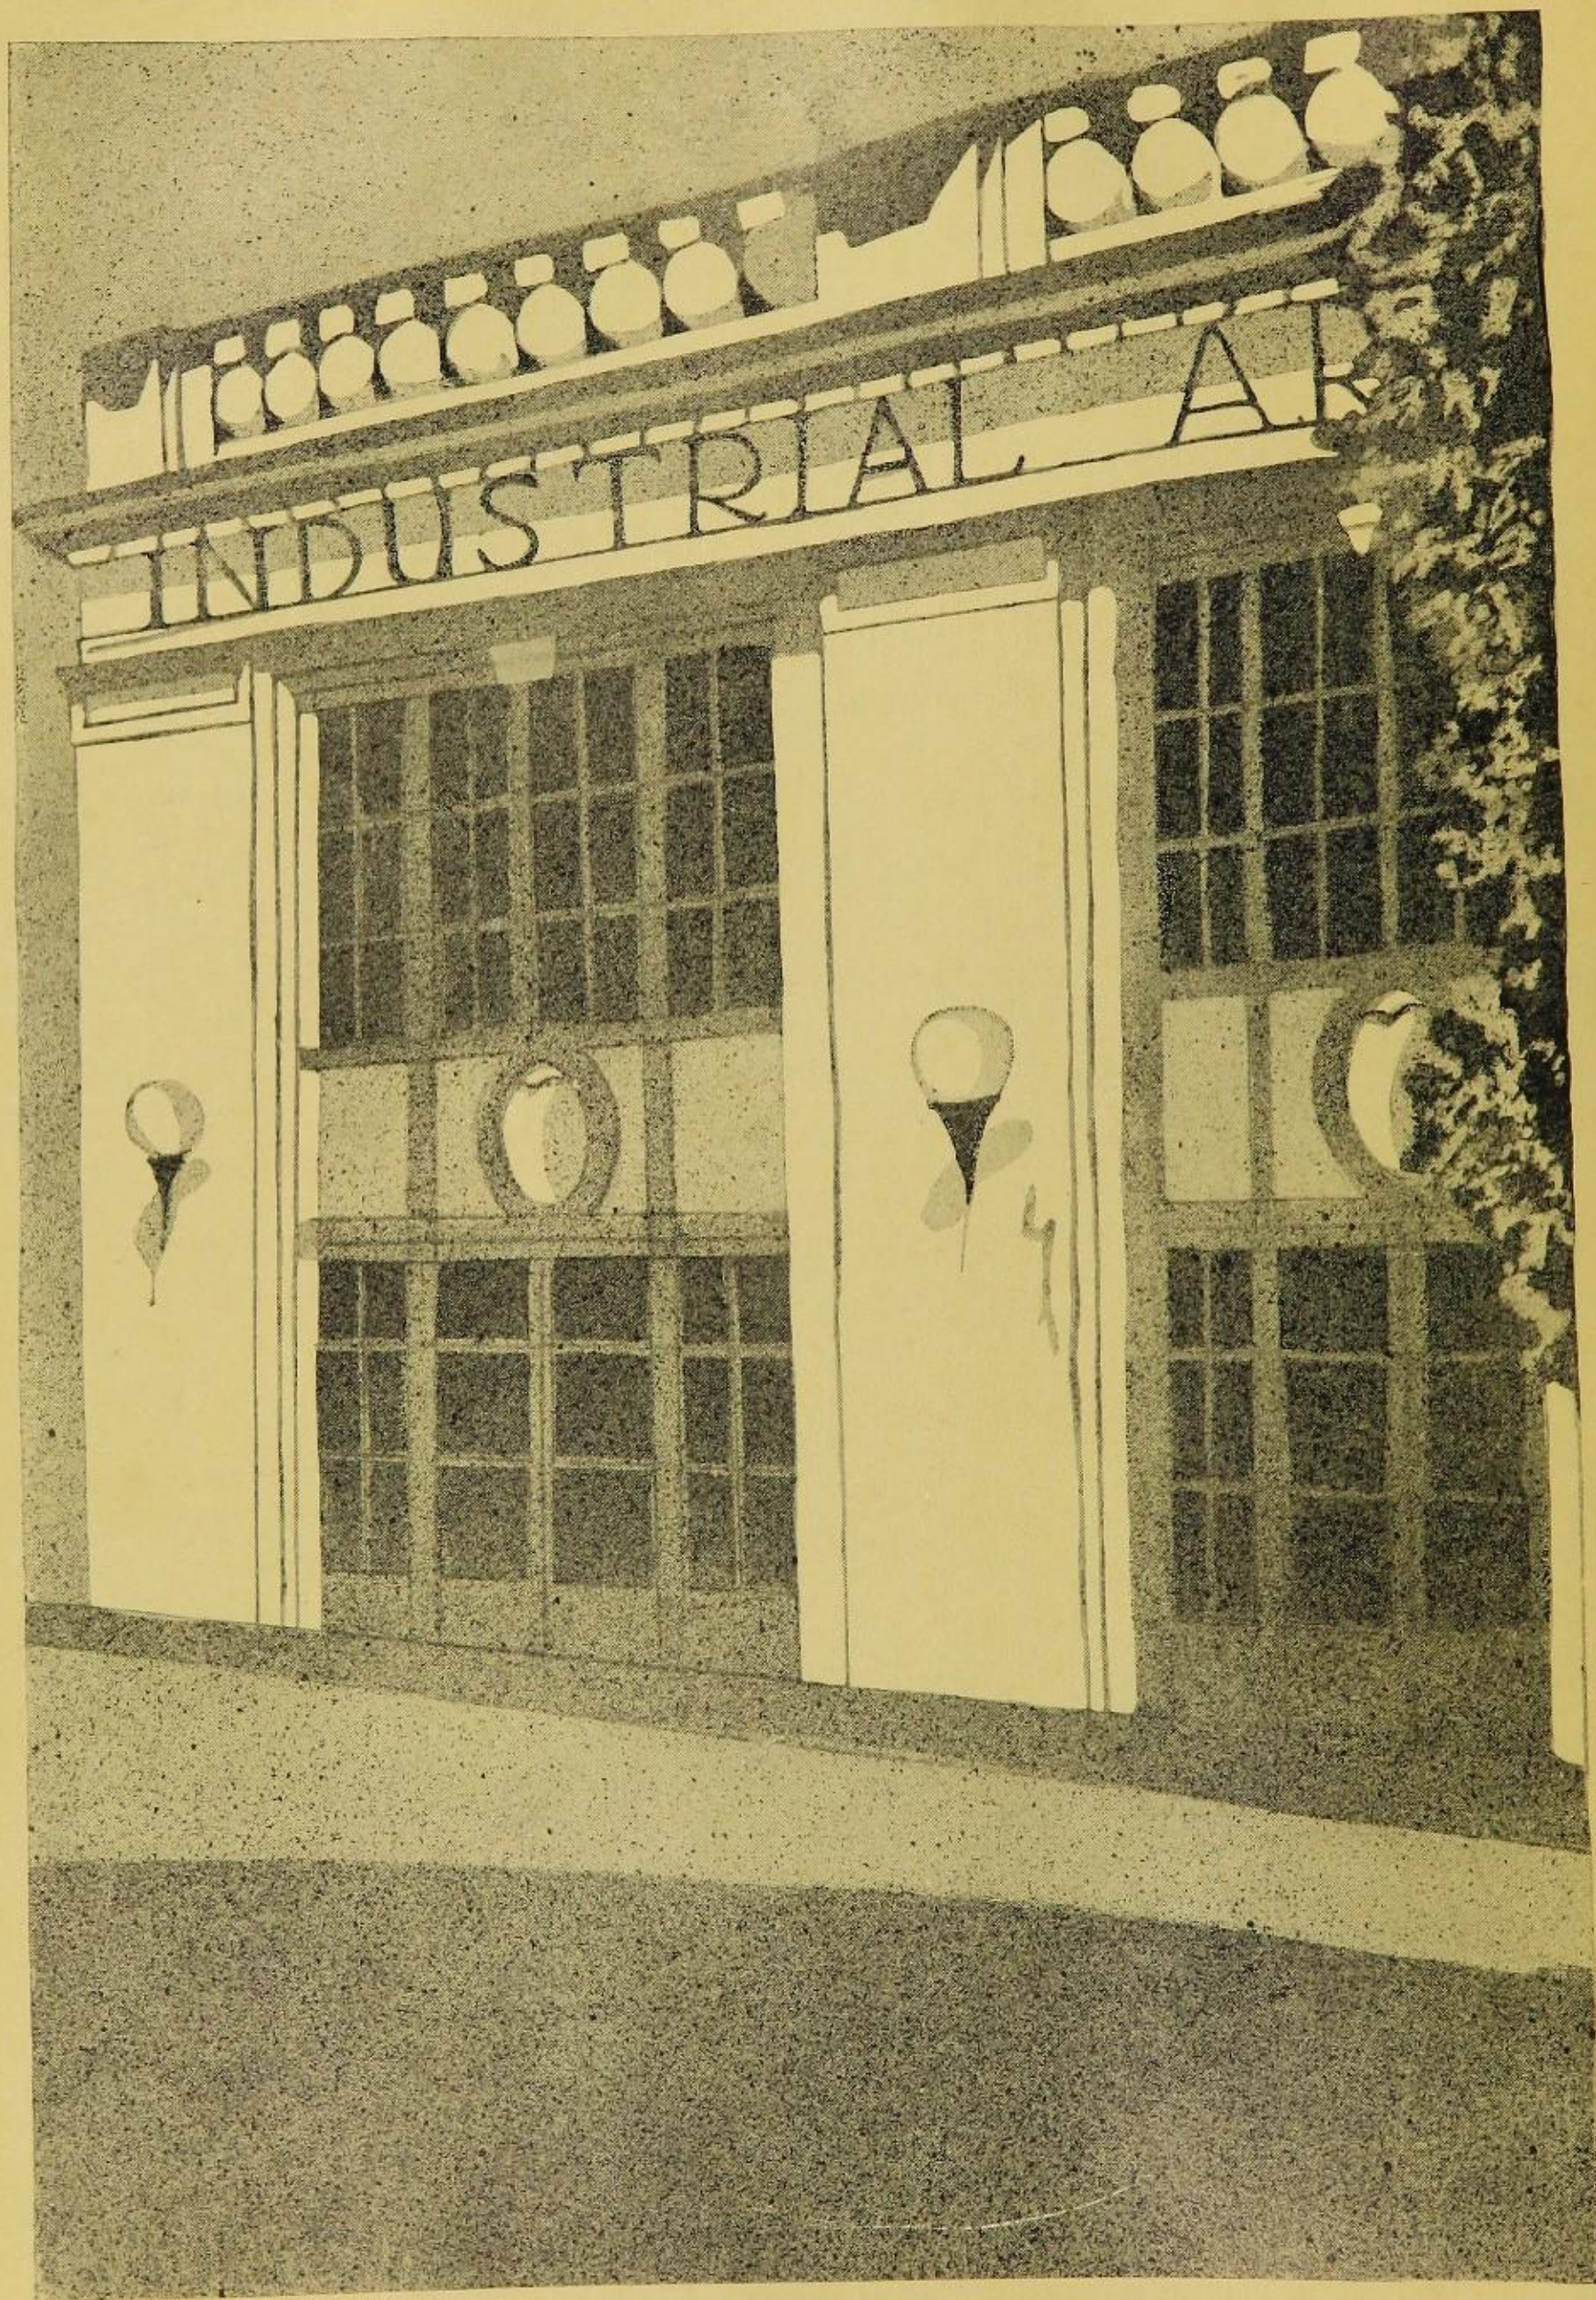

*"Where the Medicine Men have wisdom,
And the mysteries are told of—*

*"Where the four winds favor commerce,
And the grain for gold is bartered—*

*"Where the legends are related,
All the tales of all our people—*

*"Where are made the earthen ollas,
And the pounded copper kettles."*

ADMINISTRATION

Phoenix Union High School is well organized in its various departments. Headed by Mr. E. W. Montgomery as superintendent, it functions efficiently and economically, giving splendid instruction. The administration is composed of the Superintendent's Office, the Registrar's Office, the Business Office, and the Board of Education.

SUPT. E. W. MONTGOMERY

The members of the Board of Education are elected by the voters of the school district. They are leading citizens who, although they have other duties, willingly devote their time to the needs of the school. Mr. R. C. Stanford, president of the Board, is a leading lawyer of the city. Mrs. John Dennett, Jr., the clerk of the Board, is a well-known club woman. Mr. Amos A. Betts, a member of the Corporation Commission of Arizona, Mr. J. A. Riggins, Assistant State Superintendent of Public Instruction, and Mr. H. C. Baldwin, a leading citrus grower of the Valley, complete the Board.

Working in the Superintendent's office are Mrs. Grace B. Holt, secretary to Mr. Montgomery, and Miss Katherine Christy, who has charge of the exchange service.

Mr. L. A. Eastburn is the head of the Registrar's Office. Assisting him are Miss Nell Zetty, Mrs. Elizabeth Carpenter, Mr. Ralph Fields, Mrs. Alice Castro, and Mr. Karl Woolsey. They help the students select one of the courses offered and take care of registrations. Records are kept of each student's grades and daily attendance. This office also handles the records and registrations of the night school and Junior College.

The Business Administration of the school is centered in the Business Office. Mr. Harold Bargman, who is business manager, has as his assistants Mr. J. E. Bertin and Mr. P. S. Bassford. This office looks after the maintenance, construction, and repair work for the High School, Junior College, and night school. The cafeteria and bookstore are also managed through it.

Mr. William S. Stone is Dean of Boys and also the adviser of the Associated Student Body. Miss Ethel Rosenberry is Dean of Girls and adviser of the Girls' League of the High School. Miss Catherine Dunn is the visiting teacher, and Mrs. Schnabel, the school nurse, has charge of the High School hospital. Mr. E. G. Crowe is the attendance officer of the school.

SCHOOL HISTORY

The 3200 students and the seven large buildings of the Phoenix Union High School today are a great contrast to the first small class that met in 1895 in a room of the old Central School Building under the direction of Mr. Hurschal H. Brown. About two years after the school was started a building was purchased as a permanent meeting place. The land around this building was gradually acquired and new buildings were added from time to time. The last improvements were made in 1921, when the Liberal Arts Building was erected.

A $625,000 bond issue was put before the voters of the district and passed on March 8, 1928. This will be used to construct new High School and Junior College buildings and to remodel old ones. This is needed not only to relieve the present congested condition in class rooms, but to provide for the increase in the number of students enrolled, which is sure to come each year. This issue will mean a new $300,000 High School building which will have forty class rooms, several study halls, and a large library. When the library and study hall are moved from the auditorium, where they are at present, to the new building, the auditorium will be enlarged and remodeled, so that it can easily accommodate the students in two assemblies. About $50,000 will be used to complete the stadium. When this is done, the boys' physical training quarters will be moved there, and the girls will use the entire gymnasium. The present heating plant will be enlarged, so as to be able to take care of the additional buildings. A building, to cost $75,000, will be built to be used exclusively by the Junior College as offices and class rooms.

In 1915 the Night School was organized under the direction of Mr. C. L. Michael and Mrs. Gertrude J. Mathews. Originally only the fundamentals were taught, but now any subject for which there is a demand may be obtained. Now this school has grown so large that it has been put under the direction of the offices of the High School and is considered a unit of it. It now has about eight hundred and fifty students enrolled.

The Correspondence School, which was organized last year, has an enrollment of about fifty. This branch was organized to help those who are forced to leave school before finishing and wish to continue their studies.

STUDENT BODY GOVERNMENT

ART GORMAN

For the past four years the affairs of the school have been successfully managed by the new form of student body government. This present tendency of placing the management of the school in the hands of representative student government has shown great strides here, and greater success is predicted for it in the years to come.

It has become a better plan since its first adoption in the school by a number of additions and improvements which have been made. During the past two years the advisory system and the Student Body Council were adopted. The former system is that of having the students divided into home room groups which meet every Tuesday. Each of these groups is under the personal direction of a faculty member. One interesting feature about the system is having the groups composed of the same students and adviser for the entire high school course.

The Student Body Council consists of the chairman of each home room group and the members of the associated Board of Control. The purpose of this plan, by which many important school questions are decided, is to convey the ideas of the administration to the students.

The judiciary unit of this student body government is the Board of Control, the personnel of which is: President, Vice-President and Secretary of the associated student body; the four class presidents; a boy and girl representative from each class; and the faculty adviser. This board meets each Tuesday to decide matters of discipline and other school questions. Any student in the school may appear at any time before the board.

The present form of government in the school has become a major factor in the organization of this institution. The advantages of having such a form are obvious. Students' problems are decided by students. There is no ill-feeling from the decisions made. The purpose of such a government is to prepare boys and girls to fill their places in this nation as citizens with due respect for higher law.

GIRLS' LEAGUE

formed of the workings of the League. It was published once each month. A new department, the Big and Little Sister department, was added. This department had a hard job, for it had to supply each incoming Freshman girl with a suitable "Big Sister." Another help for the Freshman girls was the Senior Sponsor. Each Freshman Home Room group of girls had a Senior girl to help them.

The annual Frolic, this year called "The Mother Goose Carnival," was held in the gym as usual, and cleared about seven hundred dollars. About fifty families were helped through the annual Christmas Party for the poor children of the city, held on December 23. A big Christmas tree was set up in front of the auditorium and the children gathered around it. A short program was given, and then Santa Claus distributed toys and candy. Baskets were distributed by the Service Department at Thanksgiving and Easter.

The fourth annual Every Girl's Dinner was held during the first part of March in the cafeteria. The central theme of the dinner was "My Blue Heaven." The decorations and programs were centered around this idea.

This year marked the beginning of a good many new features in the GIRLS' LEAGUE. It sponsored the Student Aid Squad and the Red Cross First Aid Class, the membership of which included both boys and girls. The Student Aid Squad was organized to help absent students make up their work. The Senior Social Hour, which was started this year, helped to further the acquaintance of the boys and girls in the Senior class. This was done by having teas to which two or more Home Room groups were invited. A Girls' League paper, the "B2 Beacon", was published this year for the first time. Mrs. Craig's Home Room group submitted the name which was selected for it. This paper was published with the purpose of editing Girls' League news, and thus making each girl better in-

HISTORY

As Freshmen, the class of '28 chose as officers Cecil Mulleneaux, president; Bill Brown, vice-president; Kenneth Palmer, secretary; and Kathryn Hellwarth, treasurer. This class supplied the school with an All-State football star and three first team baseball men.

The class officers in the Sophomore year were: Kenneth Palmer, president; Blanche Friedman, vice-president; Bill Brown, treasurer; and Katherine Maus, secretary. The class this year contributed six athletes to the school athletic teams.

Leading the class in the Junior year were Kenneth Palmer, president; Katherine Maus, vice-president; Ted Fahlen, treasurer; and Bill Brown, secretary. The class play, which was one of the best ever presented, was "The Gypsy Trail." This class of Juniors overcame the Seniors in the annual tug-o'-war, a feat which had not been accomplished for thirteen years. The Junior-Senior banquet and Senior-Junior dance were great successes.

The Senior year came far too soon for many. In the fall a class picnic was held at Echo Canyon. "Adam and Eva" was chosen as the class play. The Junior-Senior banquet and the Senior-Junior dance were both well worth remembering.

HISTORY

Approximately one thousand Freshmen entered in the fall of 1926. Ben Spalding was elected president. The other officers were: Carolyn Goldwater, vice-president; Wendell Turner, secretary; and Elma Addington and Raymond Pratt, representatives to the Board of Control. The class was well represented in the Scholarship Club by thirty-two of their members, and also on the various athletic teams. Milton Smith played on the first team of football. Turner, Sparks, and McGhee held places on the second basketball squad.

This year the Sophomore class had an enrollment of nearly seven hundred and fifty. In the fall they had an assembly and elected their officers. The class gave its best support to all school affairs. Again the class had a large membership in the Parnassus Club. Roberta Busch and Carolyn Goldwater were the class representatives to the Central Council of the Girls' League. Betty Brooks was chosen by the girls as the yell-leader for the class.

The Sophomore class had charge of the Girls' League assembly for the month of March. It was one of the best of the year. Most of the material for the program was drawn from the Sophomore class. Many of the boys of the class belonged to the Coyote Club and the Stadium Club. The girls were equally well represented in the Pepperettes.

HISTORY

In the fall of the past school year about one thousand Freshmen entered the high school. They immediately had a class assembly and elected their officers. In the middle of the year about three hundred more entered, thereby making the largest Freshman class ever enrolled in Phoenix Union High School.

The Freshman girls elected Nadine Dawson and Jane Tatum as their representatives to the Central Council of the Girls' League.

The scholarship of the class as a whole was high. They were second on the Honor Roll throughout the year; they also had a large membership in the Scholarship Club during the second semester. Of a total club membership of one hundred fourteen, there were thirty-five from the Freshman class. They have taken an active part in different activities and have supported all school affairs. The girls had charge of the Girls' League assembly for the month of April.

The Freshman class has been outstanding in athletics. Jimmy Cox made a place on the first team of basketball. Tom Evans and Tom DeVore played on the second team of basketball. Tom Flinn was on the second football squad. Several boys went out for baseball and track.

ACTIVITIES

THE YEAR'S ACTIVITIES

Many and varied have been the activities of the students of Phoenix Union High School during the past year, but you will find them all chronicled in full in the following pages. Because athletics are always uppermost in the student mind, we have devoted a special section to the school's achievements on gridiron, court, and field. The informal side of school life you will find recorded with the faithful, though not always truthful, eye of the camera in the "Snappy Shots" section and with the equally faithful, and possibly more truthful, pen in the Calendar.

Immediately following this page you will be told of the activities of our publications, musical organizations, plays, forensics, military department, and organizations. Of these last, there are forty-one, of which seven—the Math club, the Aviation club, the Stadium club, the Red Cross society, the Student Aid Squad, the Health club, and the Pepperettes—are thriving newcomers.

One of the most entertaining activities of the year was the popularity contest—an election of the most prominent citizens of the "Cow Camp." This idea was chosen because it fitted in so well with the general theme of the book. Web Caldwell was chosen "sheriff" of the camp—in other words, the most popular boy in school. Mary Frances Berryman was recognized as the most popular girl by being chosen as "camp belle." Betty Ellis was elected "vamp," and the village "bull-etin" or gossip was Blanche Friedman. The "bully" or he-man of the camp was Cecil Mulleneaux. Donald Jacobs, the ladies' man, was elected "camp dude." Dicky Bacharach was elected "mascot." Pictures of these students in character are to be found in the "Snappy Shots" section of this book.

This year the Military department chose Katherine Maus as Honorary Colonel—an honor which is bestowed upon the girl whom the boys taking military consider the ideal girl—popularity and character being highly considered.

"Tradition Day" or "Coyote Day" was inaugurated this past year. It was held on April 12 in the stadium. The entire student body went out to the stadium for the all-day celebration, which was a sort of carnival, each student wearing as ridiculous a costume as he could find.

In May came "Honor Day," an event which is held annually to give recognition to students whose activities have been outstanding for the year. The winner of the Goldwater Cup, which is annually awarded to the student earning the highest number of merit credits, was announced on that day. Then, shortly following "Honor Day," came its complement, the Annual Exhibit. All types of creative workmanship were displayed, and many beautiful things were exhibited.

The annual Masque of the Yellow Moon was a tremendous success. It is one activity in which every student in the school takes part. This year it was presented for the first time in the new stadium.

EDITORIAL

In this pictorial survey of school life for 1927-28 we hope that we have created a book which will serve as a vivid reminder of school days after we have passed further along on the trail of life.

All art work in this book is student work, with the exception of "EL ADOBE," the frontispiece painting which portrays a typical Arizona scene, for which we are indebted to the artist, Mrs. J. Vennerstrom Cannon, and to Mr. Ward Shelby, of the "Progressive Arizona," who released the copyright on the painting to us.

We express our appreciation of the assistance of the following students who, under the direction of Mrs. Cordelia Perkins, produced three of the insert pages: "Classes," by Pauline Weldon; "Features," by Alice McCoy; and "Activities," by Arnold Friberg. Lettering was done by Earl Ladlow. All other art work in the book is by Rachel Hawkins, art editor of the ANNUAL. Credit must also be given to John Leeper and Arnold Friberg for the many posters they made.

MILITARY DEPARTMENT PLAY

The MILITARY DEPARTMENT, displacing the customary Minstrel, this year presented a three-act play, "The Haunted House", by Owen Davis. It was directed by Miss Gladys Bookman, instructor of expression and public speaking, and was presented on December 16, 17. The story of the play, centering around a murder, involves all eleven characters in solving the mystery. Each in turn is suspected and is finally proved innocent. It combines comedy and mystery very effectively throughout the action.

This was the first production by the MILITARY DEPARTMENT open to both boys and girls. The cast was: Morgan, the tramp—Ed Ames; Emily, the bride—Nancy Alice Galbraith; Jack, the groom—Don Jacobs; Thomas, the chauffeur—Joe Lentz; Helen, the wife—Pauline Robertson; Duncan, the author—Henry Naegeli; Isabel, the girl—Blanche Friedman; Ezra, the constable—Bill Montgomery; Ed, the milkman—Cub Fahlen; Grogan, the detective—John Govey; Evans, the father—Bill Brown. The properties were cared for by Eli Gorodezky. The electrician was Russ Shortman; Morris Christensen and Roy Stierwalt were scenic managers. The cast worked well together and kept the audience laughing continually.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

The Senior class play, "Adam and Eva", a comedy by Guy Bolton and George Middleton, brought in more money this year than had ever been taken in by any previous play. The cast worked very hard producing this play, which was directed by Joe Doron. The plot is woven around a rich man and his relatives who try to live off him. He finally tires of this and sends them to a farm, where they must work or starve.

James King, the father, was played by Homer Baird on Friday and by Ed Ames on Saturday. Bill Brown was Adam Smith, the young man, both nights. Eva King was played alternately by Evelyn O'Dell and Rosemary DeCamp. Other parts were: Corinthia—Virginia Cunningham, Martha Jane Boggs; Clinton DeWitt—Joe Carver, Bob Creighton; Julie DeWitt—Ruth Merrylees, Dorothy Thomas; Aunt Abby Rocker—Martha Jane Boggs, Emma Joslin; Dr. Jack Delameter—John Boman, Millard Waters; Horace Pilgrim—George Gile, Leo Brown; Lord Andrew Gordon—Russ Shortman, Leon Collins. Stage hands were: Roy Stierwalt, stage manager; Bert Smith, electrician; Henry Naegeli, properties; Eli Gorodezky, prompter.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

On March 16, 17 the Junior Class presented "The Youngest", a three-act comedy by Philip Barry. The play has been produced in many high schools, but never with more success than here.

The story centers about the troubles of Richard Winslow, the youngest, oppressed by his family until he meets Nancy Blake. She transforms him into a lively young man with plenty of pep and ambition. Then the unexpected happens. Richard gets control of the family and avenges himself for his mistreatment.

Herman Bradshaw and James Jones, as Richard Winslow, and Lela Marie Adkins, as Nancy Blake, carried the leads with great success. Oliver Winslow, played by Herbert Lahr, and Mark Winslow, played by Arthur Wilkinson and Joe Lentz, gave good impersonations of the snobbish older brothers. Lucy Owens, as Martha, the understanding sister, and Roberta Cox, as Augusta, the sarcastic sister, were both excellent. Paisley Brown, as Mrs. Winslow, portrayed the mother well. Howard Rieber, as Augusta's husband, and Katherine Vandy as the maid were both good.

STUDENT BODY PLAY

"The Merchant Gentleman," a four-act comedy, given March 30, 31, was the first instance of the presentation of a play sponsored and backed by the entire Phoenix Union High School student body, all four classes, as well as outside organizations. It was directed by Kathryn Shoecraft and all proceeds went to the Student Aid Fund.

Following is the cast: Master of Music, Dorothy Thomas; Master of Dancing, Ruth Merrylees; Pupil, Kathryn Shoecraft; Monsieur Jourdain, Lloyd Cavness; Lackey One, Ruth Prater; Lackey Two, Barbara Willis; Master of Fencing, Loraine Ingels; Master of Philosophy, Lucy Tatum; Tailor, Marion Peffley; Apprentice, Kathryn Shoecraft; Nicole, Mary Elizabeth Spalding; Madame Jourdain, Alma Lowry; Dorante, Rosemary DeCamp; Cleonte, Fred Mercer; Covielle, Inez Couch; Lucille, Mae Gosnell; Dorimene, Mona Robbins; Turks, Kathryn Shoecraft, Ruth Prater, Dorothy Thomas, Lucy Tatum, Barbara Willis, Ruth Merrylees, Loraine Ingels, Marion Peffley; Dancers, Kathryn Hellwarth, Mae Gosnell, Adelle Galliver, Mary Frances Berryman, Elizabeth Seaman, Marjorie Samuels; Shepherd, Mr. Albert Etzweiler; Shepherdess, Mrs. Albert Etzweiler.

Cocke, Murphy, Johnson, Hansen, Muffley, Jacobs, Olney, Miss Bookman.

DEBATE AND ORATORY

Defeating Chandler in the semi-finals for the 1928 Valley Championship, Phoenix went into the finals only to be defeated by Mesa. In the High School League, Phoenix had previously defeated Chandler and Gilbert on the question: "RESOLVED, that the Federal Government should own and operate the coal mines." Merwin Murphy and Donald Jacobs represented Phoenix in all the debates except the Mesa debate, in which Merwin Murphy and Bernard Muffley upheld Phoenix.

At the beginning of the season, in an out-of-state debate, Albuquerque was defeated on the question: "RESOLVED, that the Federal Government should assume control of waterways, lakes and streams." Phoenix was represented by Glen Johnson, John Hastings, and Joe Hollingsworth in two no-decision debates with Scottsdale.

Next year's plans call for out-of-state debates with El Paso, Albuquerque, and San Diego.

In the Valley Declamatory Contest, Mary Cocke won first place in dramatic reading, and Howard Joslin carried off third place in pure declamation. Phoenix being the only school to win two places, won the contest. Winning out over seven other contestants, Donald Jacobs represented Phoenix High School in the district contest held in the State Senate Chambers, April 20. Mary Silverstone was selected to represent Phoenix in the State Contest in Tucson.

Intra-mural debating, under the direction of L. L. Blackshare, was very successful, and many students are being developed for future Phoenix teams.

MUSIC

The interest taken in music is increasing by leaps and bounds and the realization of its importance in Phoenix Union High School is becoming greater every year.

GLEE CLUBS

This year the enrollment of the Glee Clubs has far surpassed that of former years. The girls' beginning Glee Club, maintained for those who have not had Glee Club work before, has an enrollment of forty-six. Here they are prepared for work in the advanced Glee Club.

The girls' advanced Glee Club has an enrollment of forty-six. This year as in the past they entered the Valley Musical Contest which was held at Mesa, March 16. Phoenix entered seven out of the nine events. At different times during the year groups from this club have sung at civic organizations of the city, and numbers have been given on many of the assembly programs. The mixed chorus, formed from the Boys' Glee Club and the Girls' Glee Club, entered the contest conducted by the Arizona Federation of Music Clubs at Prescott, April 20. Music for the Spanish scene of the Masque of the Yellow Moon was furnished by the Girls' Glee Club in costume.

The Boys' Glee Club has an enrollment of twenty-eight. They also entered the Valley Musical Contest. Both Glee Clubs are under the direction of Miss Weltha Graham.

HARMONY CLASS

The Harmony Class under the direction of Mr. Etzweiler is the highest course given in music. There were fifteen students enrolled in this class. The first five terms were given over to the study of Harmony, and the last term was used for the study of band and orchestral arrangements.

BAND

Wonderful progress has been made this year in bands under the direction of Mr. Albert A. Etzweiler. Three bands were organized this year: the regular High School Band, with sixty-two pieces; the Sophomore Band, with forty-eight; and the Freshman Band, with forty-four.

Students having no former training start in the Freshman Band and work through the Sophomore Band to the regular High School Band. For the first time the Sophomore Band marched in the Armistice Day parade with the regular band. The regular High School Band marched in all school parades and furnished music for the games and other social activities.

The Band broadcasted a different program every week over KFAD by remote control from the auditorium.

The annual Band Concert was given March 2 in the Auditorium.

MILITARY DEPARTMENT

In 1917 the State Legislature passed a law making military training compulsory in P. U. H. S. In 1918 Captain Claude D. Jones and Lieutenant W. W. Carpenter, just returned from overseas, took charge of the department.

Captain James M. Palmer, the present head of the department, followed Captain Jones in 1921. Captain Palmer is a graduate of three army schools and as temporary major, commanded the First Battalion of the 75th Infantry at Camp Lewis, Washington.

Assisting Captain Palmer is Lieutenant Jesse E. McComb. Lieutenant McComb entered the army in 1917. After graduating from the School of Fire at Camp De Souge, France, he spent the last ten months of the war in the heaviest kind of fighting. He has been with the cadets for the last six years.

Supplementing lectures with actual demonstrations, the officers of each battalion instructed the men in first-aid, sanitation, rifle nomenclature, marksmanship, elementary topography, and map-reading. On the field, machine-gun instruction, firing data, and range practice were taught. An opportunity was given to every student to lead his company in order to develop leadership. There were lectures on military law and procedure given by Captain Palmer, who is well versed in such matters.

This year, in furthering the progress of the Military Department, a Drum and Bugle and a Signal Corps were organized. The Drum and Bugle Corps, under the leadership of First Lieutenant Fred Lumar, has been very active and has met with a fair degree of success. The Signal Corps, commanded by First Lieutenant Russ Shortman, has not been able to accomplish much due to the lack of enthusiasm and material with which to work. Nevertheless, they have laid the foundation upon which future Signal Corps may work and succeed.

The Rifle Team has been handicapped by a lack of good rifles, but has piled up a fairly good record, having defeated some of the best and biggest schools in the West.

The Military Department was very active in social affairs throughout the year. The Band, a unit of the Military Department, played at all the games, appeared in numerous assemblies, and in March gave a concert, the proceeds of which went towards defraying the expenses of the Band in going to Tucson for the State Contest. "The Haunted House," a comedy, was given by the Military Department this year to take the place of their Military Minstrel. "The Haunted House" was a great success, being one of the best plays given during the school year.

The last and most important event of the Military Department was the Greenway Field Day, an account of which will be found in the Track section of this book.

Back Row: Shortman, McNabb, O'Brien, Smith, Johnson. Third Row: Maddock, Muffley, Johnston, Scorpick, Gage, Macmillan, Mickle. RIFLE TEAM

As a result of a more difficult schedule, including the most prominent schools in the United States and one match with McKinley High School, Honolulu, Territory of Hawaii, which was lost by a slight margin, the rifle team did not have as impressive a record as last year's team, although they won more matches and did better work generally.

The students who made up the rifle team and were responsible for their winning so many matches were: Arnold (Captain), Gilbert (Manager), Webb, Freeman, Pratt, Imler, Temple, Billyeald, Perkins, Gage, Palmer, King, Custer, Corbett, Skates, and McNabb.

VALEDICTORIAN

Blanche Friedman, having the highest possible number of grade points, was selected as valedictorian of our graduating class of 1928.

Blanche has stood out as one of our foremost students during her High School career. She is editor of the 1928 PHOENICIAN; managing editor of the Coyote Journal, our weekly publication; president of the Parnassus Club, the local scholarship organization; charter member of the Quill and Scroll, National Honor Society for High School Journalists; and is a member of the National Honor Society.

BLANCHE FRIEDMAN

During her four years at Phoenix High, Blanche has not only been outstanding in scholastic ability, but has also shown marked interest in the social activities of the school. She possesses a voice and knack at entertaining which have caused her to be much sought after.

Madge Keyfauber ran a close second in the average of grades, having one less than Blanche. Mary Elizabeth Spalding and Dorothy Stauffer tied for third place with 134 grade points.—Rachel Hawkins.

SALUTATORIAN

Laird Racey was elected salutatorian of the graduating class at a special Senior meeting held April 23. Ranking high in scholastic standing among the boys of the class, Laird was well deserving of this high honor.

Since coming to Phoenix High School from Kansas City during the earlier part of his high school career, he has been considered by his classmates as one of the most outstanding boys in the school. He has taken an active part in school affairs.

Having been a member of the Coyote Club for three years, Laird has been held in the high esteem of the boys of that organization.

Keenly interested in dramatic work, he has cooperated splendidly with his class in trying to make its annual play a success. This past year he was elected Student Manager of Dramatics and Debate, a student body officer. His interest in dramatics has been no greater than his interest in oratory and debate. In the contest on the Federal Constitution, Laird's essay was chosen third in the high school.

LAIRD RACEY

UNIVERSITY WEEK

The Seventeenth Annual University of Arizona State High School Meet, held in Tucson May 4 and 5, proved to be the greatest in the history of the seventeen meets, attracting representatives of thirty-nine schools. As usual, the state meet was featured by upsets in the athletic events, and Phoenix Union High School was seriously affected by upsets.

Phoenix and Tucson High Schools staged a close race for honors in the educational contests, Tucson coming out on top by a small margin. The Tucson entrants took five firsts, four seconds and four thirds, and Phoenix won four firsts, two seconds and two thirds in the fifteen contests.

Outstanding among the educational victories was the winning of the state oratory championship by Miss Mary Silverstone of Phoenix. In physics contests, Phoenix took first with R. C. Moore as representative, and Vernon Lohr of Phoenix took second. Miss Vesta Schupp took sewing honors for Phoenix. Lew Oliver, Phoenix entrant, won history honors over all competition. At least fifteen high schools competed in most of the educational events.

The Phoenix school won its third 1928 state title, the 1928 baseball championship, when the Coyote nine crushed Mesa High 16-3, after having eliminated Hayden 18-8 to reach the finals. The game which decided the titleholders was the Coyotes' all the way, and Phoenix batters knocked two Mesa hurlers from the box in the first three innings.

A slim three-point margin separated the Coyotes from their fourth 1928 state title, the 1928 track championship, when Tucson High stacked up 40 1/5 points to the Phoenix total of 37 to win the meet. Mesa finished third. The failure of Phoenix to take places in several of the final events on which they had counted and the ability of the Tucson men to step in and get these resulted in the loss for Phoenix. Tompkins, Phoenix freshman miler, was the outstanding performer of the entire meet.

Phoenix High also lost both boys' and girls' state tennis titles, the only tennis award going to Phoenix being a second in the girls' events, won by Miss Marion Taylor.

Three state records were shattered and one other new one made in this meet. The new record was for the 880 relay, won by the Phoenix team when Joslin, Frazier and Joy sprinted off the distance in one minute, 34 1/5 seconds. Phoenix also received credit for another state record when Barney Cahill sent the discus spinning out 123 feet, 3 inches—six feet, nine inches better than the existing state record.

A Mesa entrant, Sirrine, set a new broad jump record of 21 feet, 6 3/8 inches and Murphy, Tucson captain, set a new record for the 440 dash of 51 4/5 seconds.

The quarter-mile dash was the fastest, hardest fought event of the entire meet. First place in the race was a 440-yard battle between Dick Joy of Phoenix and Murphy, Tucson. Murphy took the pole at the sound of the gun and Joy fell in behind him. For 350 yards—until the runners came out onto the straight-away for the final sprint—Joy hung to his heels.

In that final sprint, the fastest, flashiest finish of any event, Joy breast-ed Murphy, seemed to edge ahead, and then fell back as Murphy showed just a little bit more sprint for a pretty finish. It was the fastest 440 yards ever run by a high school athlete in Arizona, and Joy, only a split second behind Murphy, also smashed the existing record of $52 \frac{4}{5}$ seconds.

THE RESULTS:

100-yard dash—Curtiss, Tucson; Frazier, Phoenix; Luman, Phoenix. Time, $10 \frac{1}{5}$ seconds.

Mile—Tompkins, Phoenix; Andrews, Mesa; McLain, Phoenix. Time, 4 minutes, $49 \frac{2}{5}$ seconds.

440-yard dash—Murphy, Tucson; Joy, Phoenix; Hohstadt, Douglas. Time, $51 \frac{4}{5}$ seconds (new record).

120 high hurdles—Cummins, Douglas; Wollard, Tucson; Griner, Phoenix. Time, $16 \frac{2}{5}$ seconds.

Pole vault—Stowe, Tucson; Passey, Mesa; Morse, Phoenix. 10 feet, 6 inches.

Shot put—Verney, Mesa; O'Dowd, Tucson; Mulleneaux, Phoenix. 43 feet, $5 \frac{1}{2}$ inches.

High jump—Eaves and Passey of Mesa, tied; Caldwell, Phoenix, two Tucson men and a Phoenix and Douglas man tied for third. Caldwell won the toss for the medal.

220-yard dash—Curtiss, Tucson; Murphy, Tucson; Joy, Phoenix. Time, 23 seconds flat.

220-yard low hurdles—Frazier, Phoenix; DeWolf, Tucson; Stevenson, Mesa. Time, $27 \frac{3}{10}$ seconds.

880-yard run—Tompkins, Phoenix; Andrews, Mesa; Ribich, Bisbee. Time, 2 minutes, $10 \frac{3}{10}$ seconds.

Discus—Cahill, Phoenix; O'Dowd, Tucson; Mulleneaux, Phoenix. Distance, 123 feet, 3 inches (new state high school record).

Running broad jump—Sirrine, Mesa; Dean, Yuma; Pound, Tucson. Distance, 21 feet, $6 \frac{3}{8}$ inches (new state high school record).

Javelin—Weimer, Tucson; Mulleneaux, Phoenix; Joslin, Phoenix. Distance, 152 feet.

880-yard relay—Won by Phoenix (Joslin, Luman, Frazier, Joy). Time, 1 minute, $34 \frac{2}{10}$ seconds. Phoenix, Tucson and Mesa entered, and finished in the order named. (This is a new event this year).

MASQUE OF THE YELLOW MOON

Before an audience that filled the new stadium, the mammoth annual Pageant, the MASQUE OF THE YELLOW MOON, was presented on the night of April 27 with a cast of approximately 1500 students. For colorful beauty and historical value the 1928 Masque which depicted events in the value of Poston, "Father of Arizona," has never been surpassed in the Southwest.

KATHERINE MAUS

Indian legends, dances, historical episodes, and the magnificent court of the Queen, all shared in this portrayal of Arizona's growth and prosperity since the days of the sun worshippers. Gliding sun dancers, one hundred in number, selected from the ranks of the tallest boys in school, leaped, gesticulated, and swayed to the rhythm of Indian tom-toms that took the spectators back to the days of Cortez and the Arizona of centuries ago. Spanish ladies and gentlemen danced to the stately waltzes of olden times; dusky Indians went through tribal rites; pioneers, miners, and early settlers all appeared in this kaleidoscope of romance and beauty.

In the colorful allegorical scene which represented the prosperity of Arizona today, Katherine Maus, popularly elected by the student body as Queen, ruled over a magnificent court. Before her appeared allegorical figures representing the chief industries of the state—demure shepherdesses, stately knights in flashing copper armor, tall cowboys—all made obeisance to the Queen.

Growing in three years from a comparatively small production in the Shrine auditorium to its present proportions, the Masque has given Arizona a pageant that compares favorably with any historical presentation in the United States at the present time.

The part taken by the Phoenix Union High School students, year by year, has increased in size until now the entire pageant is done by students. Fifty per cent of the gross proceeds from the production went as a contribution to the sinking fund of the stadium.

The idea of the MASQUE OF THE YELLOW MOON originated with Mrs. Albert R. Smith, chairman of the Valley Beautiful division of the Phoenix Chamber of Commerce. Mrs. Cordelia Perkins has been the director of the pageant each year, assisted by the Girls' Physical Training classes under the direction of Miss Margaret Hurley and by the entire faculty. The dramatization of this year's production was by Mr. Neil Cook; the introduction by Miss Ida McDaniel.

Dealing with the same general theme each year—the history of Arizona—the Masque has not developed into a monotonous production due to the yearly change in the period depicted. Poston and his service to Arizona dominated the presentation this year.

NATIONAL ATHLETIC SCHOLARSHIP SOCIETY

OFFICERS

|----------------------------------|----------------|
| President | ARTHUR GORMAN |
| Vice-President | MARION REID |
| Secretary-Treasurer | EUGENE NAY |
| Faculty Adviser | R. R. ROBINSON |

The purpose of this society is to foster high scholarship among boy athletes, to stimulate a desire for balanced training, to elevate the ideas of sportsmanship, and to develop more outstanding leaders in the secondary schools of the United States. The society is a national organization, a branch of which was organized in Phoenix three years ago.

Eligibility in the society is limited to those boys earning an athletic letter in one of the four major sports: football, basketball, baseball, or track, or letters in two minor sports, and whose average in their school work for three consecutive semesters is equal to or higher than the general average of the school, and who have exemplified the highest type of citizenship and sportsmanship.

The Phoenix Union High School members of the society were Arthur Gorman, Marion Reid, Ed Ames, Charles Mickle, Joe Lentz, and Eugene Nay.

Back Row: Gorodezky, Townsend, Wilson, Hancock, Frazier, Murphy, Galbraith, Nelson, Spotts.
First Row: Johnson, Seaman, Brown, Friedman, Lefler, Killpack, Whitworth, Schnabel, Ballard, Berryman, Hawkins.

| President | JACK LEFLER |
| Vice-President | HILDRETH BROWN |
| Secretary-Treasurer | EULA WHITWORTH |
| Faculty Adviser | J. A. THALHEIMER |

The local chapter of the QUILL AND SCROLL, the National Honorary Society for High School Journalists, was established in Phoenix Union High School during the school year of 1926-27. This organization now numbers nearly three hundred chapters, which are located in almost every state in the Union.

In order to become a member in this organization one must be of at least Junior standing in the school; one must also be in the upper third of one's class in general scholastic standing for the current year; and one must have done superior work in some phase of journalism. Having met these requirements, one may become a member if recommended by the supervisor and approved by the national secretary-treasurer. The badge of the society is a small gold scroll.

Mr. J. A. Thalheimer, supervisor of the local chapter, was elected National Vice-President of the organization during the past year.

FORENSIC LEAGUE

|----------------------------------|---------------|
| President | DONALD JACOBS |
| Vice-President | EDNA BROWNING |
| Secretary-Treasurer | MERWIN MURPHY |
| Faculty Adviser | A. F. OLNEY |

This is the third year of existence of CHAPTER 50 OF THE NATIONAL FORENSIC LEAGUE, national honorary society for high school debaters and orators.

By participating in interscholastic debates, oratorical or declamatory contests, a student earns the necessary ten points for membership and the first degree. There are three advanced degrees: Honor, thirty points; Excellence, sixty points; and Distinction, one hundred points. Merwin Murphy holds the degree of Distinction; Mr. Olney and Donald Jacobs hold the degree of Excellence.

Merwin Murphy was elected to the office of National Director and member of the National Executive Council, being one of the two student members of this body, which has a total membership of five. Bernard Muffley was elected to the position of District Chairman of the California District, which includes Arizona.

Four faculty members were enrolled as active members. They were: Miss Gladys Bookman, Mrs. Isabel O'H. Yaeger, Superintendent E. W. Montgomery, and the club adviser, Mr. A. F. Olney.

Nelson, Pinson, Kurtz, Sheridan, Sanders.

GIRLS' LETTER CLUB

|------------------------------|------------------|
| President | DOROTHEA NELSON |
| Vice-President | MARIE AMES |
| Secretary | MARY BLAINE |
| Faculty Adviser | MISS R. L. SCOTT |

The GIRLS' LETTER CLUB was organized for the purpose of stimulating interest in girls' athletics. A small letter is given for four hundred and fifty points, and a large letter is given for seven hundred and fifty points. A sweater is given for a thousand points. To win a letter a girl must have made one first team and must have passed the third star badge test.

Points are earned by members of first or second teams in Volley Ball, Hockey, Baseball, Basket Ball, Track, Tennis, and Swimming. Other ways of earning points are taking part in the Masque of the Yellow Moon, hiking, and being manager of a team. Those who have earned sweaters this year are Grace Kurtz and Dorothea Nelson.

Naturally, membership in the club is regarded as a great honor, and its existence is responsible for a greater interest in the various phases of physical training and in girls' sports.

|------------------------------|-----------------|
| President | HOWARD JOSLIN |
| Vice-President | BILL LUKE |
| Secretary | WILBUR CALDWELL |
| Faculty Adviser | R. R. ROBINSON |

The Phoenix Union High School LETTERMEN'S CLUB, athletic social society, has been unusually active during the past year, especially during the football season. They held several dances, one for El Paso's grid team and another for Las Cruces. Numerous business meetings were also held, under the direction of Coach R. R. Robinson, faculty adviser of the club.

But the LETTERMEN'S CLUB this year branched out of its regular activities and proposed and passed a motion introducing a new belt buckle that met with instant approval of the student body. The club also decided favorably on a motion that coat sweaters may be awarded athletes.

The annual banquet of the football team was held this year at the Arizona Club and was probably the most successful in history, a banquet well befitting the Southwestern grid kings.

|------------------------------|---------------|
| President | DICK JOY |
| Vice-President | WENDELL PRICE |
| Secretary | MARION REID |
| Faculty Adviser | JESSE McCOMB |

The NUMERALMEN'S CLUB is a brother of the Lettermen's Club and in its work is largely an assistant to the higher club. Membership in this organization is limited to boys who place on the second teams in any of the four major sports, track, baseball, football or basketball. In its activities, the NUMERALMEN'S CLUB helps the Lettermen promote social events.

Coach Jesse McComb is adviser of the club as well as coach of all the second teams. The NUMERALMEN'S CLUB has a much greater membership than the Lettermen's Club as the requirements are not so strict. However, many of the Numeralmen become Lettermen in their following year in school.

The NUMERALMEN'S CLUB awards a numeral to all boys who play a certain amount of time on any of the school second teams. These numeral awards mean the same on the second team as a letter for a first team.

The Spanish Club, known as "Los COYOTES ESPANOLES", was organized several years ago with a view toward interesting students in the Spanish language. This past year the club was affiliated with "Institutus de Las Espanas" in New York, under the auspices of Columbia University. At the close of the year a bronze medal was given to the member of the club showing the most proficiency in the language.

The annual Spanish banquet was held the latter part of March, and a very interesting program was given. Music by a Spanish orchestra and Spanish songs by Sr. Vicente Guereca were features of the program. The tables were gaily decorated in red, white, and green, and a genuine Spanish atmosphere was carried out in the room.

The club's emblem, designed by Miss Green, is a small silver pin in the shape of a Spanish sombrero.

THE STUDENT AID SQUAD

|------------------------------|---------------------|
| President | RUBY GREEN |
| Secretary | ALICE STOVER |
| Faculty Adviser | MISS CATHERINE DUNN |

During the year the STUDENT AID SQUAD was organized and sponsored by the Activities Department of the Girls' League. The purpose of this squad is to keep absent pupils informed of their lessons and to give them aid, if needed, when they return to school.

When someone has been absent from school several days, teachers or students notify the STUDENT AID SQUAD through Miss Ethel Kosenberry or Miss Catherine Dunn, and the assigned lessons in each of the absentee's subjects are taken to him. If the student on returning to school has difficulty in starting again, the squad gives him the necessary aid. That the squad has performed this altruistic service to the satisfaction of all is attested to alike by the faculty and the students who have been helped.

Merit credits are given to the members of the squad according to the number of hours spent in working.

| President | JEAN CLARK |
| Vice-President | RALPH KNOWLES |
| Secretary | MARGARET TATUM |

The purpose of the HONORARY HEALTH SOCIETY is to uphold the health standard of Phoenix Union High School. The society was organized last year under the Activities Department of the Girls' League.

In order to become a member a student must have one hundred points and must learn the "Crusaders' Creed", which is given in the constitution. One hundred and fifty points entitles a member to wear the pin of the club. Each year a ring is given to the boy and girl who have earned the most points.

Points are earned for one year's work in Physical Training, Military Training, Economics, Biology, and Chemistry. Athletic tests, athletic teams, and general health are other ways of earning points.

The sponsors of this year's club were Miss Hurley, Miss Griffith, Miss Dunn, Miss Slavens, Mrs. Schnabel, and Mr. Robinson.

| Secretary-Treasurer | FORREST PETTYCREW |
| Faculty Adviser | JESSE E. McCOMB |

The Military department of the school is represented by one social organization, the COYOTE CLUB, which is composed of boys who have done outstanding work in Military.

Two initiations, one each semester, furnished most of the excitement for the club this year. At these affairs, which were preceded by banquets, and which are the most notorious of all such affairs in the school, the most shocking element was the electricity used.

The COYOTE CLUB sponsored the production of "The Haunted House," a play which displaced the usual annual minstrel put on by the organization.

At the dance held in May everyone seemed to be having a good time and stayed until the orchestra left.

Sponsors are elected from the girls of the school each year. Those for this year were Roberta Cox, Kathryn Severinghaus and Roberta Busch. Other sponsors still in school are Marion Wells and Katherine Maus, who was elected Honorary Colonel.

| Vice-President | JACK MANNING |
| Secretary | BEN MILLER |
| Treasurer | ANDREW LOPER |
| Faculty Adviser | WALTER J. WOODEN |

With the completion of the stadium the need for ushers and officials was met by the formation of the STADIUM CLUB, under the supervision of Walter J. Wooden. This club has one of the most efficient organizations in the school. It is organized into groups consisting of Head Ushers, under the leadership of the president, and a number of subordinates under the Head Ushers. Each section of the stadium is under one Head Usher and his subordinates.

The members of the STADIUM CLUB officiated at all athletic games in the stadium or the gymnasium. In addition to this, they had charge of all outside events held at the stadium, including the Snake Dance, the Masque of the Yellow Moon, pageants and tournaments.

The STADIUM CLUB has been the only organization in charge of the affairs and has always taken charge with the utmost success. Their efficiency has made possible the starting of all events on time without confusion.

| Faculty Adviser | MISS ZULA STEVENS |

The PEPPERETTE CLUB is an organization of girls formed for the purpose of showing the "Coyote" spirit in all athletic affairs. Mr. Doron drilled the yell leaders, and the best one from each class was chosen yell leader for her class. At various games the girls, assisted by Mr. Etzweiler and the band, spelled out P-U-H-S, C-O-Y-O-T-E, and S-T-A-D-I-U-M, between the halves. This stunt was always enthusiastically applauded.

The girls, who had a section reserved for them in the stadium and were among the most enthusiastic supporters of the football team, always appeared at the games in a uniform dress consisting of white middies, blue skirts, and P. U. H. S. caps.

|----------------------------------|-----------------------|
| President | ANNA MANGINO |
| Vice-President | MARY PHILLIPS |
| Secretary-Treasurer | DALE ARNOLD |
| Faculty Adviser | MISS ELIZABETH WILSON |

The aim of the HOME ECONOMICS CLUB is to further interest in Home Economics work; to further interest in social and professional welfare and advancement of members; to further personal development of the girls; to form a connecting link between school and home; and the improvement of the home and community.

Meetings are held the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month. One meeting is a business meeting and one a social meeting. At the beginning of the second semester a picnic was given at which initiation of the new members was held.

On Thanksgiving the club sent two boxes of fruit and candy to the County Hospital; at Christmas time the club furnished three families with boxes of food, toys, and clothing.

In order to belong to the club a girl must have had one year's work in Home Economics.

Under the guidance of Miss Wilson the club had a very successful year.

DRAMATICS CLUB

|----------------------------------|----------------|
| President | BARBARA WILLIS |
| Secretary-Treasurer | MONA ROBBINS |
| Faculty Adviser | J. S. DORON |

In keeping with the progressive spirit of the High School, a new club was formed this year made up of those students studying dramatic art. For membership in this club, a student must have passing grades in all subjects, must be of Junior or Senior standing, and must have had a part in a dramatic production or be in a high school dramatic class. There were approximately twenty members in the club this past year.

Exceptional work is expected from this class of dramatists, and that they may show their ability they are required to direct some plays and act in others.

Several plays have been given, among which were "The Merchant Gentleman", "My Lady's Lace", and "Solemn Pride". "The Merchant Gentleman", which was presented in Florence and later before the entire student body of P. U. H. S., was the only play to be directed by the adviser this past season.

Much may be expected from this new club in the years to come.

Back Row: J. Maddox, Willard, Mr. Butler, Knowles, Steele, Finnigan, Ruppelius, Ramirez. Third Row: Lacey, Kelly, Duncan, W. Brown, H. Maddox, Boman, Stierwalt, Cook, Struckmeyer. AVIATION CLUB

|----------------------------------|-----------------|
| President | HINTON MADDOX |
| Secretary-Treasurer | DANIEL GRIJALVA |
| Faculty Adviser | L. N. BUTLER |

Although one of the most recently organized of Phoenix Union High School student body activities, the AVIATION CLUB is, nevertheless, one of the most active and boasts of a membership of sixty, larger than most of the school clubs. The purpose of this organization is to promote interest in the study of aviation in this school. Under the direction of L. N. Butler, faculty adviser, members of the club made numerous trips to the Rinehart-Whelan airport near Phoenix.

At the port they studied the planes, and Aviator Howard Rinehart, a strong friend of the society, gave many interesting lectures, explaining not only the methods of operating and flying the different planes, but also showing how to use a parachute. The Rinehart-Whelan company also made the members a special price for trips in the planes. The boys studied model building and the parts of the motor of the planes.

| Faculty Adviser | MISS RUTH ADAMS |

From an enrollment last year of fourteen, the COYOTE CACTUS CLUB, better known as the HIKING CLUB, has grown to a membership of thirty—a proof that the gentle art of walking has not entirely declined.

This club, composed of girls, was formed three years ago under the Activities Department of the Girls' League. One hundred points toward a letter and ten points toward membership in the Health Club are given for hiking seventy-five miles.

Seventy-five miles is the goal, but this year the club hiked over a hundred miles. Some of the hikes were to the Salt River, Grand Canal, Packing House, Joint Head, and Red Buttes. Other hikes were on Central Avenue, McDowell Road, Christy Road, and Grand Avenue. Because of the difficulty in getting cars to go to the mountains, no mountain hikes were held this year.

"To face life squarely and to find and give the best."

This is the motto and purpose of the Girl Reserves, of which the BLUE TRI is the High School unit. There are two clubs for High School girls—the Senior Club and the Freshman Club. The Senior Club met twice each month during the first semester, and during the second semester on Thursday afternoon. The club was divided into "Hobby Groups," and after a short business meeting, these groups would meet and develop their hobbies.

The Freshman Club met on Monday afternoon throughout the year. In the fall they gave a party for the Senior Club. The program for the Christmas Assembly was put on by both clubs combined. A Christmas program was given December 20 in the Y. W. Recreation Hall. A Vesper Service was held at Rosemary Lodge at Easter time for all the clubs in the Valley.

Although not a school organization, the HI-Y CLUB is directly connected with Phoenix Union High School, as its members are practically all high school boys. The membership includes at least fifty boys and the club is sponsored and directed by the Phoenix Y. M. C. A.

Meetings are held at the Y. M. C. A. every Tuesday evening under the direction of E. C. Reeves, club adviser, with John O'Brien, president, presiding. A short business and religious meeting is followed by some form of athletic contest.

From two to three hours a week on Tuesday night are devoted to athletics and the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium is turned over to the boys. The club supports a basketball league of six clubs annually and this year the HI-Y entered a baseball team in the church league. The club also held a banquet to open the season activities and a picnic later.

Because of the increased interest in the Camp Fire work, two groups were organized this year. The group under Miss Jack's guidance chose the name STRELOHO, symbolizing Strength, Respect, Love, and Honor. The other group, led by Miss Miller, chose the name HAWIHELA, which means Hands-willing and Hearts-laughing.

Both organizations meet once a week in the Glee Club cottage, where they study handcraft, citizenship, health, and many other things. Two meetings each month are spent in winning beads and working on their costumes. The aim of the girls this year has been to strive to live up to the law and ideals of the Camp Fire. Miss Jack's group went on an over-night trip in December and all of the girls had a wonderful time. Many enjoyable hikes and social gatherings were held during the year.

Organized last year to promote the study of physiography and to make a study of the physiographical features of the surrounding territory, the PHYSIOGRAPHY CLUB has become one of the most active clubs in the school. Interest in the club was high from the very first; and the many trips, devoted to fun as well as to serious study, brought an ever-increasing membership. The enthusiasm and co-operation of the club's adviser, Mr. Wilson, did much to keep interest keen.

Four trips were taken by the group this year, the longest one being to Jerome. This year pictures were taken of the most interesting features seen on each trip and were arranged in a special club album, which was exhibited in the spring at the regular school exhibit. By further additions in the future, this album is expected to become a thorough picturization of the country about Phoenix.

The MATHEMATICS CLUB is a new club which was organized this year. The purpose of the club is to give students who are interested in mathematics a chance to take up lines of work which would be impossible during class time and to prove that mathematics, far from being a dull subject, is really one of the most interesting in the entire school curriculum.

The club has about twenty members. Anyone who has completed at least two years of Mathematics is eligible for membership. It meets every other week on Tuesday afternoon during the sixth period. Programs, which are given at every meeting, are planned by the Program Committee, composed of Alice Stover, Chairman; Madge Keyfauver, and Olive Cleveland.

Several field trips were taken for practice in the use of instruments. The club is sponsored by the Mathematics Department and has Miss Downs as faculty abdvvisor.

The CAMERA CLUB had its beginning in the Sophomore English class of Miss Edith C. Williams in 1925. Those who were interested in photography were asked to join this club with the purpose of studying photography and kodaking. It was first called the Kodak Club, but the name was changed because of the fact that similar organizations in other high schools use the present name. Though the membership is small, it is one of the most enthusiastic in the school.

The club had as its first president, Jessie Buckley. However, she was unable to finish her term, and Gracabel Swift succeeded her. Ralph Knowles was last year's president.

The social side of the club has not been neglected, as many trips and programmas have been enjoyed. The effort which has been put forth by Miss Williams, the adviser, has been one of the biggest factors in the success of the club.

RED CROSS FIRST AID COURSE

The RED CROSS FIRST AID COURSE, sponsored by the Activities Department of the Girls' League and the Maricopa County Medical Society, was organized this year with a view to giving students valuable knowledge which they would perhaps not otherwise acquire.

The class is held Wednesdays from three-thirty until five o'clock. As required by the Red Cross, the course consists of fifteen lessons. The first part of the period a lecture is given by a doctor sent by the Maricopa County and the last part is spent in practicing bandaging or in answering questions. Dr. Garrison has charge of testing the students and training them in bandaging.

In order to receive one-fourth of a credit for work in the class a student must attend eighty per cent of the lectures. A Red Cross First Aid certificate and three merit credits are given for completing the course and passing the test given by the Red Cross. About twenty students finished the course and passed the test given this year.

COACHES

COACH R. R. ROBINSON completed his seventh year as head coach of athletics at Phoenix Union High School by witnessing the greatest grid eleven he ever produced romp off with the Southwestern grid title and set a record which, officially recognized, surpassed anything the school ever before attained on the gridiron.

The school basketball team, through the coaching work of Robinson, grabbed the state championship title after being virtually outclassed in the Valley tournament—and the 1928 track team set an excellent record.

In the seven years that Coach Robinson has filled the duties of head coach, Phoenix High has held the state grid championship every year and the Southwestern championship five years, but 1927 was the first year in which we were officially recognized as Southwestern titleholders. Before coming to Phoenix, Robinson had three years of real football experience with the Colorado Agricultural College eleven, and on two of these years was chosen All-Rocky Mountain end.

JESSE McCOMB

COACH JESSE McCOMB's coaching work at Phoenix High School during 1927-28, although not so extensive as Robinson's, was equally as important, for McComb turned out an unbeatable baseball team and was an assistant in coaching the first teams of football and basketball. While Robinson was busy building a winning track team, McComb was forming the 1928 Coyote nine.

McComb came to Phoenix High first as a teacher, but because of his athletic training was placed on the coaching staff. He has held this position since 1921.

His first athletic coaching was at White Water, Arizona, where he was principal. In 1915 he changed to Douglas Junior High School to teach and coach. In 1917 McComb entered the army and due to his athletic ability, held a position on his regimental football squad, and, while in France, coached his brigade team. After being overseas ten months he returned with the 327th Field Artillery.

McCOMB

YELL LEADER

HARRY MORGAN: Morgan had charge of the greatest rooting sections Phoenix Union High School ever had. That his ability was great was evidenced by the support he received for the Southwestern grid champions.

HARRY MORGAN

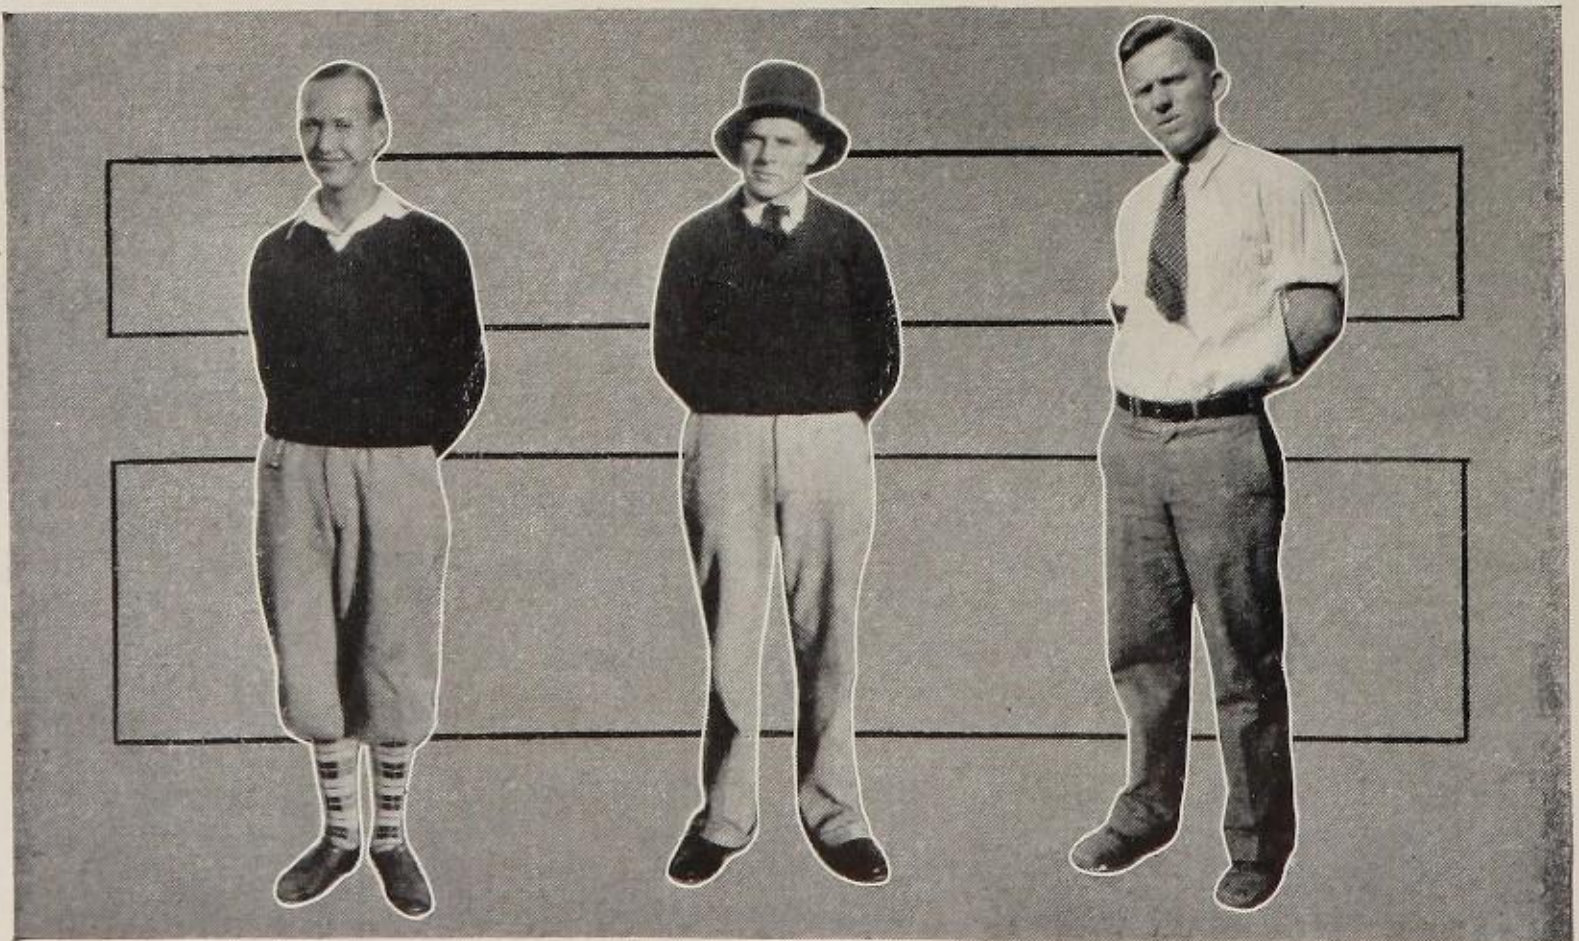

MANAGERS

SAM LOCKEN—Football: This tall, lanky boy, an athlete himself, proved to be more than a capable manager and at all times administered to the needs of the members of the 1927 squad.

DICK JOY—Basketball: Although the duties of the basketball manager may not be as difficult as in football or track, part of the credit for the state title won by this year's five should go to Dick Joy for his capable management.

J. D. COOK—Track: None better liked than "Red" Cook. At the same time he fulfilled every duty. His work of caring for the stadium field and also for the many track aspirants required long hours and plenty of hard work.

CHARLES BARNES—Baseball: The many baseball victories were in an indirect way due to the efficient management of the team by Charles Barnes. Keeping up the diamond and preparing it for about five different games was also up to Charlie, with Coach McComb's help.

FOOTBALL

For the first time in history, Phoenix Union High School was this year officially recognized as Southwestern Interscholastic grid champions. It took just an even dozen battles, ten of them against the strongest high school elevens the Southwest could produce, but in the end the first official recognition was awarded and a special silver trophy awarded. Of those twelve games, the Coyote eleven emerged undefeated among high schools, and was scored upon in only one instance—at that time by Mesa and by a mere six points. The strength of Arizona, New Mexico and Texas—even a strong San Diego High School eleven met certain defeat at the hands of Phoenix High. A strong Phoenix Indian eleven came within range of Phoenix High and was dropped after a hard-fought battle. Undoubtedly, the 1927 record was the most outstanding record ever chalked up by any high school eleven in the Southwest.

JUST LOOKING BACK

We find that . . .

Showing all kinds of fight but ragged in its playing, the Coyote eleven was held to a 0-0 tie by the Phoenix High Alumni. There was no evidence that day that this same Coyote team would sweep to victory over the strongest high school elevens the Southwest could produce.

However . . .

Just about a week later the Coyote team made its first trip, to Prescott, where they administered a severe 70-0 drubbing to Prescott High, leaving behind them the battered pride of Northern Arizona high schools.

CECIL MULLENEAUX

Right Tackle

The specialty of this 200-pound tackle succeeded in opening large holes in the opposing line.

BILL HYDER

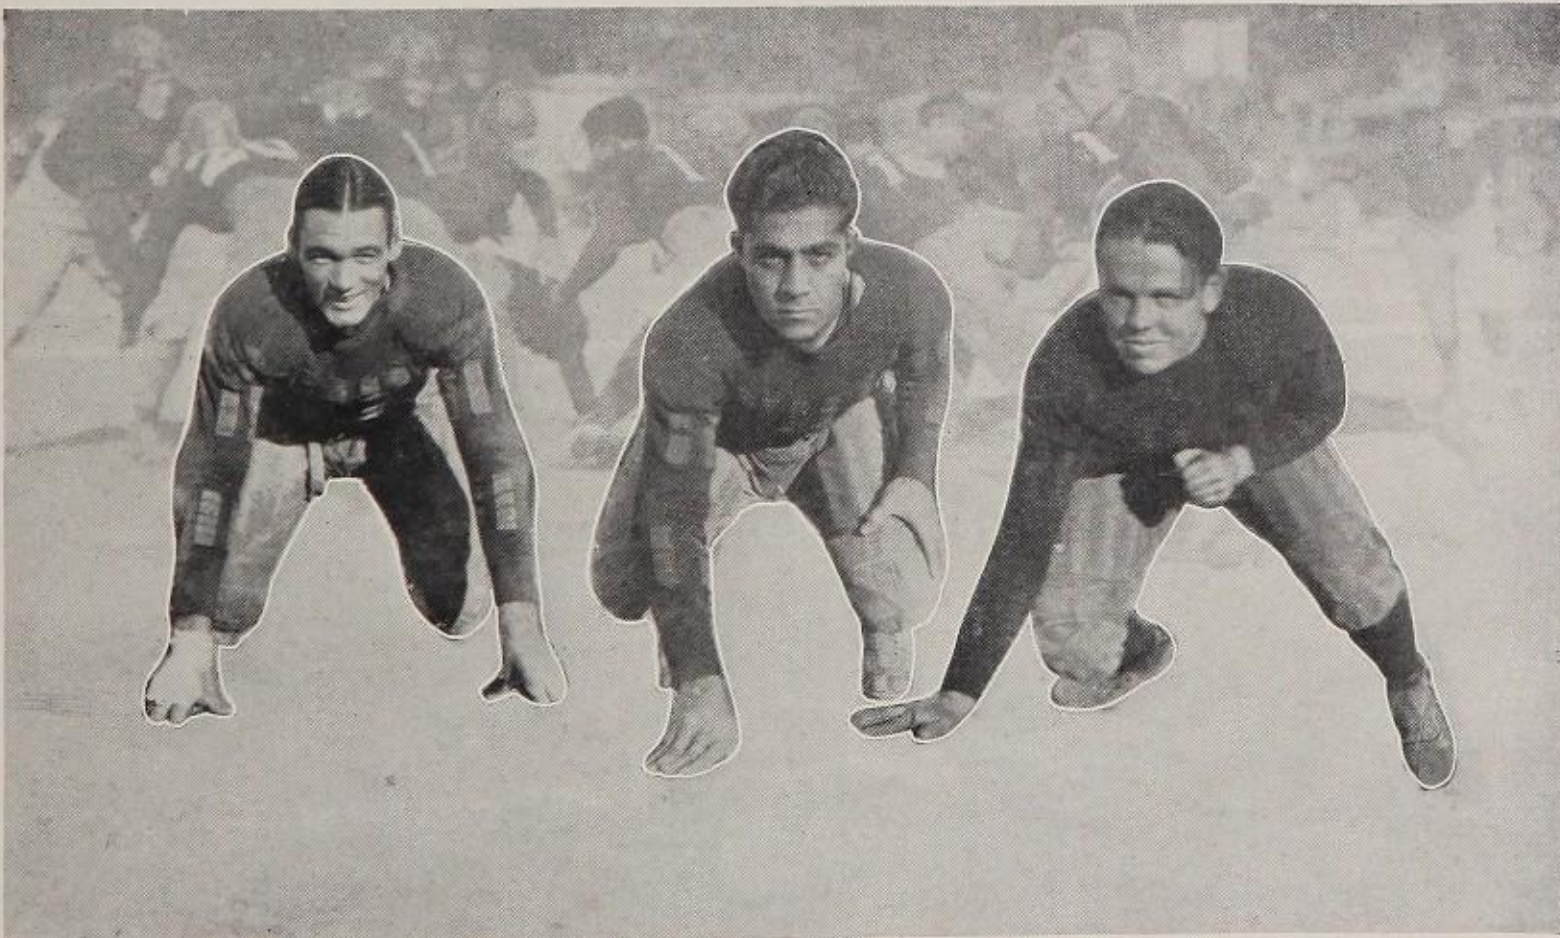

Captain and Quarterback

Although the smallest man on the team, he was the factor that put the fight into the 1928 champions.

SEYMOUR RYAN

Tackle

Another of those "big boys" who take the joy out of life for the opposition. Ryan was invaluable with his fight.

Woodbridge starts one of his sensational end runs.

That easy win

Might have instilled some overconfidence in the Coyote ranks for on the following week a strong University of Arizona Freshman eleven invaded Phoenix and crushed Phoenix High under a 19-13 score, its only loss of the entire season. However, the University victory did the Coyotes more good than harm.

Then

A trip to Miami netted the Phoenix eleven another shut-out victory by a 39-0 score. Starting at the kick-off with a rush and a form of play which baffled their opposition, the Coyotes swept to an easy win with the plunging Woodbridge and Schade battering the opposition for long gains.

WILBUR CALDWELL
Right Guard

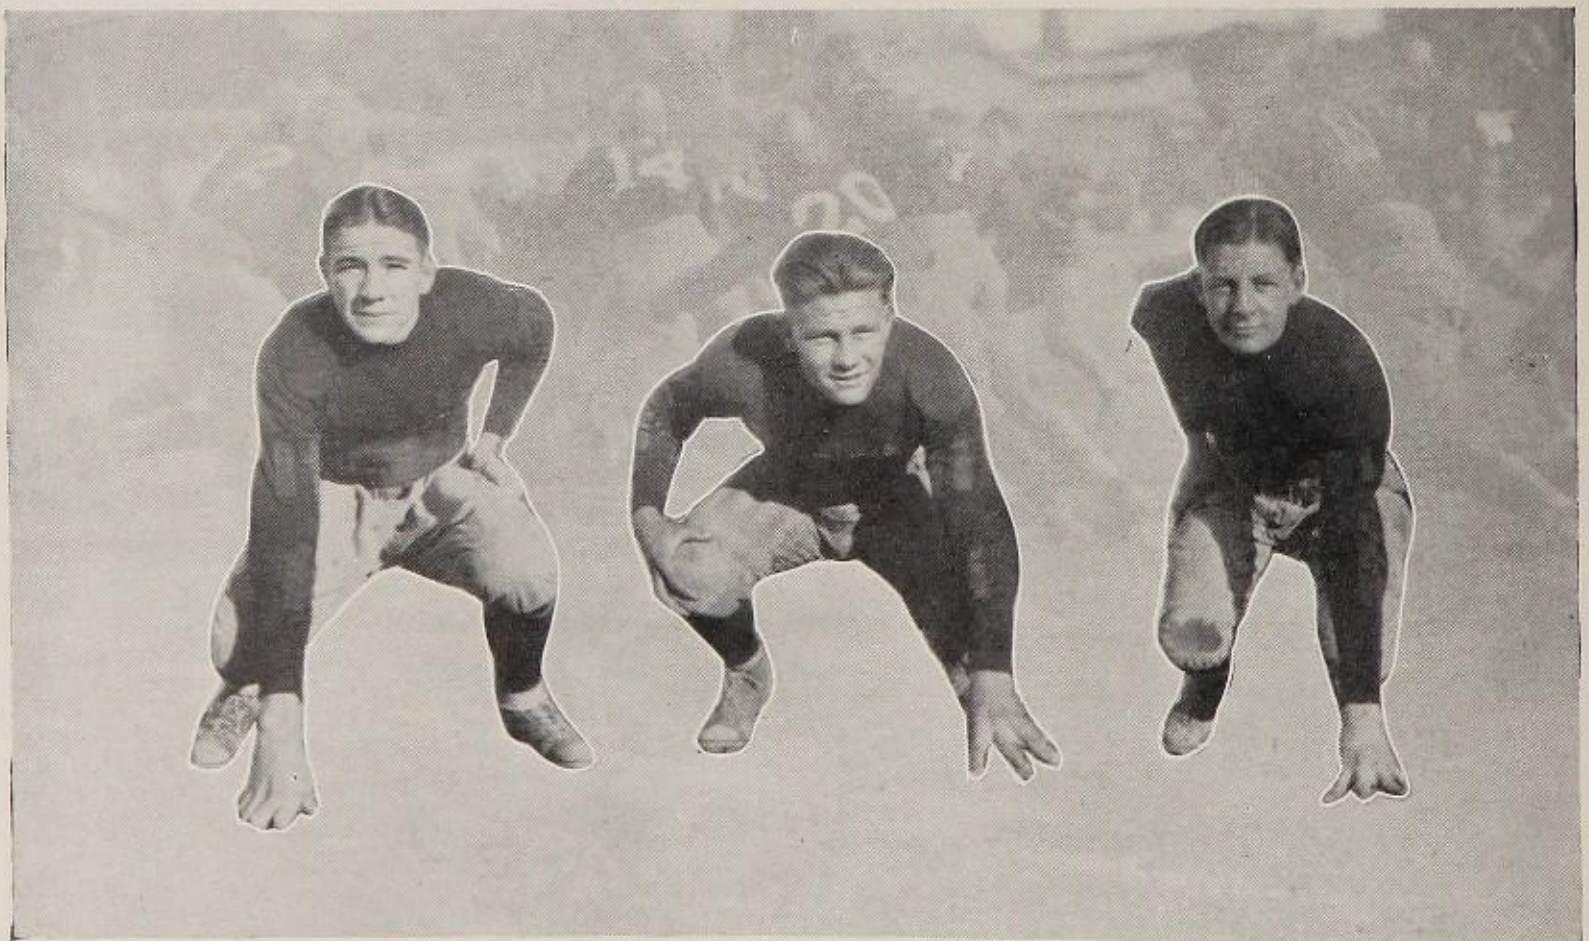

His second year in guard position. Caldwell was another tower of strength on the Coyote line.

JOHN HARRELL
Guard

Harrell was one reserve upon whom Robinson could rely to take either guard position and fill it well.

WILLIAM DAVIES
Quarterback

Needless to say, his work was satisfactory and the rise of this lively little quarterback was sensational.

Hyder circles back to pass to Joslin while bucking Yuma.

Following that....

Phoenix met an invading Yuma eleven and meted out a 25-0 defeat. In this game, their fifth, the Coyotes were nearly scored upon when Yuma put over a trick play which baffled the entire local eleven. Yuma was consistently forced to result to trick plays to gain yardage.

An overconfident....

Very cocky Tucson team came to Phoenix to "trim the Coyotes in the same way we did last year" and again Phoenix emerged from the fray on the long end of the score, this time 13-0. Tucson looked good at first, but Phoenix scored early and broke up the Badger morale.

JOE WOODBRIDGE

Fullback

Slippery and speedy, Woodbridge was one of the most sensational halfbacks Robinson ever turned out.

BARNEY CAHILL

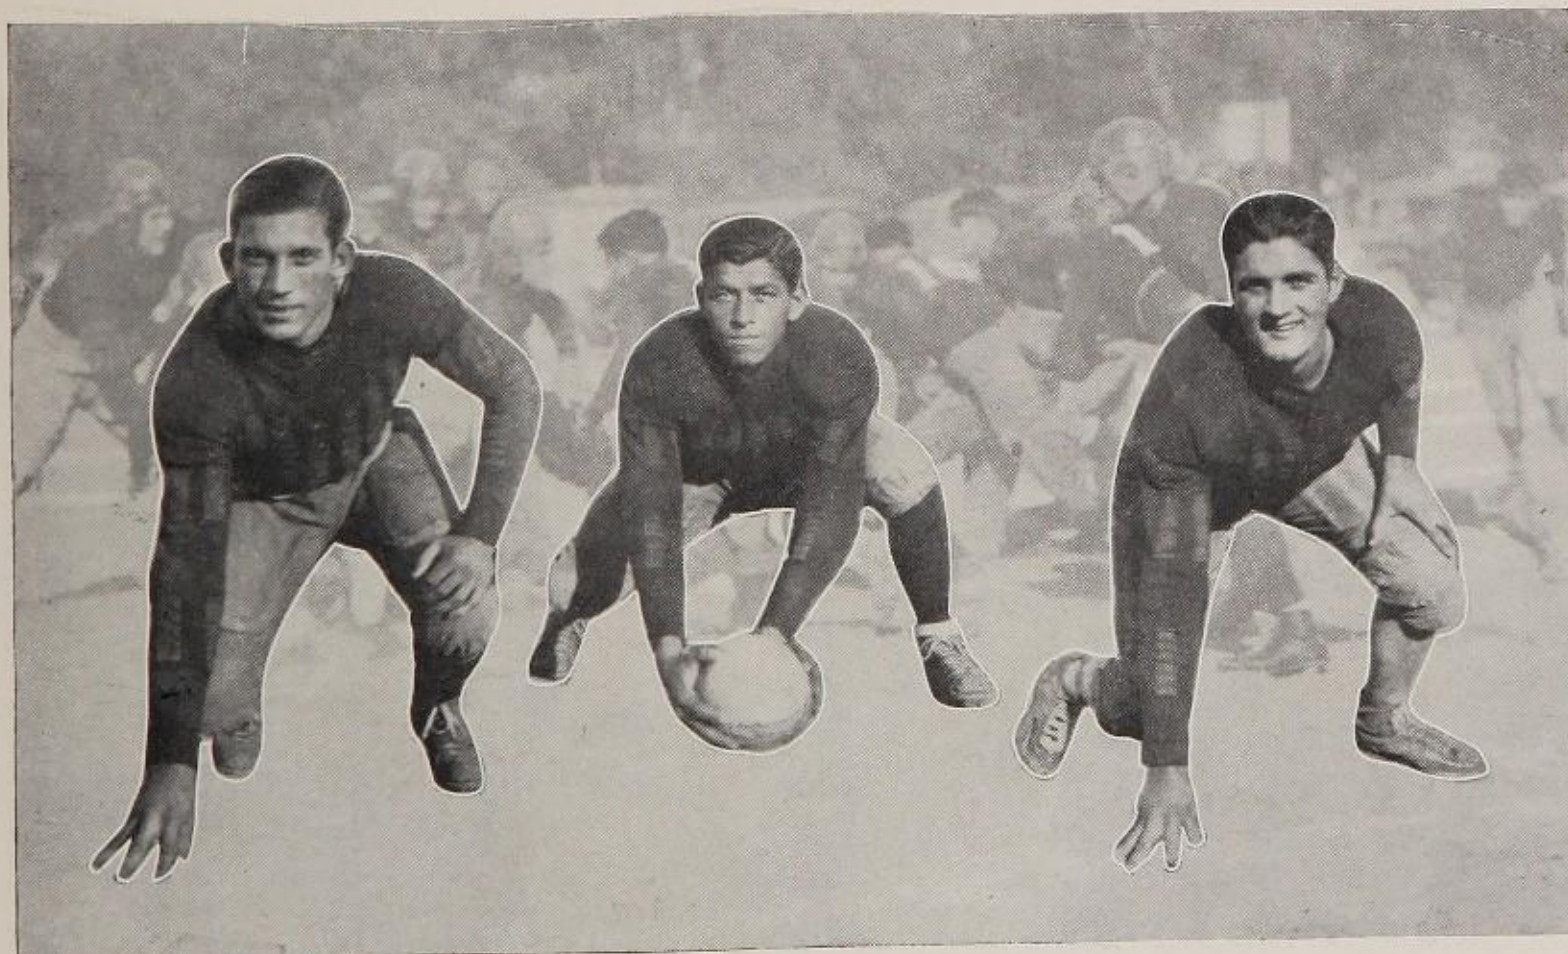

Center

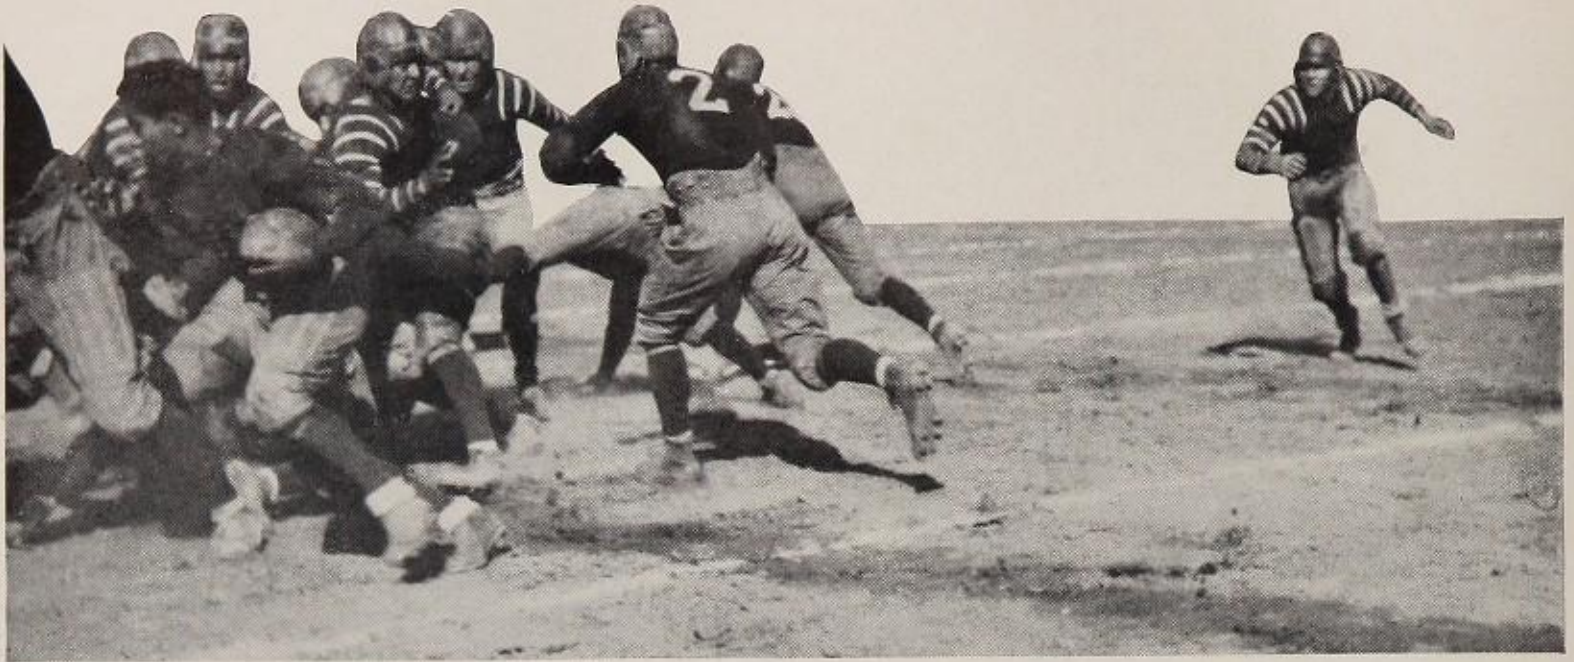

This boy when covering the ball always sent the pigskin back, fast, even, and in the right manner.

BILL WOODBRIDGE

Left Tackle

Another of the "Baby Berthas." With his 200 pounds of weight, Bill was a very valuable player.

Captain Bill Hyder attempting to pierce the center of the line.

Highly confident and triumphant....

The Coyotes traveled to Albuquerque, New Mexico, and walked into one of the greatest surprises of the season when they were held to a scoreless tie, and were lucky to escape without being scored upon. That took some of the cockiness out of the Phoenix ranks.

Then, a packed stadium....

Witnessed El Paso High "bite the dust" in an Armistice Day attraction by a 27-0 score. Here the Coyotes expected a real battle, and they were far from getting it, smashing the El Paso line with ease and ploughing down the gridiron for long gains.

EUGENE NAY
Halfback

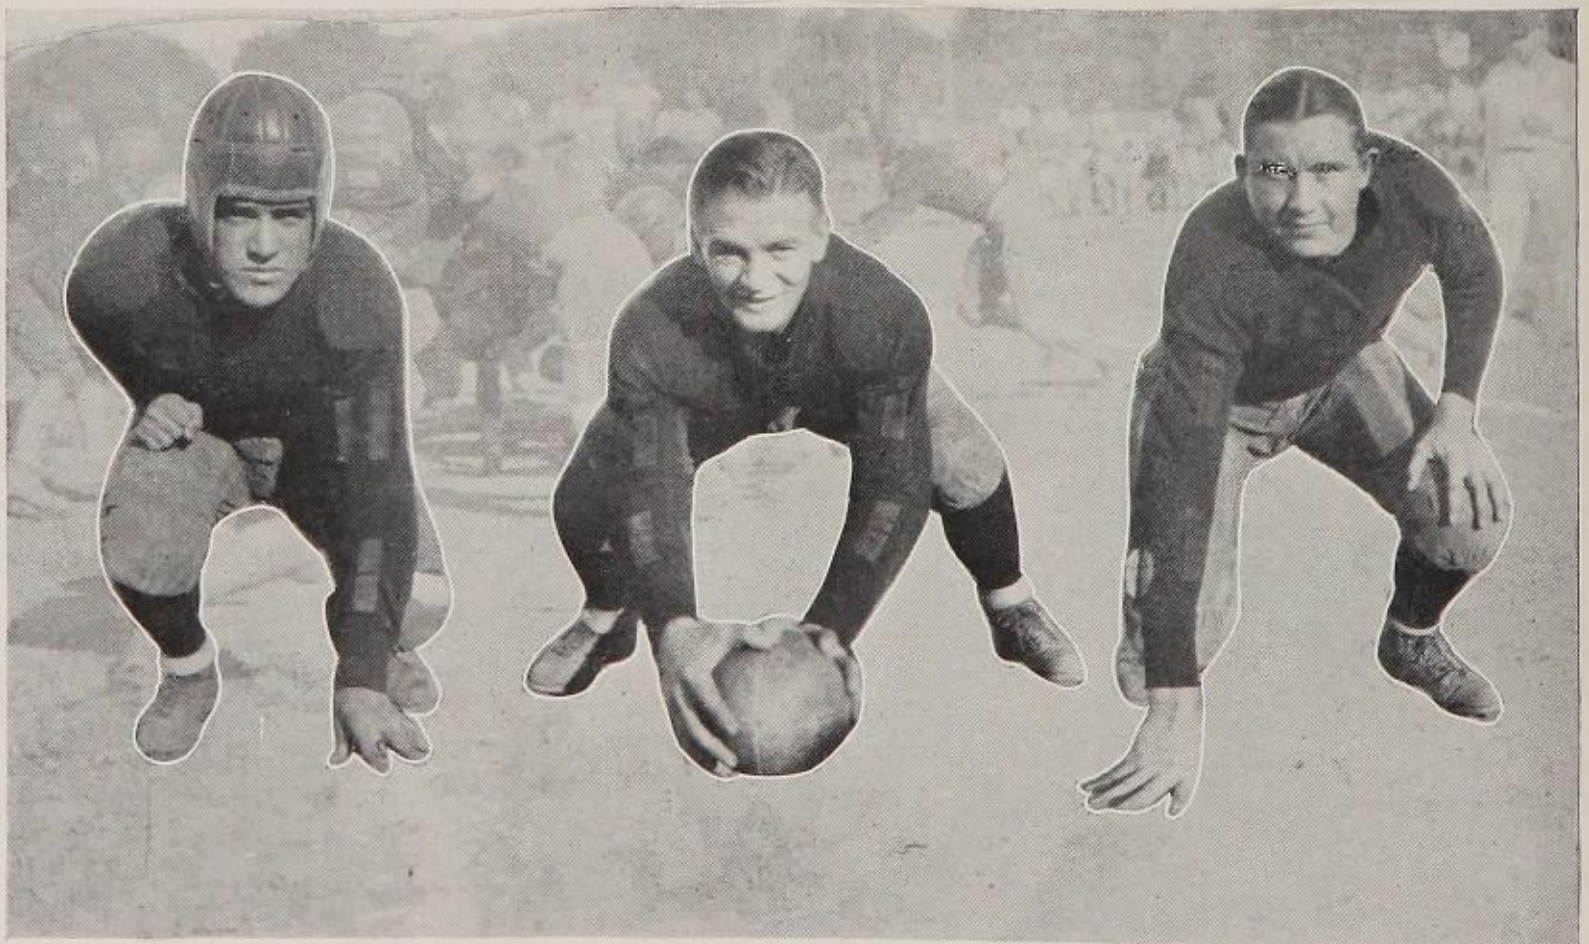

Was fast and carried the ball with ease, but injury forced him off the field in the second game.

CARL MEDFORD
Center

With the smiling Medford at center the ball always came spinning back true to the mark.

JOHN HARRIS
Tackle

Harris seemed to improve as the season progressed. He liked to leave an opponent sprawling in the dust.

Schade crashes the Mesa line for six yards.

Disaster

Camped on the trail of a highly elated Coyote eleven. Mesa was the final obstacle in the march toward the state grid title and every Coyote rooter knows that only a brilliant 40-yard drop-kick by Bill Luke in the closing minutes of the game won a 9-6 Phoenix victory.

Winners of the state title

The Coyotes entered the annual Turkey Day classic with more than the usual show of fight and the highly touted Phoenix Indians, members of high rating in the informal college conference, although showing lots of battle, went down to an utter 6-0 defeat.

MILTON SMITH

Guard

Smith and hard luck played hand in hand this season; injuries forced him off the grid-iron early.

FRED SCHADE

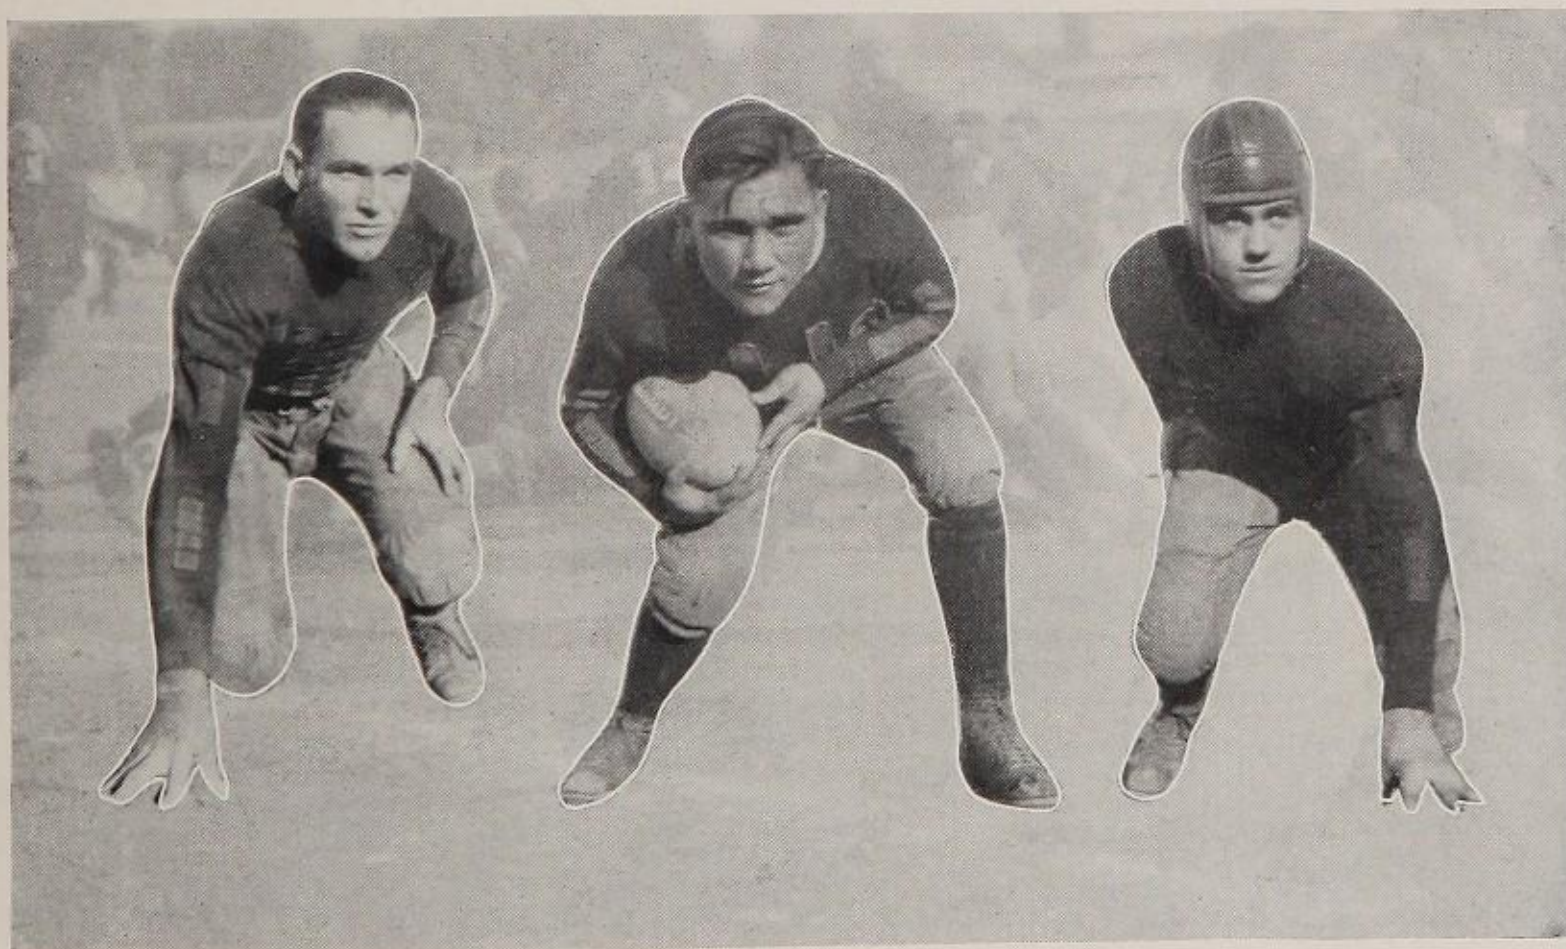

Fullback

A consistent ground gainer, heavy in weight and hard to stop when he smashes down the field.

WENDELL PRICE

Halfback

Filled a position in the back-field when Nay was injured. His punting always brought substantial gains.

19 PHOENICIAN '28

Phoenix gains another first down against the Jackrabbits.

Then came the acid test....

When Las Cruces, outstanding New Mexico high school eleven, and rated as the strongest team in the Southwest, invaded Phoenix to meet the Coyotes in the Southwestern Championship scrap. Although outweighed, the little Bulldog eleven fought the Coyote team off its feet—without result for they too were meted out the same medicine—defeat—and by a 26-0 score. That victory gave Phoenix High the Southwestern grid title.

HERBERT HAWKINS

Left Guard

A new man on the team, Hawkins showed good opposition to the opposing guard and plenty of fight.

BILL LUKE

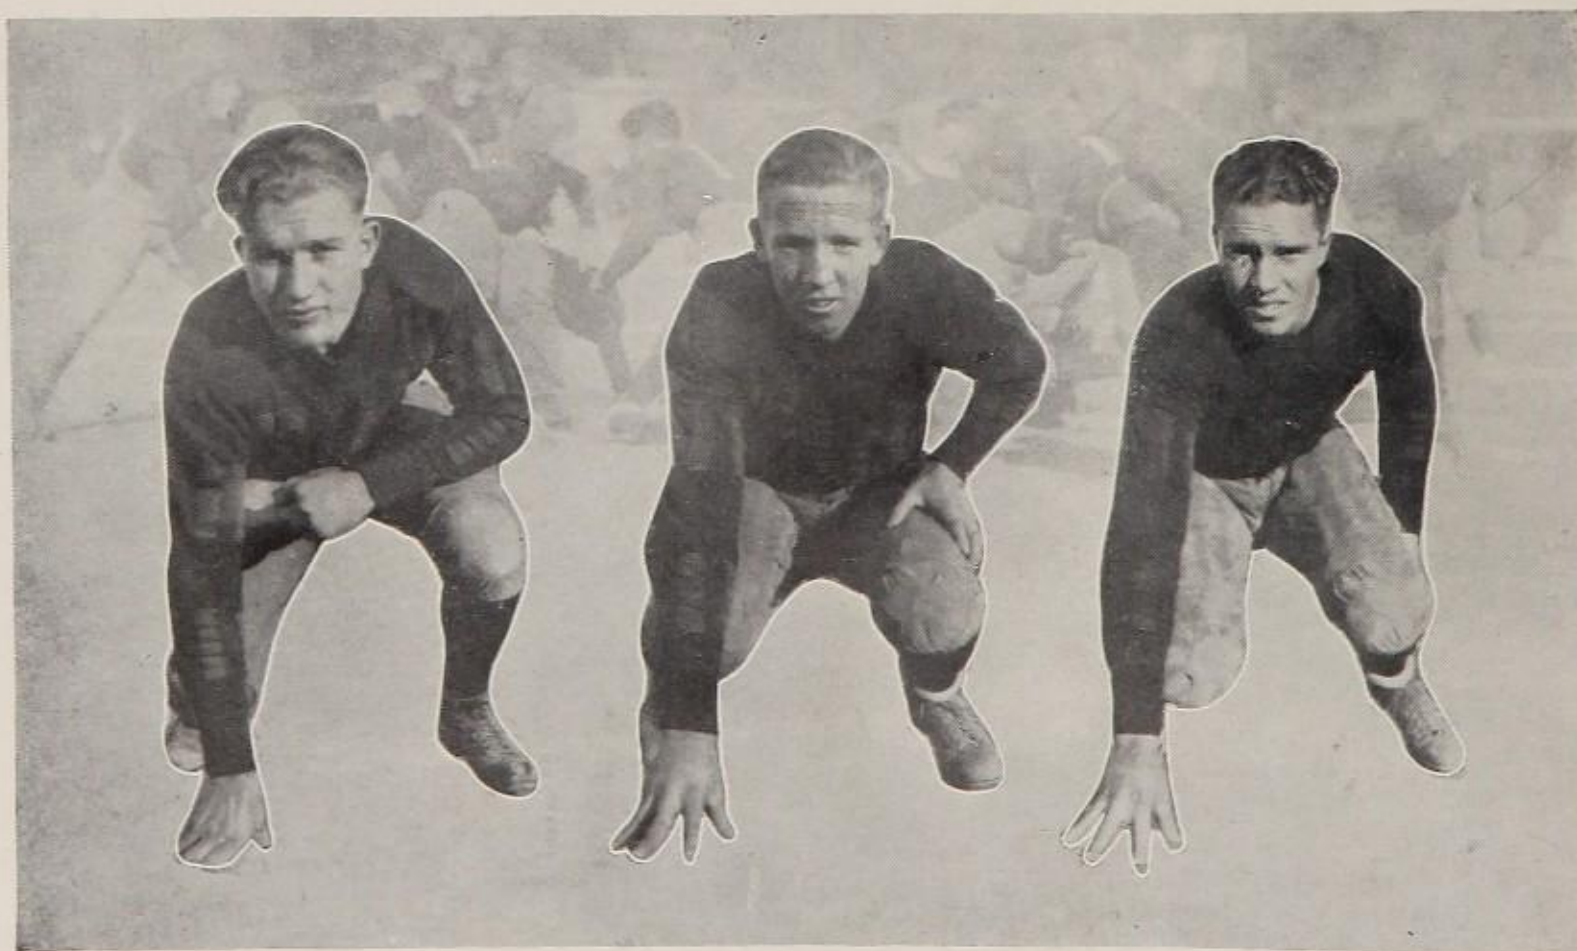

Left End

"Undownable" fight compelled Coach Robinson to move Luke from tackle position out on the left end of the line.

LENNOX WHITAKER

End

One player who could sub for either Coyote end and fill the position with complete satisfaction.

Price dropkicks for extra point in the Yuma game.

And, for the first time in history . . .

A Pacific Coast high school eleven, San Diego, went down fighting under a smashing Coyote attack, 7-0, in the same manner as had seven other high school teams. With not a bit of cockiness in evidence, the Coyotes clashed with a team which attempted every form of play from straight open football to wily aerial attacks, and more than once a fumble or break in the game favored the Coyotes and helped them fight San Diego off. A brilliant 40-yard dash by Woodbridge netted Phoenix the only touchdown and Luke booted a perfect drop-kick.

Right End

The romping, tearing right end, fighting spirit of the right wing and life of the entire line.

ED AMES

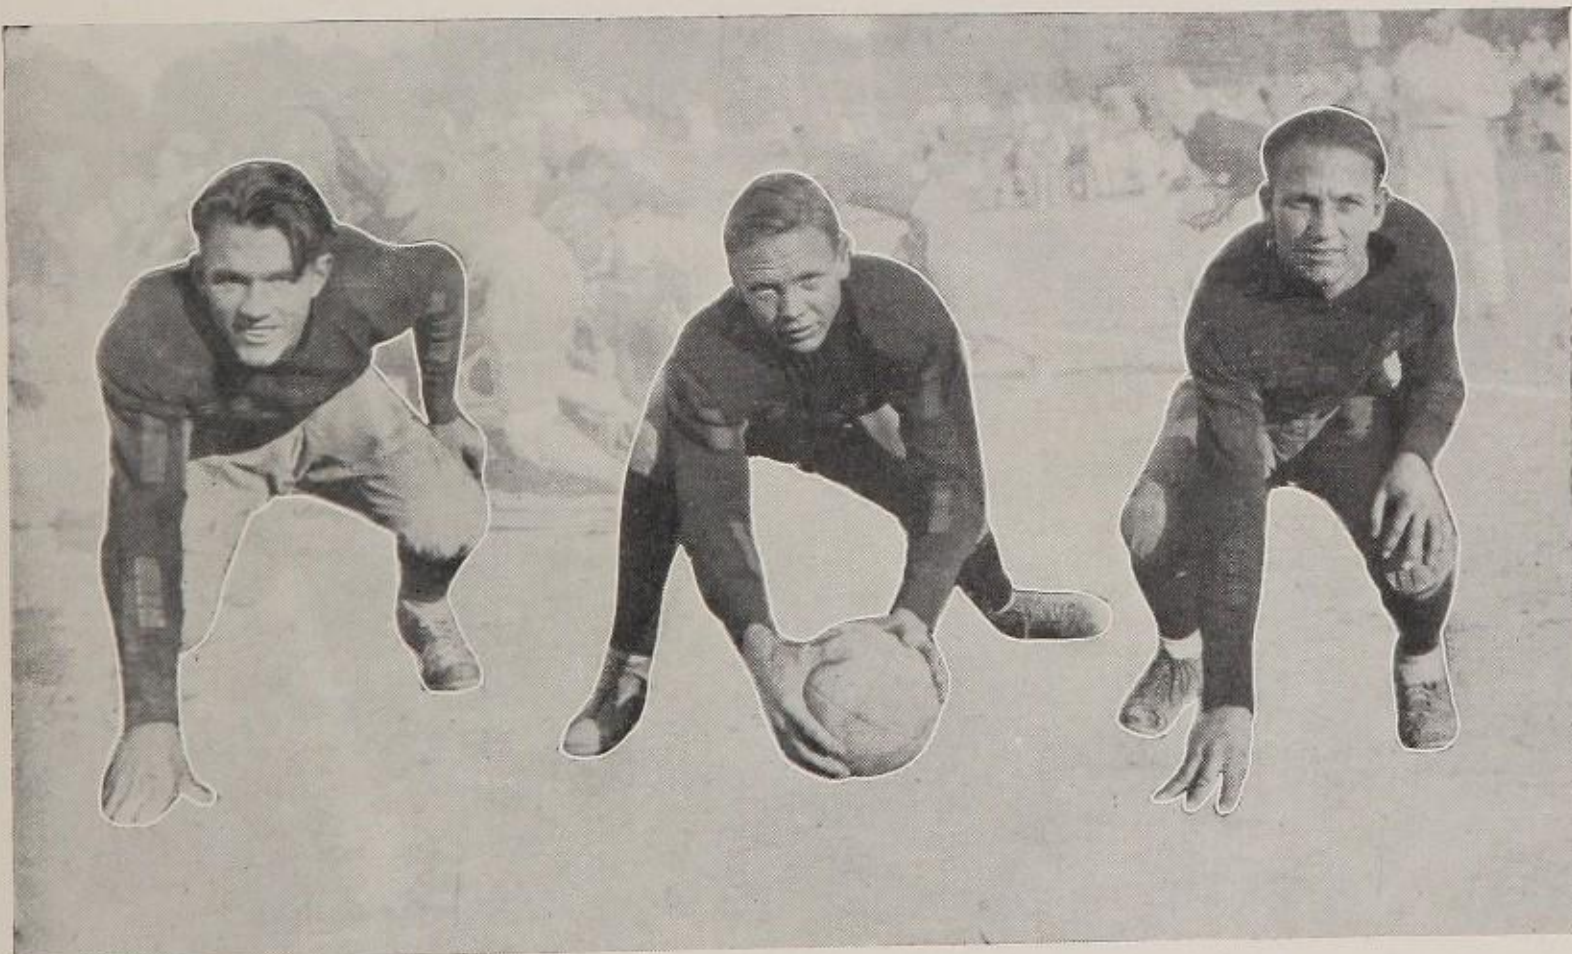

Center

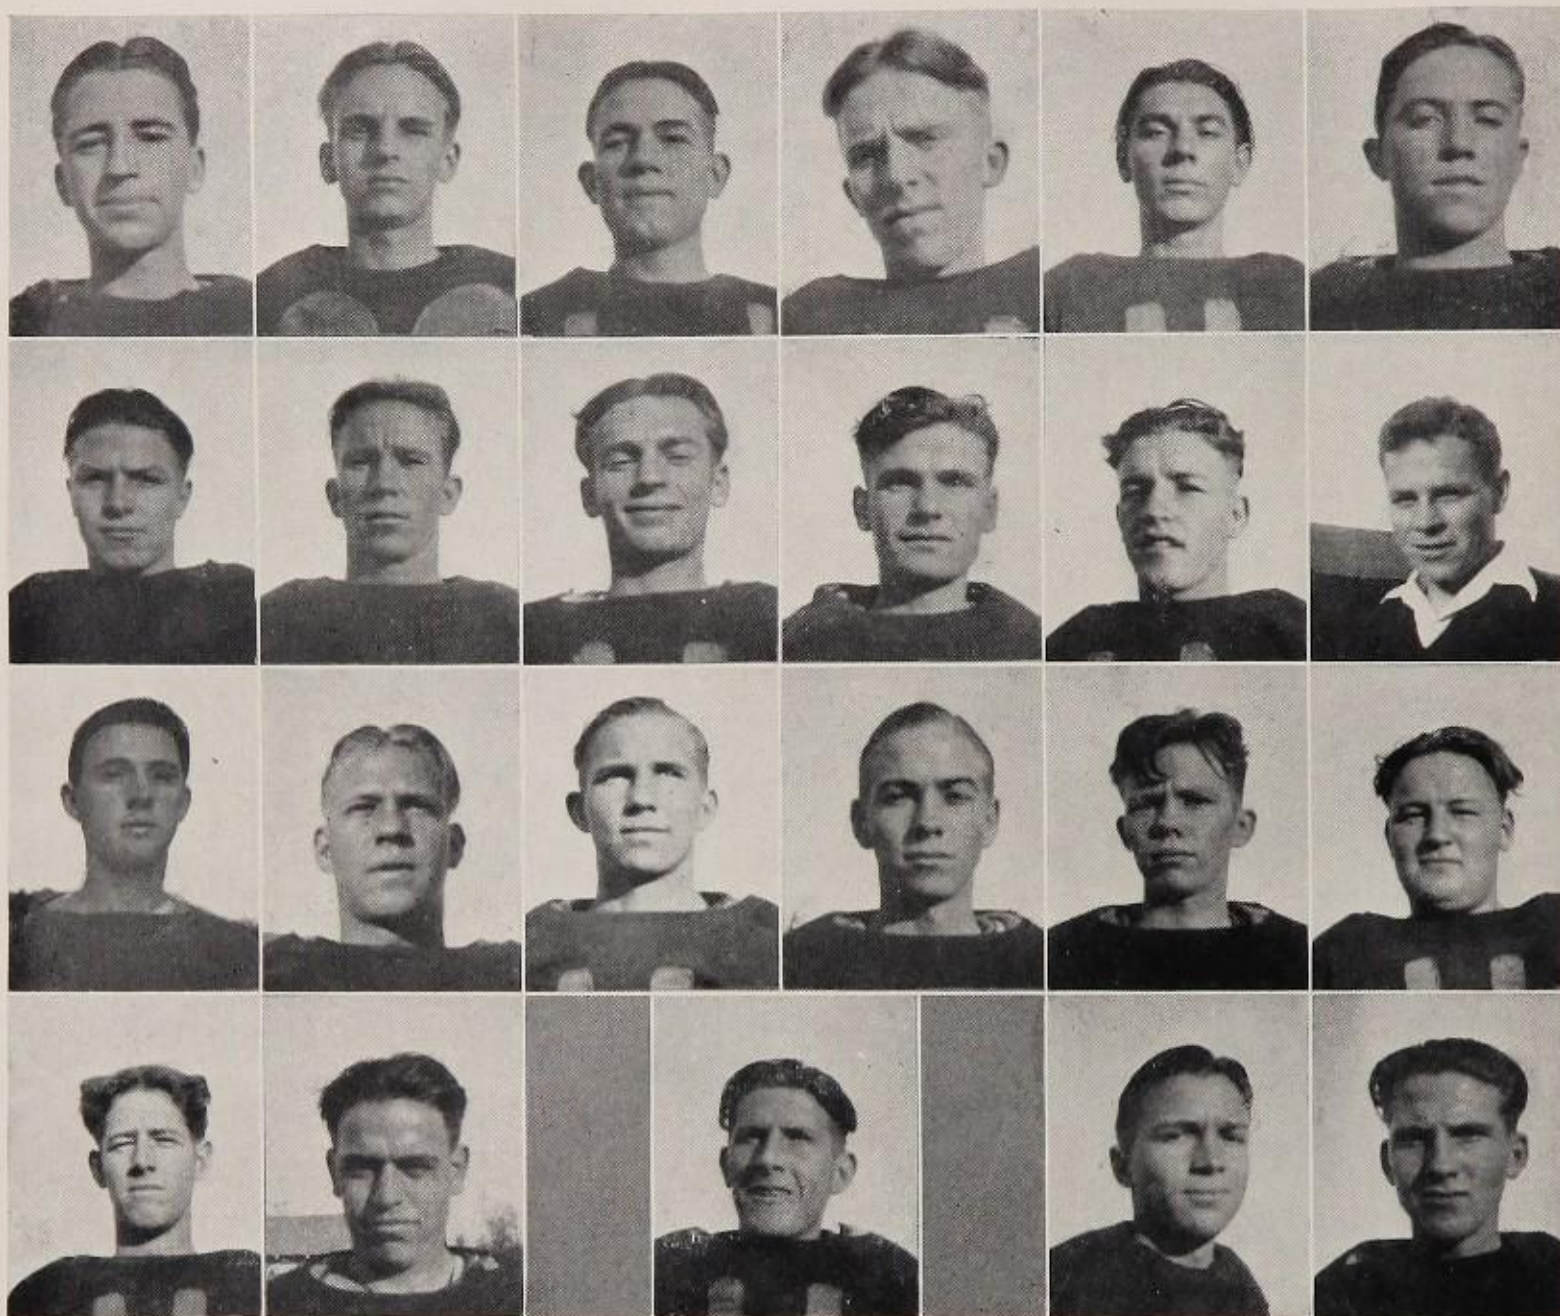

Although a member of the school band, Ames helped his school on the gridiron also by making the team.

MARION REID

Halfback

One of Robinson's most valuable men, very crafty, who could fill any backfield position.

BASKETBALL

Vieing closely with the 1927-28 gridiron record for excellence, the basketball record was exceptional. Fifteen regularly scheduled games and two tournaments were the work of this team, and out of these they won nine games and the state title. Starting with an 18-12 win over Mesa High School, the Coyotes went through a busy season, losing the valley championship, and then coming back a week later to grab the state championship, overcoming the same team which eliminated them from valley competition.

CAPTAIN CALDWELL

Not only was the Coyote team the leader in the valley competition, but it found out-of-state opposition to be easy prey on two occasions. In the annual out-of-state trip the 1928 team invaded a new court, that of the Las Cruces, New Mexico, High School, and drubbed the Bulldogs 26-18. Then on the next night Phoenix was taken into camp 24-11 by El Paso High School at El Paso but evened up matters in the return scrap by trimming the Tigers 23-20.

Although Phoenix High won and lost against the touted Mesa Jackrabbits, lost to and then won from Tucson High School, and defeated the strong Phoenix Indians, probably the greatest upset of the season was the manner in which Phoenix was ousted from the Valley tournament by Chandler and then came back to send the same Chandler quintet out of the state hoop tourney in the opening battle. After that Phoenix ploughed straight through to gain the state basketball title, with Miami High as runner-up.

BASKETBALL

OUTSTANDING 1928 HOOP BATTLES

When Phoenix High School went to Chandler to fight it out with the Wolves, the Coyote five was doped to lose by a wide margin. For the first two quarters the game was a hotly contested battle, and at the half the two teams left the floor for a ten-minute rest with Phoenix leading 12-11. Chandler supporters contended that their smooth forwards had not yet got started, but those fast men never received the chance, for Harry Coffman, Coyote forward, opened up and in the second half shot at the hoop just ten times, and six of those went through. The final score gave Phoenix a 28-12 victory.

Then on January 20 the Coyotes went down to Tucson to test the strength of the Badgers—and lost 24-23 after one of the closest, hardest fought battles of the season. Seventeen times the referee charged Phoenix players with personal fouls, many seemingly unjust, and it was the accuracy with which Tucson dropped in the free throws that gave them the victory. The next appearance of Phoenix in Tucson found the Coyotes grabbing the state title. Just eight days after their loss to the Badgers in Tucson, Phoenix met the same team on the Coyote court and administered a severe 22-19 drubbing.

Early in the season the Phoenix Indians had outspeeded and outshot the Coyotes to win 32-28. But two weeks later this same Redskin team had

CECIL MULLENEAUX
Guard

A husky casaba tosser who was a real worry to his opposition.

BLANTON DICK
Guard

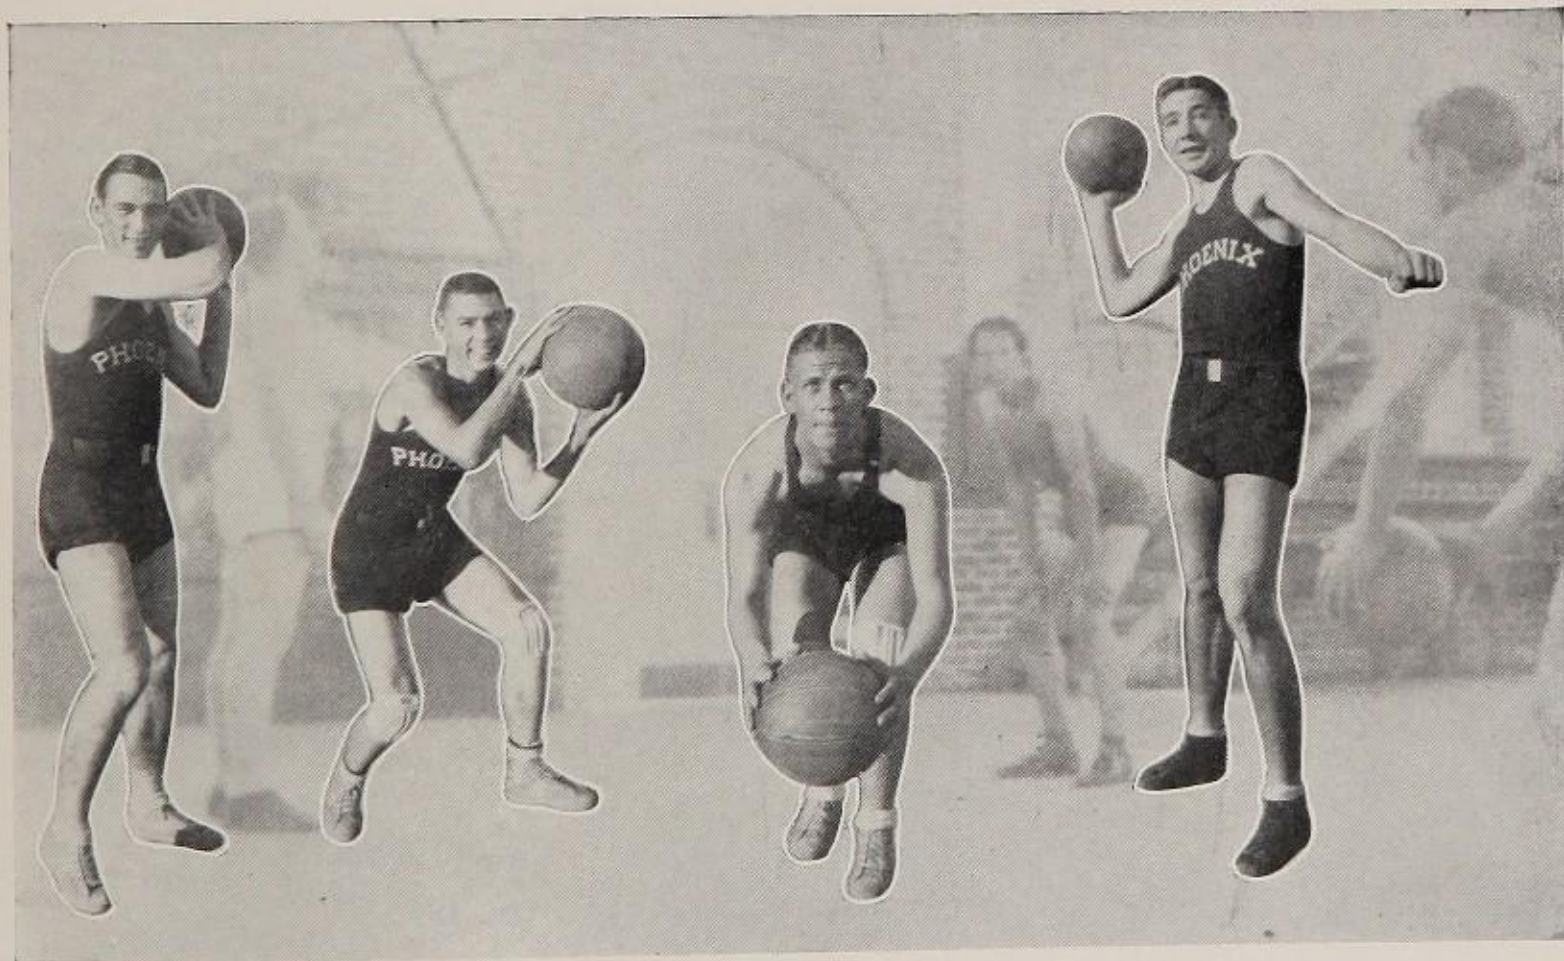

A fighting guard who usually put in a shot when needed.

HENRY LEIBER
Forward

Lots of fight, good shooting ability, and a real sport.

WILBUR CALDWELL
Captain, Guard

A stumbling-block for every forward who crossed the foul line.

tasted defeat at the hands of Phoenix High in a return game by a slim 18-17 score. The score see-sawed from the start and with less than a minute to play the Indians led 17-16. That last minute of fight was as fast and as exciting as ever seen in Phoenix, and just eleven seconds before the game ended, Dick, Coyote guard, slipped through the Indian offense and dropped in a pretty shot to give the Coyotes an 18-16 win.

The Valley Tournament was a real upset. Phoenix was favored to be on top when the tournament ended, not only because it was being played on the local court, but because Phoenix had the most imposing record of any team in the valley. Preliminary competition was easy, the Coyotes smoothly disposing of two minor teams. The Chandler players, however, had some difficulty with their first competition, but managed to struggle through to the semi-finals, where they were conceded little chance to win over Phoenix. But Chandler drubbed Phoenix, proceeding straight on through to the finals, where they exhibited their most ragged form to lose the valley title to Glendale.

Losers of the valley title, Phoenix went into rigorous training for the state tournament in Tucson. When pairings were made, Phoenix found itself matched in the first game with Chandler. With a giant send-off still ringing in its ears, the Coyote five meted out a severe trimming to Chandler and waded on through the tournament, winning each game by a lop-sided score, until they reached the finals. Here they met Miami, led the Panthers virtually all the game, found their lead slipping because of a giant Miami rally in the closing minutes of the game—and Phoenix finished with a 19-17 victory and the Arizona High School Basketball Championship.

EUGENE NAY
Center

His specialty long shots. Nay was one of the "crack" shooters.

JAMES COX
Forward

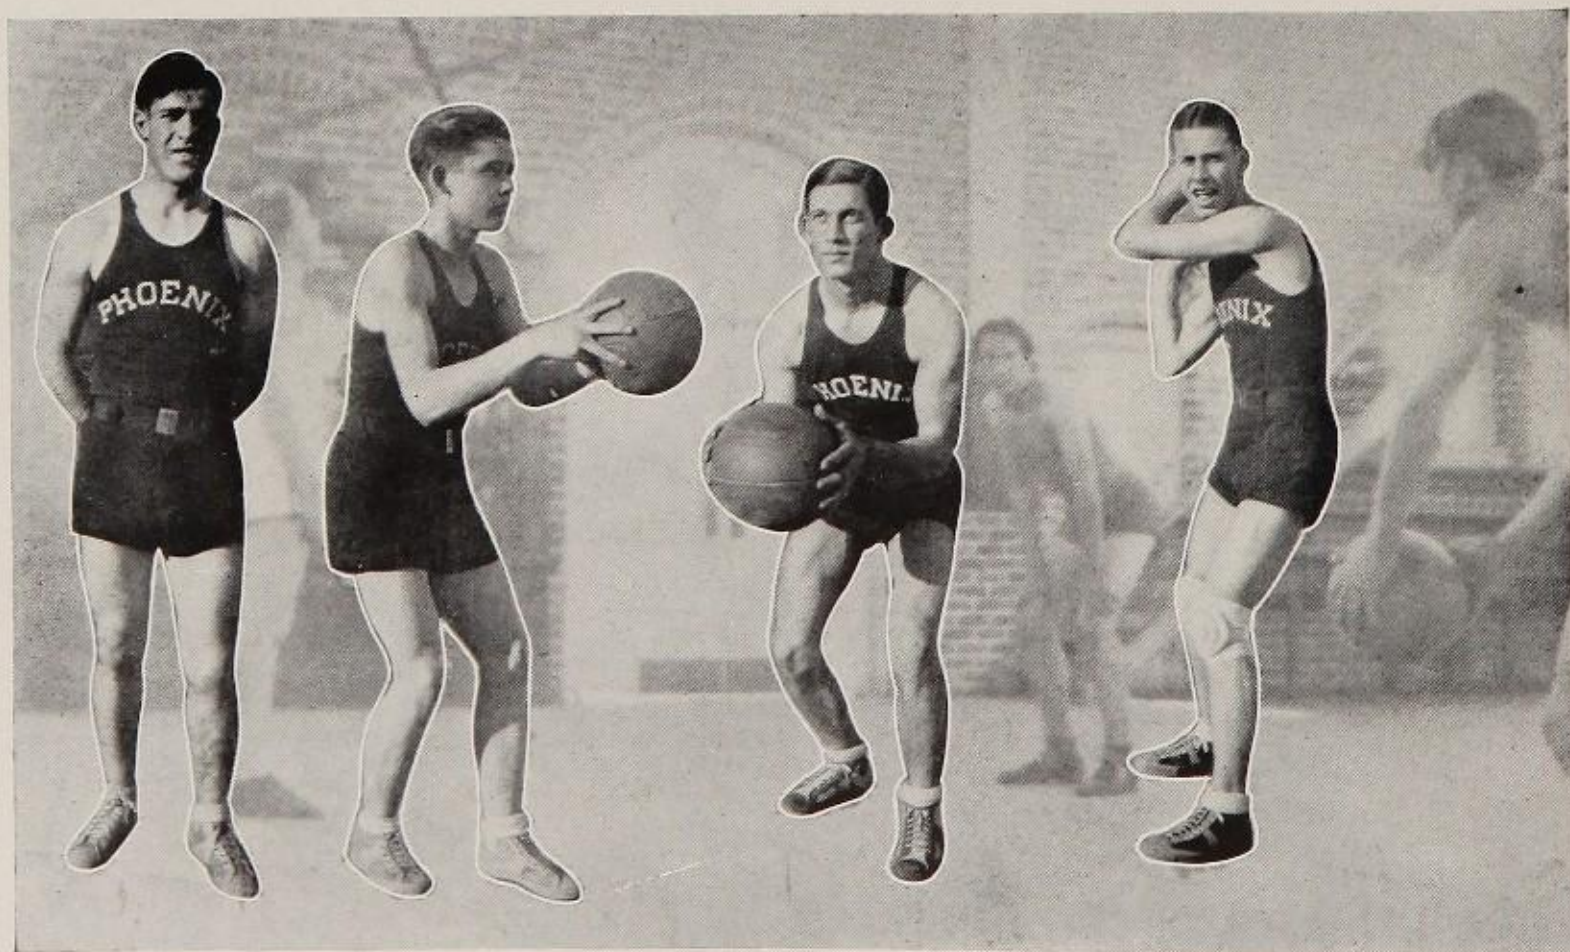

"Only a Freshman," yet he commandeered a place on the team.

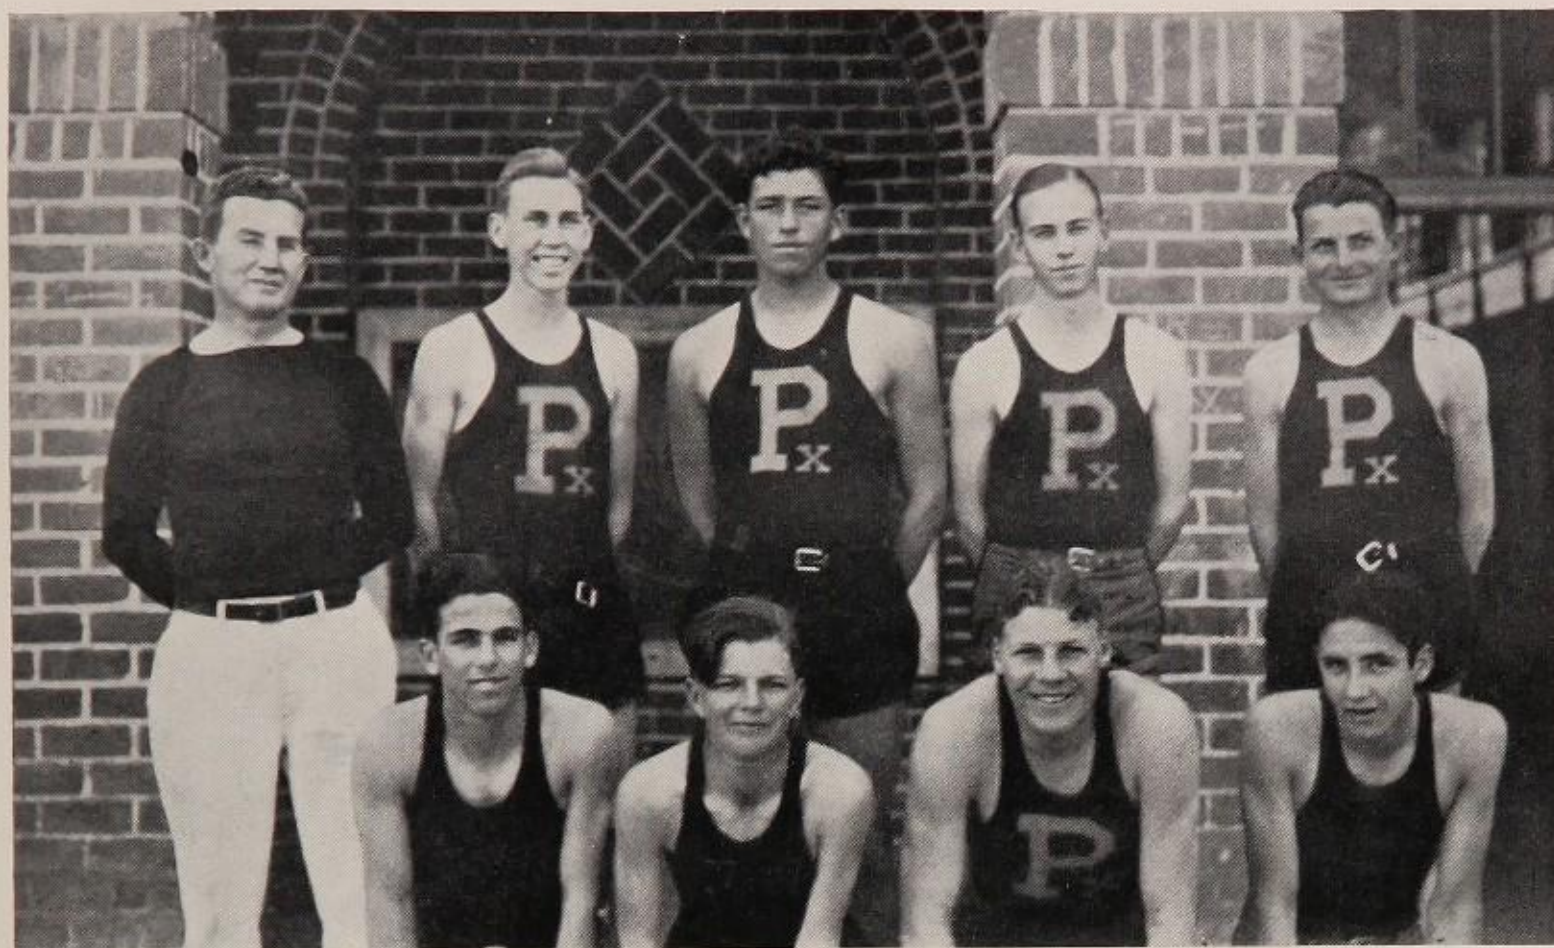

JOE WOODBRIDGE
Guard

One who could fill guard position almost as well as Caldwell.

HARRY COFFMAN
Forward

With an uncanny shot, the Nemesis of more than one opponent.

THE COYOTE PUPS

Another winning team was the Coyote Pups, the second team in basketball. At each home game and at all games in which Phoenix played in the valley, the Pups played the preliminary attraction and in nearly every instance they won. The second team battle was in several instances closer and more interesting than the scrap between the first teams.

The importance of the second team is not, however, so much in providing a preliminary attraction for the fans as to develop material for future Coyote teams. The effectiveness of this was evidenced this year when James Cox, a freshman, graduated from the second team to the first during the season and stayed in a forward position for the remaining games, including the out-of-state trip and the tournament battles. Much of the second team material this year will not be lost by graduation and will be invaluable to Coach R. R. Robinson next year, as it will have already had some experience on the floor. De Vore, a fast little forward, is only a freshman, as were Spalding and Evans. Turner was only a sophomore, and Cahill and Rieman will come back for next year's teams as seniors.

BASEBALL

Outstanding among Salt River Valley High School baseball teams, the Coyote nine enjoyed one of the most successful baseball seasons known to Phoenix Union High School. The regular season schedule was completed all in the Coyotes' favor for they won six out of seven games played. The right to compete in the state baseball tournament at Tucson during University Week also went to Phoenix High.

CAPTAIN GORMAN

Five out of six Salt River Valley opponents met certain defeat at the hands of the Phoenix Coyotes. Peoria, Tempe, Scottsdale, Buckeye and Glendale all lost to Phoenix by easy margins. Only the Mesa Jack-rabbits overpowered the Coyotes and it was in a ragged exhibition of baseball. Then Glendale defeated Mesa, and Phoenix in turn cleaned up on Glendale to even matters.

Coach Jesse McComb turned out a squad this year which played good baseball in streaks. Against hard competition they played wonderful baseball, but against a supposedly easy opponent they exhibited the most ragged kind of form. When battling Tempe they showed good form as against Scottsdale and Buckeye. Then Mesa won a close victory from Phoenix when the Coyotes literally tossed away the game on errors. Just a week later they played another game featured by errors to win from Peoria.

Then Glendale, supposedly the strongest high school nine in the valley, came to Phoenix to battle the Coyotes and Phoenix swamped them 7-2. Here they were against the strongest kind of competition, and the team played errorless baseball, smashing out many long drives.

But in all it was a great season with a beautiful record to look back on.

TEMPE

The Coyotes found Tempe an easy mark when they clashed with the Bulldog nine on the Tempe diamond in the opening tilt of the season. Starting with an easy edge, Phoenix added to it until, when the seventh inning was over, they had won a 15-6 victory.

The game was a slugging battle for Phoenix, as Coyote batters nicked Shamblin, Tempe hurler, for 14 hits and took plenty of free trips to first base to score those 15 runs. Two home runs by Phoenix men and one for Tempe featured the game. Mulleneaux smashed out one in the opening inning to start the scoring for Phoenix and Leiber circled the bases in the fifth inning. Collier, Tempe, made a circuit clout on Leiber's error in the sixth frame.

Mulleneaux filled the box for Phoenix in that first game and let Tempe down with eight hits, struck out seven, and walked three. Shamblin allowed 14 hits, walked eight, and struck out nine. Errors featured the play of both teams, Phoenix chalking up six and Tempe committing seven boots.

SCOTTSDALE

A 21-0 shut-out victory over Scottsdale High School was the next achievement of the Coyote nine. The game, the final scheduled battle away from the home diamond, was played at Scottsdale and the Phoenix team just ran wild, starting slow but opening up midway in the game with a batting barrage which cinched the game.

Dick hurled a pretty game for Phoenix, allowing Scottsdale only two hits and striking out eleven. Curtis, hurling for Scottsdale, could not equal the stellar work of Dick, and Phoenix collected 15 hits, a half-dozen walks, and only five men were retired by the strike-out route.

For the first three innings the game was close, and Scottsdale played good ball. But in the fourth Phoenix collected seven hits and five walks, and drove in eleven runs. First two walks, then four straight hits, two more walks, two more hits, another walk and still another hit, and Phoenix had piled up a margin which Scottsdale could never hope to overcome. Phoenix played practically errorless baseball.

BUCKEYE

Then Buckeye came to Phoenix to give the local nine its first battle on the home court—and Phoenix finished on the long end of a 17-5 score. Hitting freely and practically scoring at will, the Coyotes literally swamped Buckeye.

Coach Jesse McComb used his material freely, and by the end of the second inning Phoenix led 6-1, and when retired in the fourth they had increased that lead to ten runs. Then Buckeye rallied and pushed in four runs in the first of the fifth, but Phoenix tightened up and that ended Buckeye's scoring, while the Coyotes brought the contest to a close by batting in six more tallies.

While Hardy of Tempe allowed Phoenix eighteen hits, Dick and Mulleneaux, Phoenix hurlers, held Buckeye to four scratch hits. It was in the fifth inning, when things were going fine, that Mulleneaux weakened in his hurling, and Buckeye batters began to hit, walk and score. Before McComb jerked him four men had crossed the home plate. Dick finished the game by allowing only a single hit.

BEN SPALDING Outfield

Prominent in sophomore class activities, Spaulding also made a place on the baseball nine as a valuable fielder.

ELMER RIEMAN Second base

Unexcelled at second base, his value to the team was shown by the fact that he covered the sack in all games.

BLANTON DICK Pitcher

When at his best, this boy retired his opposition with ease. Worked well with the 1928 Coyote pitching staff.

MARION REID Outfield

Another of the players who possessed qualities for an outfield position. Is speedy and plays with sureness.

TUCSON

Probably the greatest victory of the season was won from Tucson High School on the local stadium field. Phoenix had won three straight games from minor Salt River Valley teams, but was not conceded much chance of winning from Tucson. An imposing Badger line-up walked out on the Phoenix field and took a 12-3 trimming, being outscored and outplayed from the start and at no time making the showing anticipated.

A big share of the credit for the victory goes to Murphy, the Phoenix hurler. The little Freshman stepped onto the mound unheralded, facing one of the strongest opponents of the season, and for six innings pitched a no-hit, no-run game; baffling strong Tucson batters with his speedy delivery. Coach McComb, not wishing to overwork his little pitcher, replaced him with Dick and this boy allowed Tucson but two hits in the remaining three innings.

While Tucson was held to two hits and three runs, Phoenix succeeded in piling up twelve runs, six of them in the second inning, and in collecting thirteen hits. Errors were scarce in the play of each team.

MESA

In its most ragged game of the season, the Coyote nine lost to Mesa on the Phoenix diamond, 7-5. The Jackrabbits brought to Phoenix a strong team, conceded an even chance to win over the Coyotes. In the first three innings the two stars of this team, Blackburn, second baseman, and Ferguson, highly touted twirler, "blew up" and just handed the victory to Phoenix. Then Phoenix returned it by totaling up eight boots in the remaining four innings.

HERSCHEL HAWKINS Outfield

with a strong, determined spirit and his baseball talent, Hawkins has several abilities as a fielder.

HARRY COFFMAN Outfield

New to Phoenix Hi, Coffman made a sensation in basketball, then made a place on the nine as reserve fielder.

BARNEY CAHILL Outfield

Probably not so good in baseball as at putting the shot, Cahill was, however, a good field reserve.

FRED SCHADE Outfield

The slugger of the Coyote nine, rivalled only by Mulleneaux, Schade's season batting average is a high one.

Blackburn muffed the first three balls to come his way. Good backing, however, kept Phoenix from counting on the errors. With Mesa leading 2-0 at the end of the first, Ferguson lost control of the ball and walked four men in the second inning to give Phoenix its first run. He then struck out the next man to face him with the bases full.

Phoenix went to bat in the third inning on the short end of the score by a single run—and Ferguson walked enough Phoenix men to give the Coyotes two runs and the lead. Then he again retired Phoenix with the bases full. Next inning Phoenix popped out enough hits to score two more and led 5-2. In the next three innings Phoenix committed enough boots to allow Mesa to score five runs and win the game.

PEORIA

Again the Coyotes played ragged baseball to win over Peoria 16-9. While the visitors chalked up only three boots, Phoenix counted eight to aid Peoria in driving in nine runs, an excellent showing for a team of Peoria's caliber against as strong an opponent as the Coyote squad.

For the first inning Peoria played on even terms with Phoenix, batting in three runs in the first to equal Phoenix's three. Then Phoenix drew away by opening up a batting barrage which pushed in five runs in the second and six in the third while Peoria could add only one run each inning.

The game was a slugging battle with Phoenix easily on top as to hits. Murphy hurled a good brand of ball for Phoenix, allowing Peoria only five hits, but innumerable Phoenix errors ruined what might have been a near shut-out victory for Phoenix.

BUSTER DAVIES Shortstop

Small, yet fast and accurate in his play, Davies was a valuable asset to the team at short-stop.

HENRY LEIBER Third base

Handled an important position well, covered third sack with ease and maintained a fair batting average.

CHESTER MURPHY Pitcher

Another of those spectacular freshmen. This one was a sensation on the mound for the 1928 Coyote nine.

FRED REID Second base

Capable in his play at second base, and a finer sport would be difficult to find. Fast, smooth and a fighter.

TRACK

Starting the season by tackling and drubbing the strong Phoenix Indian School squad, then losing to Tucson on the Badger court only to best them a week later in competition with a dozen other Arizona high schools in the 1928 Greenway Field Day meet, the Coyote track team probably never enjoyed a more successful season. With plenty of green but interested material, Coach R. R. Robinson constructed a team which stood in the foreground as the strength and class of Arizona high schools.

CAPTAIN JOSLIN

Individual stars played a large part in the many Phoenix track victories this season and Joslin, Coyote captain, was always classed with the best. His specialty was the javelin toss, and for the first two meets he failed to hit his stride, falling short of 150 feet in his tosses. Then in the Greenway meet he opened up and sent the spear sailing out 163 feet, a new Greenway record and about equal to the state record. His performances in other meets and in other events were nearly as good.

Then there was Harry Tompkins, the sensational Freshman miler, who made better time than local high school athletes have chalked up for the gruelling mile in many years. He usually ran it in about state record time. There was also the dashing, slim Dick Joy. This boy was spectacular in the 220 dash, the high and broad jumps, and against the Indians grabbed high point honors of the meet. Another star was Cahill, discus-throwing high school champ, who did outstanding work.

It was a season of tough competition and many victories for Coach R. R. Robinson and his husky group of athletes.

INDIAN MEET

Easily upsetting the dope, the Phoenix High School track team meted out a severe 76-41 trimming to the husky Phoenix Indians in the first dual meet of the season. The Indians looked slow in most events and found themselves shut out in many. Dick Joy was the outstanding performer of the meet, taking high point honors with 14 points, winning the 220 dash, the broad jump, second in the high jump and third in the century. Cahill tossed the discus 122½ feet, bettering the state record by more than six feet.

Following are the results:

120 High hurdles—Griner (P), Lentz (P), Cough (I). Time, 17 2/5 sec.

WILBUR CALDWELL

Careless in his form, Web nevertheless always set good marks in the high jump and in the shot put.

EDWIN MORSE

A steady, hard-working pole vaulter. Often goes "up in the air" and has set many good marks this season.

HOWARD JOSLIN

Captain

Truly a real captain. Joslin had the interests of every team-mate at heart. Outstanding '28 javelin tosser.

MILTON SMITH

Husky half-miler who, with the little Morris, brought home the bacon a good many times this year.

High jump—Bread (I), Joy (P), Caldwell (P). 5 feet, 6½ inches.
 220-yard dash—Joy (P), Luman (P), Finley (P). Time, 23 4/5 seconds.
 880 relay—Phoenix High won, Indians second.

TUCSON MEET

The fighting Coyotes met their first track defeat of the season at the hands of Tucson High when they invaded the Badger field for a dual meet. Tucson climaxed a tight, hard-fought battle for top position by taking the javelin toss, one event in which Phoenix was favored to "clean up," to win the meet, 63-54.

Features of the meet were the mile run, won by Tompkins of Phoenix, who easily outdistanced Badger competition; the javelin toss, which was the greatest upset of the day, and the showing made by Murphy, Tucson captain, who won the 100, 220 and 440 dashes and took part in the relay.

The results were as follows:

100-yard dash—Murphy (T), Frazier (P), Luman (P). Time, 10 1/5 sec.
 Mile run—Tompkins (P), Farrell (T), Wall (T). Time, 5 min., 4 1/5 sec.

 220-yard dash—Murphy (T), Curtis (T), Kerr (T). Time, 23 1/5 sec.
 120 high hurdles—Wollard (T), Lentz (P), Griner (P). Time, 17 1/5 sec.

KARL MOODY

The Coyotes' best pole vaulter. Moody was invaluable to the team and proved that size means nothing.

JOE WOODBRIDGE

Putting the shot was Joe's work, and he did it with complete satisfaction. Also tossed the javelin well.

CECIL MULLENEAUX

Lots of "weight" for the weight part of the Coyote team, Mulleneaux put the shot, tossed the javelin and discus.

PHIL MAXWELL

Maxwell made a good record this year; shows much promise of developing into valuable future material.

Pole vault—Stowe (T), Kusianovich (T), Moody (P) and Morse (P) tied for third. Height, 10 feet, 6 inches.

Discus—Cahill (P), O'Dowd (T), Mulleneaux (P). Distance, 127 feet, 3 inches. (NOTE: Cahill unofficially broke the state record for the discus by 11 feet).

* Broad jump—Joy (P), Wallace (T), Joslin (P). Distance, 20 ft., 1 in.

880-yard relay—Won by Phoenix (Lentz, Luman, Frazier and Joy); Tucson second (DeWolf, Seigle, McClure and Kerr). Time, 1 minute, 36 3/5 sec.

GREENWAY FIELD DAY

Phoenix Union High School athletes established four new Greenway records and finished the 1928 Greenway Field Day meet with highest honors, totaling 51 1/2 points to Tucson's 35. Mesa and Tucson staged a close battle for second place, Mesa finishing third with a total of 32 points.

HERBERT HAWKINS

Plenty of fighting spirit for the mile. Good form and lots of endurance were Hawkins' qualities.

DICK FRAZIER

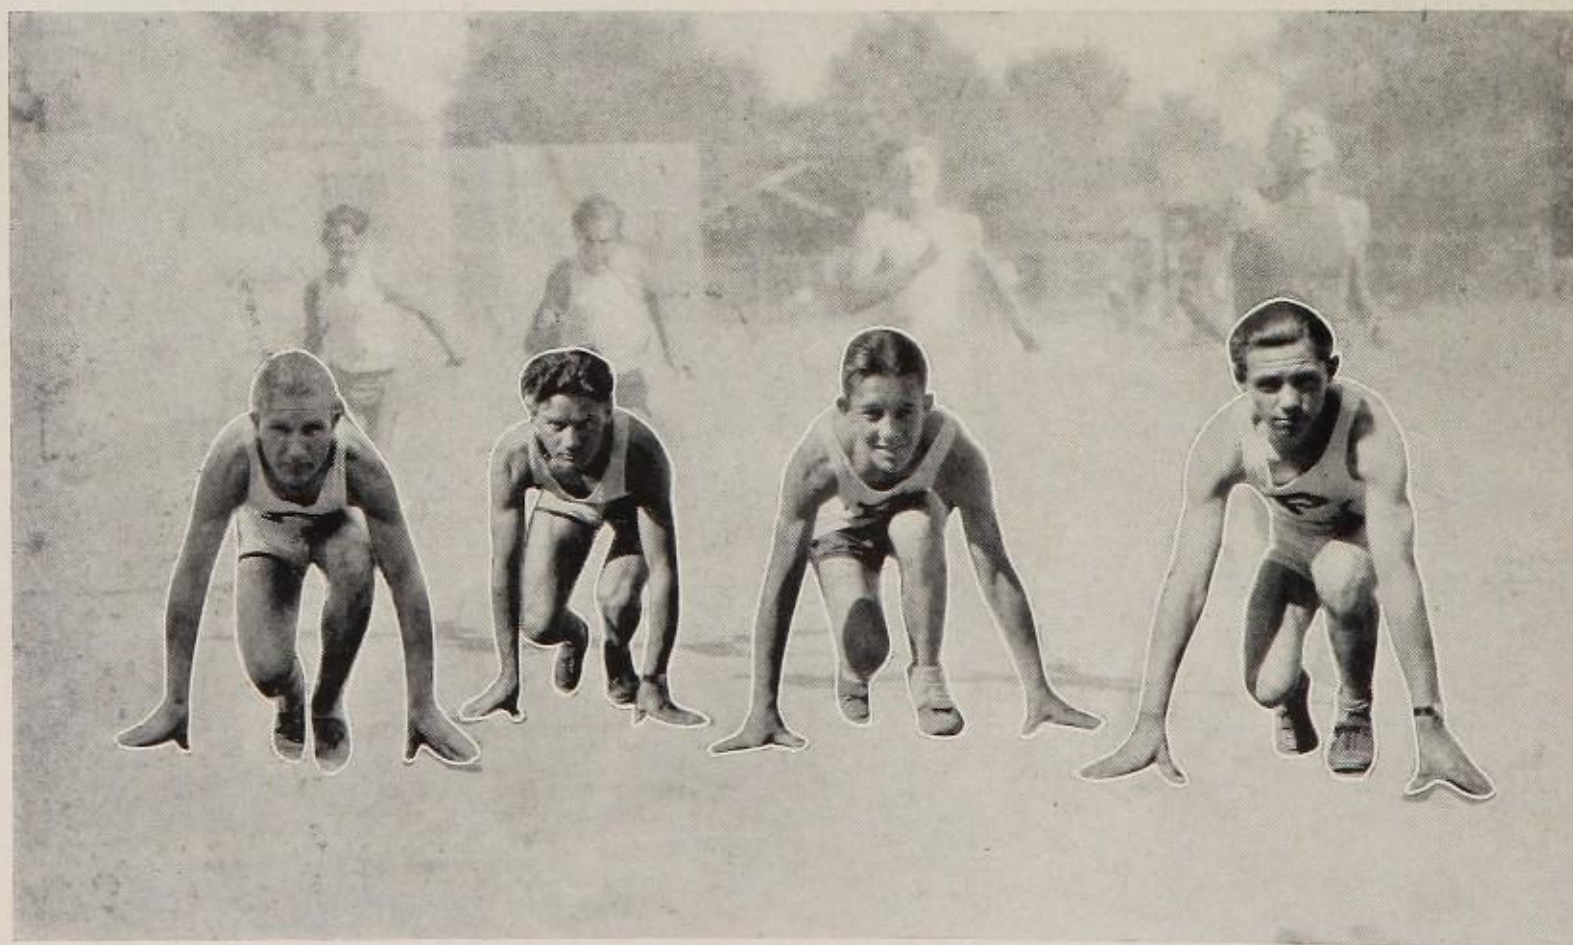

One of the foremost Coyote 100-yard dash and 220 low hurdle men. Beautiful form for the low hurdles.

MIKE MORRIS

The half mile was his specialty; and, despite the fact that he was one of the smallest on the field, fast.

FRED LUMAN

Another of the speedy Coyote dash men. Form bothered Luman but little, and he always finished with the leaders.

For seven hours the three strongest high school track teams in the state battled neck and neck for top position in points. First Tucson lead, then Phoenix, and Mesa was always pushing both. But along toward the end of the meet Phoenix High won the mile when Harry Tompkins, the sensational Freshman miler, sprinted into first place after lingering behind in fifth place until within 220 yards of the finish. That win put Phoenix High in the lead and they were never headed. The race was the best of the day.

A new Greenway record of 4:48 $\frac{3}{5}$ for the mile was set by Tompkins, a new discus record of 122 feet by Cahill, a new javelin record of 163 feet by Joslin, and a new 880 relay record of 1:35 $\frac{4}{5}$ by Joslin, Luman, Frazier and Joy.

Following are the results:

Shot put—O'Dowd, Tucson; Vernie, Mesa; Sirrine, Mesa; Caldwell, Phoenix. 43 feet, 8 inches.

Javelin—Joslin, Phoenix; Weimer, Tucson; Woodbridge, Phoenix; K. Hatch, Chandler. 163 feet.

Pole vault—H. Passey, Mesa; P. Kusianovich, Tucson; K. Moody, Phoenix, and J. Rummel, Bisbee, tied for third. 10 feet, 9 inches.

Discus—Cahill, Phoenix; O'Dowd, Tucson; Cummins, Douglas; Mulleneaux, Phoenix. 122 feet.

100-yard dash—Murphy, Tucson; Luman, Phoenix; Cole, Ajo; Hohstadt, Douglas. Time, 10 $\frac{3}{5}$ seconds.

ELLSWORTH GRINER

This boy upset the dope in more than one instance to win
the hurdle events.
Plenty of speed
and good form.

HERBERT FINLEY

As a 440 man it was difficult to surpass this fleet-footed boy with his fighting spirit and powerful stride.

DICK JOY

The fastest, prettiest running 220
man on the 1928
squad. Also an excellent high and broad jump man.

JOE LENTZ

Another of the fast, skillful hurdle men possessed
by this year's Coyote squad. A frequent winner.

Mile—Tompkins, Phoenix; Andrews, Mesa; Sanchez, Jerome; Winsor, Chandler. Time, 4 minutes, 48 $\frac{3}{5}$ seconds.

Broad jump—Joy, Phoenix; H. Passey, Mesa; Joslin, Phoenix; Cole, Ajo. 20 feet, 11 inches.

120 high hurdles—Cummins, Douglas; Steverson, Mesa; Hubbard, Prescott; Lentz, Phoenix. Time, 17 $\frac{2}{5}$ seconds.

220-yard dash—Curtis, Tucson; Luman, Phoenix; Joy, Phoenix; Kerr, Tucson. Time, 23 $\frac{1}{5}$ seconds.

High jump—Passey, Mesa; Eaves, Mesa; Hubbard, Prescott, Caldwell and Maxwell of Phoenix tied for fourth; 5 feet, 7 inches.

440 dash—Murphy, Tucson; Hohstadt, Douglas; R. Ortega, Chandler; Finley, Phoenix. Time, 53 $\frac{2}{5}$ seconds.

880 relay—Phoenix won. Time 1:35 $\frac{4}{5}$. Team composed of Joslin, Luman, Frazier and Joy.

HARRY TOMPKINS

Only a freshman, yet the most sensational mile runner in the state. Always around state record time.

ROBERT MACON

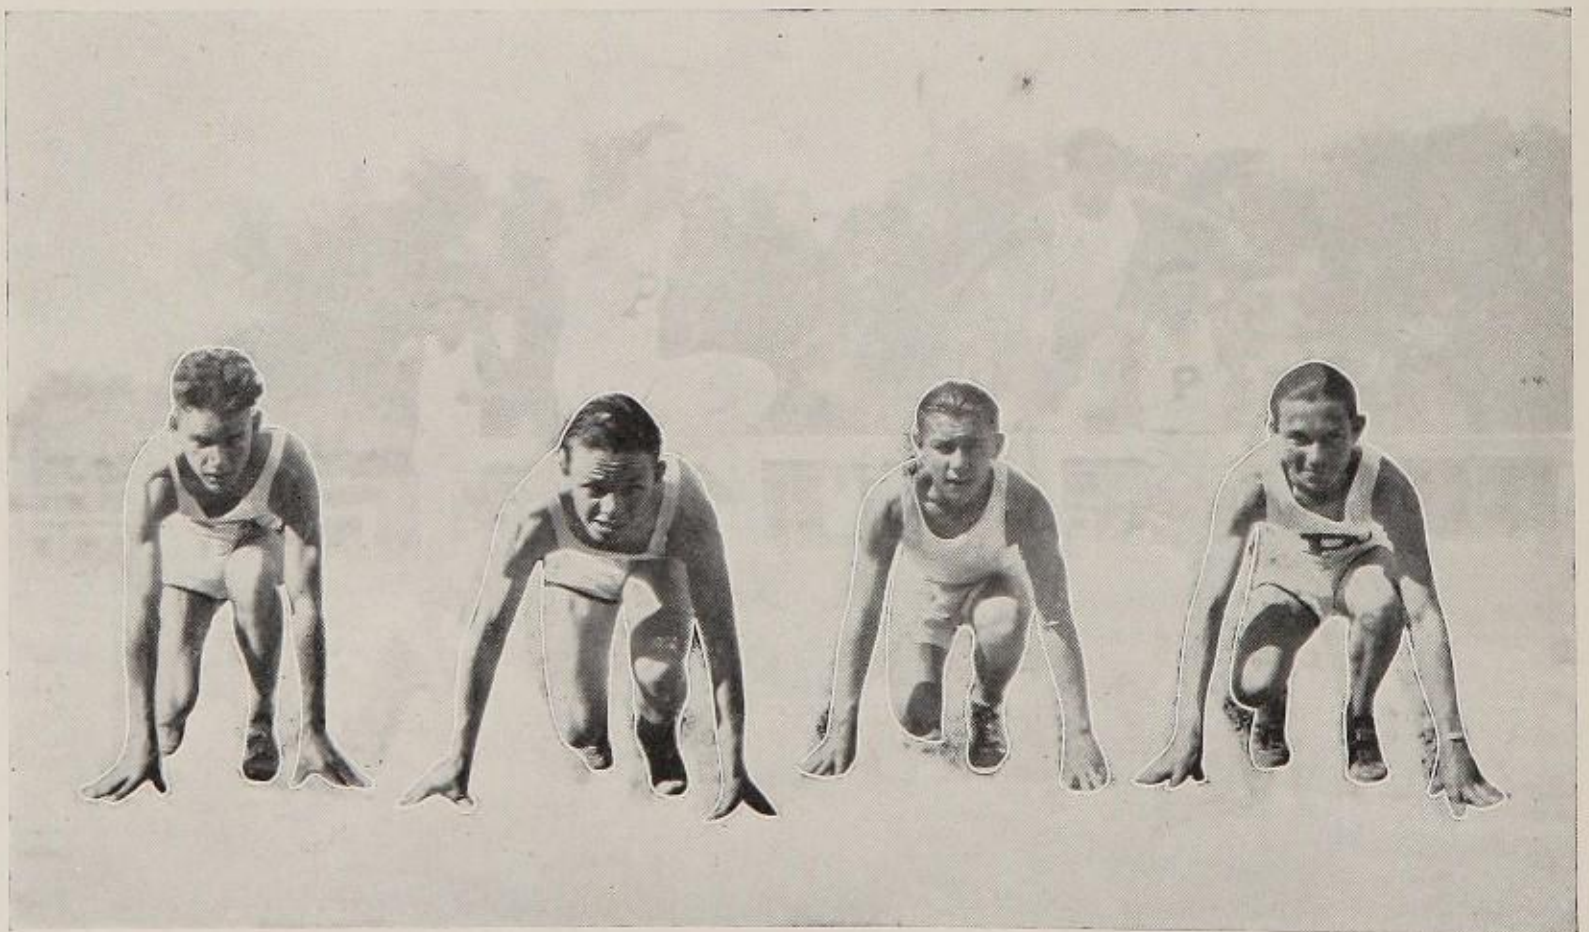

Although not quite so fast as some of his team-mates, Macon showed excellent form on the hurdles.

ROBERT SCRIVENS

A miler who possessed one of the greatest qualities of success, the ability to stick to his work.

GERALD McLAIN

Tompkins, Scrivens and McLain usually threw a scare into competition before the start of the mile.

VALLEY MEET

Five Valley high school track and field records fell in the Tenth Annual Tempe Teachers' College Invitational high school meet this year, and two were shattered by Phoenix boys. Phoenix finished on top to take the Valley championship against the combined competition of Mesa and Tucson. Phoenix amassed 67 points, Mesa 54, and Tucson 21.

The first record to fall was in the high school mile, first event on the program. After three and a half fast laps with Andrews of Mesa setting the pace and McLain, Phoenix, trailing at his heels, Tompkins, Phoenix mile sensation, opened up with one of his beautiful sprints which has carried before it the fastest mile competition in the state, and breasted the tape a few feet ahead of Andrews to win the event and set a new Valley record of 4 minutes, 46 seconds—two-fifths of a second faster than the state record.

Cahill, Phoenix discus tosser, smashed the second record when he hurled the disc out 126 feet, 8 inches; bettering the former record established in 1925 by more than six feet. Cahill's record was officially recognized.

Other records made were in the broad jump when Sirrine of Mesa leaped 22 feet, 1 inch, and in the high jump when Eaves of Mesa cleared the crossbar at 5 feet, 8 $\frac{3}{4}$ inches, slightly less than two inches higher than the previous record. Tucson High School won the 880 relay over Phoenix by a close margin, setting a new record of 1:34 $\frac{2}{5}$ seconds.

Following are the results:

Maddock, Cate, Messinger, Purcell, Mickle, Bradshaw, Wintz, Madison.

TENNIS

Winning every match on a hard schedule, the Coyote net and racket men this season surpassed all previous records. Playing a brand of tennis seldom seen in high school circles, they met practically no dangerous opposition. Only one opponent, the Tucson Evans School, had the success to take a single match.

The team is chosen by ladder play, a continual round-robin, and the players to receive a letter must have won two inter-school matches and be ranked among the first five.

Louis Messinger, Senior champion, elected captain when Francis Beck, previous captain, left school in the middle of the year, is a veteran player. He has played with the team three years, this year playing first man.

Bill Maddock, Junior runner-up, was champion of his class when a Freshman. He played third man with the team this year, and fourth man last year.

Charles Mickle, Junior champion, is also a veteran player, playing second man this year, and third last year.

Gray Madison, Senior, was last year's captain. He represented the school during University Week last year and played fourth man this year.

Harry Wintz, Junior, played fifth man. He has not had the experience of the first four players but plays a spectacular game.

Henry Cate, Senior, playing a steady, formidable game, ably held down sixth place.

Mike Purcell, Sophomore captain, showed himself a dangerous opponent to any of the other men and played seventh man.

Hermann Bradshaw, Junior, played in the beginners' class last year, but stepped into the eighth place this year.

Other players on the team were Dick Bacharach, Bob Jerauld, Louis Evans, all of whom changed places with each other and Bradshaw all year.

INTRA-MURAL SPORTS

One of the greatest factors in the building of future athletic teams is intra-mural athletics. Many an athlete on one of the Coyote 1928 athletic teams owes his success to intra-mural athletics. One example of the effectiveness of intra-mural sports in building athletes is Barney Cahill, the Coyote track star who set new state records in tossing the discus this year. Cahill started in intra-mural athletics three years ago.

This year intra-mural athletics, under the supervision of several capable coaches drafted from the faculty of Phoenix Union High School, has enjoyed what is probably its most successful season in history. An intra-mural football tournament between three elevens, an intra-mural basketball tourney between an even dozen teams, a Freshman-Sophomore intra-mural track meet and an intra-mural baseball tournament engaged in by a half dozen teams, composed 1928 intra-mural sports. Each was an instant success.

FOOTBALL

The intra-mural grid championship went to "Slick" Smith's eleven after a half-dozen hard-fought battles against the teams captained and coached by Bill Samuels and "Cotton" Rieman. The final game gave Smith's team a 19-0 victory and the school title. The Smith victory was an upset, for this team was not conceded a chance to win the three-game series against Rieman's eleven.

BASKETBALL

Intra-mural basketball this year found twelve teams competing for the intra-mural school title, and there were at least one hundred battles between these twelve teams before the titleholder was finally decided, and in this tournament the final result was an upset. More than a hundred boys turned out to play on the teams, each team being composed of nine members. The teams were: the Fighting Five, which finished in top position in the season schedule but lost in the tournament; All Stars, Cardinals, Wildcats, Midgets, Speeders, Bulldogs, Kiote Pups, Mudhens, Giants, Flying Eagles, and Yanks.

The Midgets, captained by their two hundred-pound guard, Bill Riley, stepped out to claim the championship by defeating the Fighting Five and All Stars in the championship tournament. This team was presented with a trophy on Honor Day. The entire intra-mural league was under the coaching work of Coach E. A. Brock and the success of the league was due to his efficient management.

TRACK

Intra-mural track this year was in the form of a Freshman-Sophomore track meet, which brought out about fifty lower class candidates and plenty of class competition. The Freshmen took the meet by a slim margin, 65½ to 63, the result being in doubt until the final count was made.

The benefits of this athletic event were twofold. In the first place it interested a large number of lower classmen in track and field events by matching them against competition of their own caliber. No members of the school team were allowed to compete, so the competition was not heavy. It promoted class rivalry and gave the boy who is not yet experienced enough to make a place for himself on one of the school teams a chance to compete. In the second place the meet uncovered a great deal of talent which, within the next two years, will be very valuable if developed in the right manner, and Coach R. R. Robinson will see that it is.

BASEBALL

Intra-mural baseball also enjoyed a successful season this year with a half-dozen teams engaged in a round-robin tournament to decide school championship. About seventy-five boys turned out, chose captains, formed teams, and drew up a schedule involving the playing of several games apiece and then a tournament. Baseball was under the direction of Coach Roby Goff. At the time this section of the PHOENICIAN went to press the winners had not been decided.

TENNIS

Charles Mickle, Junior, won the school tennis championship in the semester class tournaments, and Louis Messinger, Senior, took the championship for the second semester. Louis Messinger won the Senior tournament with Henry Cate runner-up. Charles Mickle won the Junior tournament with Francis Beck as runner-up; Mike Purcell took Sophomore honors with Joe Melczer runner-up; and Fred Byers took the Freshman championship, with Heard runner-up. The Junior and Sophomore champions defeated the Senior and Freshman champions respectively. The Juniors defeated the Sophomores for the school championship.

Results of the tournaments for the second semester were: Messinger, Senior champion, Gray Madison runner-up; Mickle, Junior champion, Bill Maddock runner-up; Purcell, Sophomore champion, Bob Jerauld runner-up; Herman Inderlied, Freshman champion, Junior Lawrence runner-up.

The first round-robin ended with Bill Maddock, first; Frank Beck, second; Crouse, third; Purcell, fourth; Wintz, fifth; Smith, sixth; Waters, seventh, and R. C. Moore, eighth.

The second round-robin ended with: First team, Messinger, Madison, Mickle, Maddock, Wintz; second team, Purcell, Henry Cate, Bacharach, Jerauld, Moore, Evans, Bradshaw.

Dooley, Record, Dyer, Taylor, Moore, Judson.

GIRLS' TENNIS

Phoenix Union High School, which came undefeated through every match this year, can boast of a Southern State champion tennis team.

In the first match of the season, played with Chandler, Marian Taylor won first singles 6-0, 6-1, Eunice Record won second singles 6-1, 6-3, and Marian Taylor and Eunice Record won doubles 6-2, 6-2.

In the return match with Chandler, Marian Taylor won first singles 6-0, 6-1, Jeannette Judson won second singles 6-0, 8-6, and Marian Taylor and Eunice Record won doubles 6-2, 6-1.

At the Greenway Field Meet Elimination Tournament on April 7, Marian Taylor won first singles from Mesa, Chandler and Tempe. Eunice Record won second singles from the same schools, and Jeannette Judson and Mary Dooley won doubles.

At the Greenway Field Meet, Marian Taylor won first singles from Globe, Eunice Record won second singles, and Jeannette Judson and Mary Dooley won doubles.

The first team this year is composed of Marian Taylor, Captain; Eunice Record, Jeannette Judson, and Mary Dooley.

Evelin, Nelson, Brooks, Cahill, Roby

GIRLS' SWIMMING

This is the fourth year for swimming in Phoenix Union High School. Classes are held at the Y. W. C. A. for about a month after school starts and a month before school is out. The classes are divided in a group for the advanced students and a class for the beginners. Four tests are given, each giving one hundred points toward a letter.

At the close of the season a swimming meet is held between the classes. The events of the meet are diving, plunges, trudgeon, back and side strokes for form—60-foot dash, four lengths of the pool and the relay. The Sophomores won the meet this year. The swimming team chosen from the girls taking part in the swimming meet is composed this year of Annemarie Evelin, Betty Brooks, Dorothy Roby, Helen Nelson, and Elizabeth Cahill.

Wills, Richards, Pinson, Nelson, Von Kelterborn, Record.

GIRLS' VOLLEYBALL

Volleyball was the first sport of the season for the girls in Phoenix Union High School, and about seventy-five girls, many of whom were Freshmen, came out for practice.

After about four weeks of practice, the class tournament was held, the Juniors winning after a close game with the Seniors. Those who played on the Junior team were: Mary Blaine, Cynthia Cosby, Regna Harris, Roba Pinson, Mae Record, Frances Richards, Myrtle Sheridan, and Virginia Wills.

Several games were played with the boys' team to give the girls practice. The All Star team was chosen after the class tournament was over. Those on the All Star team were: Roba Pinson, Virginia Wills, Frances Richards, Dorothea Nelson, Dorothy La Nier, Eunice Record, Clara Von Kelterborn, Mary Blaine, and Marie Ames.

Joslin, Pinson, Fisher, Blaine, Ames, Evelin

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Fifty girls, of whom about one-third were Freshmen, turned out for basketball practice at the beginning of the year. Because there were not enough courts for all, the Seniors and Sophomores practiced on Monday and Wednesday, the Juniors and Seniors on Tuesday and Thursday. After four weeks of practice, the class tournament was played. This was won by the Juniors after a very close game with the Seniors. Those who played on the Junior team were: Roba Pinson and Francis Richards, forwards; Florence Remington and Ethel Fisher, centers; and Myrtle Sheridan and Mary Blaine, guards.

After the tournament the following all-star team was chosen: Roba Pinson and Marie Ames, forwards; Annemarie Evelin and Ethel Fisher, centers; Mary Blaine and Emma Joslin, guards.

Back Row: L. Nelson, LaNier, M. Ames, Pinson. Fifth Row: Siken, Jackson, Joslin, Buckley, D. Ames. Fourth Row: Hyder, Knight, Hamontree, Sterns, Easchief, Eldon. Third Row: K. Sanders, Speck, E. GIRLS' BASEBALL

Baseball is a very popular sport with the girls of Phoenix Union High School. This year about fifty girls, many of whom were exceptionally good players, reported for practice.

The first three weeks of the season were spent in practice and the last two weeks were used for the class tournament. The Seniors and Juniors were great rivals this year, and the tournament games proved very interesting.

The All-Star team each year is chosen after the class tournament is over. The All-Star team had not been picked at the time this section of the PHOENICIAN went to press, but there were at least four girls out for each berth.

Four of last year's All-Star team were back and it was probable that they would make the team again this year. They are: Marie Ames, Grace Kurtz, Edna Sanders, and Dorothea Nelson.

Miss Scott was coach for the Juniors and Freshmen, and Miss Jack coached the Seniors and Sophomores.

Pinson, Gieseke, Evelin, Hopkins, Ames

GIRLS' TRACK

Many girls came out for Track this year and each place was closely contested. In the annual track meet between the classes the Sophomore class proved supreme when it totaled thirty-one points to win a hard-fought race from the Juniors. The five girls who, by piling up the largest number of points, won the first team were: Gieseke, Evelin, Hopkins, Pinson, and Ames. Gieseke and Evelin were the outstanding members of their teams. Each won two first places and ran in the relay.

The results were as follows:

Dash—Evelin, Senior; Robinson, Freshman; Hopkins, Sophomore; time, $7\frac{1}{4}$ seconds. Javelin—Gieseke, Sophomore; Sheridan, Junior; Mayfield, Sophomore; distance, 63 feet, 3 inches. GIRLS' HOCKEY

Hockey was introduced into Phoenix Union High School last year and is now one of the most popular sports. As not enough girls came out for each class to have a team, the Seniors and Sophomores played the Juniors and Freshmen in the class tournament. Three games were played, and the Senior-Sophomore team won by a very decisive score. Those playing on the Senior-Sophomore team were: Dorothea Nelson, Marie Ames, Anna Marie Evelin, Lenore Nelson, Dorothy Roby, Helen Nelson, Rachel Hoyer, Katherine Sanders, Louise Rozeine, Edna Sanders, and Hilda Mayfield.

After the tournament was over, the all-star team was chosen. Those making this team were: Marie Ames, Ignacia Terras, Helen Nelson, Grace Kurtz, Edna Sanders, Vivian Ralston, Dorothy Roby, Louise Rozeine, Virginia Adams, Nora Adams, and Regina Harris.

The BEST of All Habits Is the One of THRIFT

Youthful THRIFT brings comfort and security to old age. THRIFT provides the Umbrella for those Rainy Days which come into all lives. You cannot evade them, but you can provide shelter against them.

We shall be glad to explain to you our THRIFT PLANS. How a small down payment and small regular monthly THRIFT payments will not only provide the shelter for the Rainy Days, but may also be profitable to you while you are paying on the plan.

For instance—last year 40 carloads of eggs were shipped into Phoenix. What a wonderful opportunity for chicken ranching on 5 or 10 acres close to your market.

Or a small down payment on citrus land—plant your grove and in a few years you will be participating in the potential profits of this great industry which is still in its infancy.

Or you may buy a building site—even a home on our plan of investing.

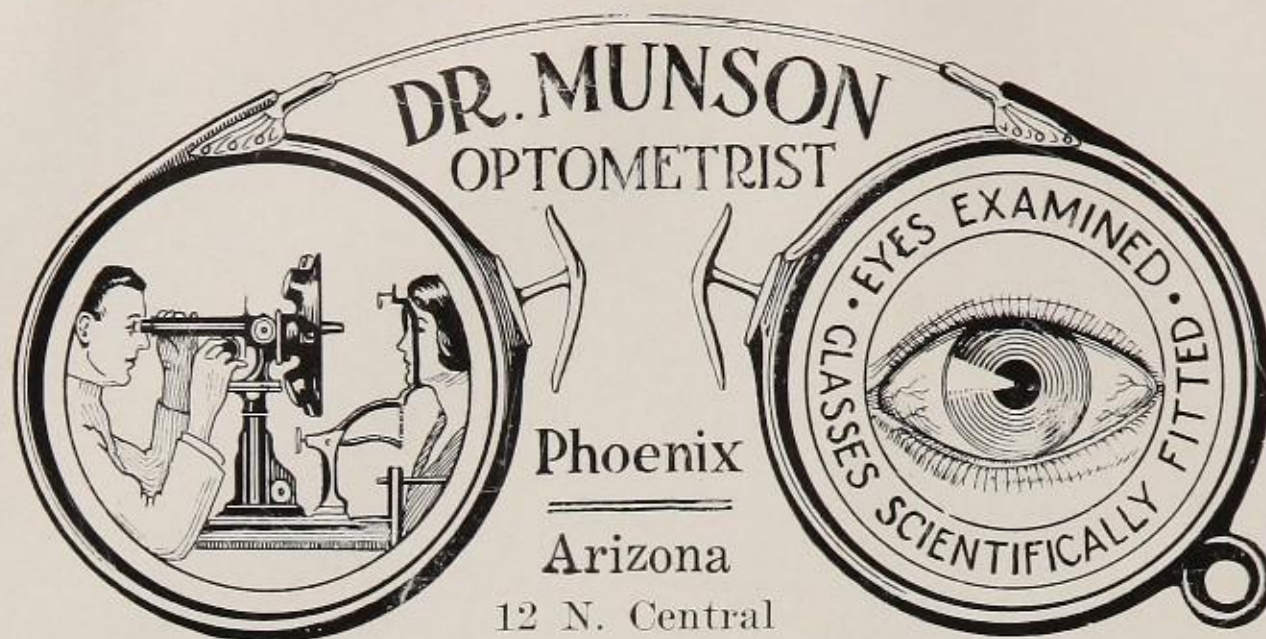

Consultation is free!

Come in and tell us of your dreams. We will do our share toward making them come true.

COST OF COLLEGIATE EDUCATION

It will cost a Phoenix Union High School graduate about $1000.00 for each year of college work away from home. Some pay a little more and some a little less, but the average cost is approximately $1000.00.

The same student can attend PHOENIX JUNIOR COLLEGE two years for a fraction of that amount. During those years he can save his money so that he can be sure of completing his college work and securing his degree. This is a safe and sane plan for any graduate of the Phoenix Union High School to follow and especially so for one of moderate means.

TRANSFERRING FROM PHOENIX JUNIOR COLLEGE TO ANOTHER COLLEGE OR TO A UNIVERSITY

Semester hours of credit earned in PHOENIX JUNIOR COLLEGE are accepted by other Colleges and Universities throughout the United States, hour for hour, and unit for unit. Consequently a graduate from PHOENIX JUNIOR COLLEGE who goes to some other College or to a University, suffers no loss of time or credit in completing and graduating in whatever course he may continue.

Keeping Faith

Keeping faith is more than a matter of moral honesty. Keeping faith means giving the utmost to those with whom we deal,—in giving all,—and more,—of what is expected of us. And it has been through that code of Keeping faith that Korricks' has risen to be the Foremost Store of Arizona.
